43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.[g]

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Ahab being denied Naboth's vineyard is grieved. b Jezebel writing letters against Naboth, he is condemned of blasphemy. 15 Ahab taketh possession of the vineyard. 17 Elijah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel. 25 Wicked Ahab repenting, God deferreth the judgment.

AND it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it [4]seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.[h]

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.[i]

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 ¶ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth [5]on high among the people:

10 And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.[j]

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.[a]

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,[b]

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.[c]

19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.[d]

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.[e]

21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel,[f]

22 And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.[g]

23 And of Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the [1]wall of Jezreel.[a]

24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.[b]

25 ¶ But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife [2]stirred up.[c]

26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.[d]

27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.[e]

28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.[f]

AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.[g]

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is our's, and we [3]be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?[h]

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.[i]

5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.[j]

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?[k]

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an [4]officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a [5]void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.[l]

15 ¶ So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord?

17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.[m]

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.[n]

20 And the LORD said, Who shall [6]persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.[o]

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.[p]

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?[q]

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go [7]into an inner chamber to hide thyself.[r]

28 And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you.[a]

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I [1]will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.[b]

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.[c]

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow [2]at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the [3]joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am [4]wounded.[d]

35 And the battle [5]increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the [6]midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

37 ¶ So the king died, and [7]was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.[e]

41 ¶ And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa [8]began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.[g]

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burn incense yet in the high places.[h]

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,

COMMONLY CALLED THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Moab rebelleth. 2 Ahaziah, sending to Baal-zebub, hath his judgment by Elijah. 5 Elijah twice bringeth fire from heaven upon them whom Ahaziah sent to apprehend him. 13 He pitieth the third captain, and, encouraged by an angel, telleth the king of his death. 17 Jehoram succeedeth Ahaziah

BEFORE CHRIST 896.

THEN Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.[a]

2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease.[b]

3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, [1]Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

a ch iii. 5; 2 Sam. viii. 2

b 1 Sam v. 10.

1 Heb The bed whither thou art gone up, thou shalt not come down from it.

5 ¶ And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back?

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said unto them, [1]What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.[a]

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.[b]

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and [2]fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.[c]

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 ¶ So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And [3]Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.[d]

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAPTER II.

1 Elijah, taking his leave of Elisha, with his mantle divideth Jordan, 9 and, granting Elisha his request, is taken up by a fiery chariot into heaven. 12 Elisha, dividing Jordan with Elijah's mantle, is acknowledged his successor. 16 The young prophets, hardly obtaining leave to seek Elijah, could not find him. 19 Elisha with salt healeth the unwholesome waters. 23 Bears destroy the children that mocked Elisha.

AND it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.[e]

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.[f]

3 And the sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.[g]

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here: for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood [4]to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.[h]

9 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, [5]Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.[i]

12 ¶ And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.[j]

ELIJAH ASCENDING TO HEAVEN IN THE PRESENCE OF ELISHA.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the [1]bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.[a]

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.[b]

16 ¶ And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty [2]strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon [3]some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.[c]

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.[d]

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

NOW Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the [1]image of Baal that his father had made.[a]

3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.[b]

6 ¶ And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.[c]

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle [2]that followed them.[d]

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah.[e]

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.[f]

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.[g]

14 And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.[h]

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.[i]

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts.

18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and [3]mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.[j]

21 ¶ And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they [4]gathered all that were able to [5]put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely [1]slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: [2]but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: [3]only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.[a]

26 ¶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.[b]

CHAPTER IV.

1 Elisha multiplieth the widow's oil. 8 He giveth a son to the good Shunammite. 18 He raiseth again her dead son. 38 At Gilgal he healeth the deadly pottage. 42 He satisfieth an hundred men with twenty loaves.

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.[c]

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; [4]borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy [5]debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ [6]And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she [7]constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.[d]

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, About this [8]season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid.[e]

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be [9]well.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; [10]slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite:[f]

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him [11]by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said,

CHAPTER V.

1 Naaman, by the report of a captive maid, is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy. 8 Elisha, sending him to Jordan, cureth him. 15 He refusing Naaman's gifts granteth him some of the earth. 20 Gehazi, abusing his master's name unto Naaman, is smitten with leprosy.

NOW Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man [6]with his master, and [7]honourable, because by him the LORD had given [8]deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.[k]

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she [9]waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were [10]with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would [11]recover him of his leprosy.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took [12]with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.[l]

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.[m]

8 ¶ And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.[n]

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, [13]I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and [14]strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not [15]Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

CHAPTER V.

1 Naaman, by the report of a captive maid, is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy. 8 Elisha, sending him to Jordan, cureth him. 15 He refusing Naaman's gifts granteth him some of the earth. 20 Gehazi, abusing his master's name unto Naaman, is smitten with leprosy.

NOW Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man [6]with his master, and [7]honourable, because by him the LORD had given [8]deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.[k]

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she [9]waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were [10]with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would [11]recover him of his leprosy.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

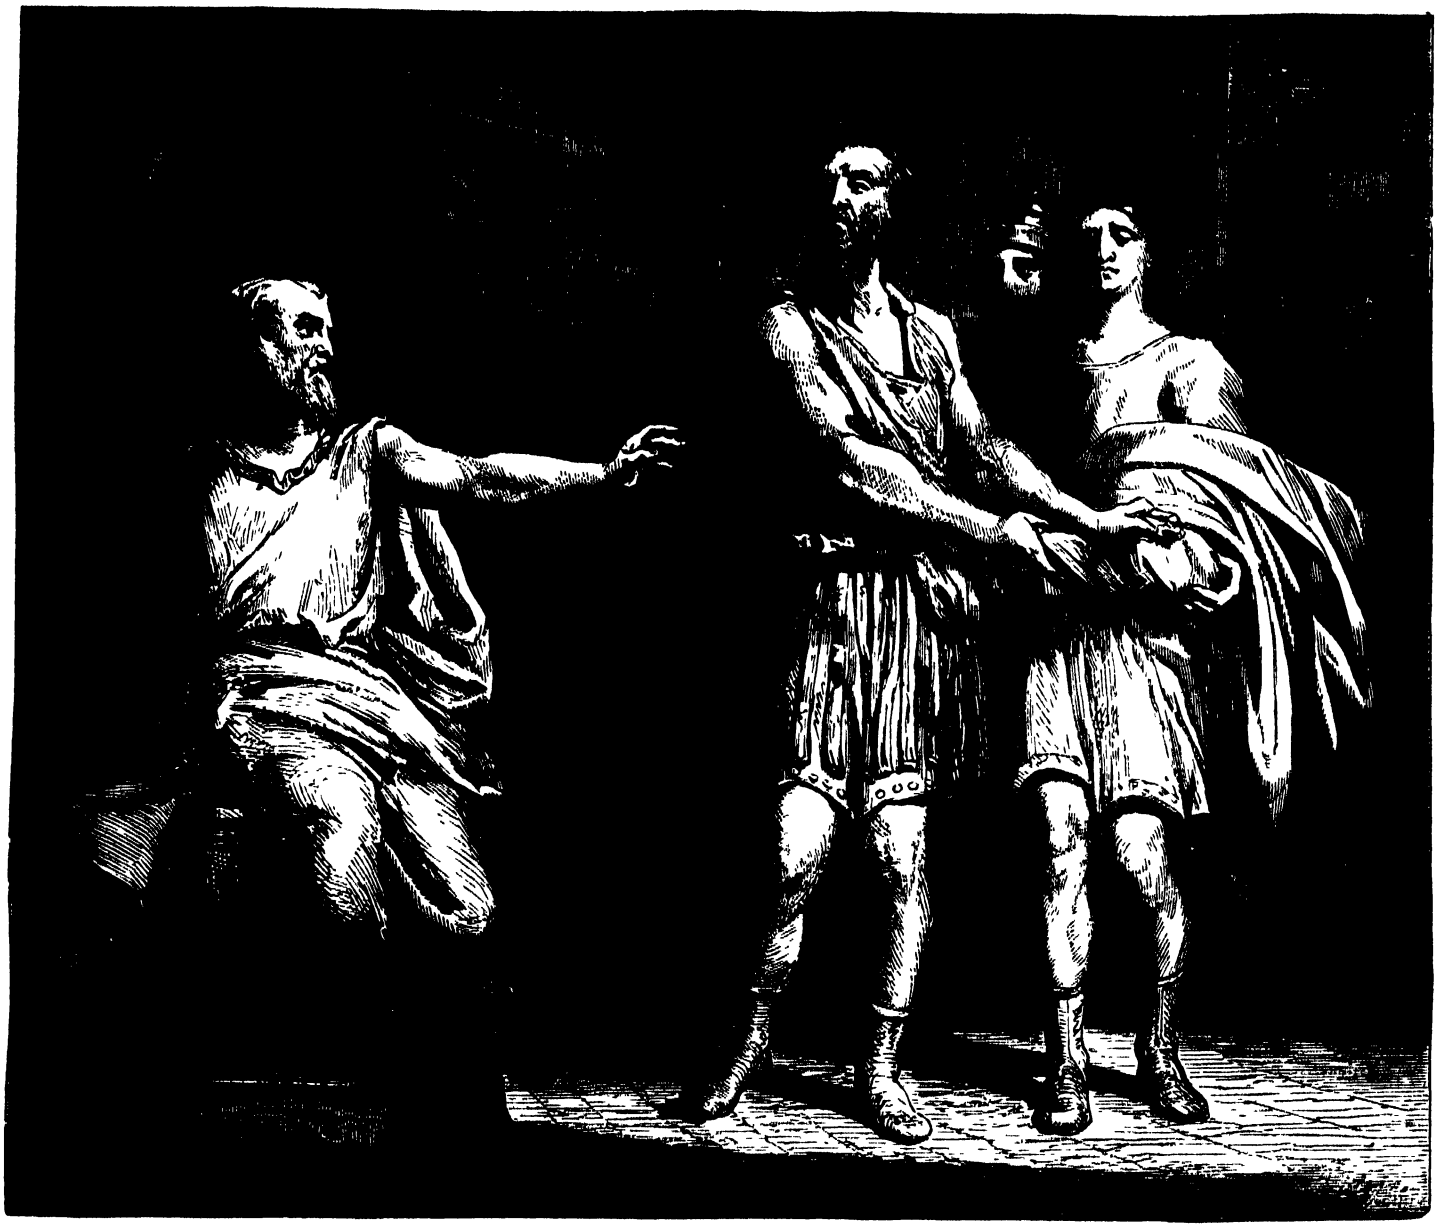
5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took [12]with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.[l]

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.[m]

8 ¶ And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.



9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.[n]

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, [13]I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and [14]strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not [15]Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.[a]

15 ¶ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.[b]

16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.[c]

17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.[d]

19 And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him [1]a little way.

20 ¶ But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, [2]Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents.

24 And when he came to the [1]tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went [2]no whither.

26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.[a]

CHAPTER VI.

1 Elisha, giving leave to the young prophets to enlarge their dwellings, causeth iron to swim. 8 He discloseth the king of Syria's counsel. 13 The army, which was sent to Dothan to apprehend Elisha, is smitten with blindness. 19 Being brought into Samaria, they are dismissed in peace. 24 The famine in Samaria causeth women to eat their own children. 30 The king sendeth to slay Elisha.

AND the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us.[b]

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

3 And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the [3]ax head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.[c]

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be [4]my camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?

13 ¶ And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.[d]

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a [6]great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

15 And when the [7]servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

16 And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.[e]

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.[f]

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.[g]

19 ¶ And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: [8]follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.[h]

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.[i]

24 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.

27 And he said, [9]If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress?

28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow.

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the [1]next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son.[a]

30 ¶ And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.[b]

31 Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.[c]

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?[d]

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer?

1 Elisha prophesieth incredible plenty in Samaria. 3 Four lepers, venturing on the host of the Syrians, bring tidings of their flight. 12 The king, finding by spies the news to be true, spoileth the tents of the Syrians. 17 The lord, who would not believe the prophecy of plenty, having the charge of the gate, is trodden to death in the press.

THEN Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.[e]

2 Then [2]a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.[f]

3 ¶ And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?[g]

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.[i]

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, [3]some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's houshold.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 ¶ And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.[a]

1 The Shunammite, having left her country seven years, to avoid the foretold famine, for Elisha's miracle sake hath her land restored by the king. 7 Hazael, being sent with a present by Ben-hadad to Elisha at Damascus, after he had heard the prophecy, killeth his master, and succeedeth him. 16 Jehoram's wicked reign in Judah. 20 Edom and Libnah revolt. 23 Ahaziah succeedeth Jehoram. 25 Ahaziah's wicked reign. 28 He visiteth Jehoram wounded, at Jezreel.

THEN spake Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called for a famine; and itshall also come upon the land seven years.[d]

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her houshold, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.[e]

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.[f]

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain [1]officer, saying, Restore all that was her's, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 ¶ And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?[c]

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present [2]with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

13 And Hazael said, But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.[d]

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jenoshaphat king of Judah [1]began to reign.[a]

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.[b]

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.[c]

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give him alway a [2]light, and to his children.[d]

20 ¶ In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.[e]

21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and [4]Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.[g]

25 ¶ In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.

26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the [5]daughter of Omri king of Israel.[h]

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab.[i]

28 ¶ And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.[j]

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds [6]which the Syrians had given him at [7]Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was [8]sick.[k]

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.[p]

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel:[q]

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah:[r]

10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.[s]

11 ¶ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu [10]is king.

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.

15 But king [11]Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians [12]had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then [13]let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel.[t]

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.[u]

17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the [1]driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth [2]furiously.

21 And Joram said, [3]Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and [4]met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.[a]

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.

24 And Jehu [5]drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he [6]sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him;[b]

26 Surely I have seen yesterday the [7]blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this [8]plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.[c]

27 ¶ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to [9]Megiddo, and died there.[d]

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.[10]

30 ¶ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she [11]painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.[e]

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three [12]eunuchs.

33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter.[f]

35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake [13]by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:[g]

37 And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.[h]

CHAPTER X.

1 Jehu, by his letters, causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. 8 He excuseth the fact by the prophecy of Elijah. 12 At the shearing house he slayeth two and forty of Ahaziah's brethren. 15 He taketh Jehonadab into his company. 18 By subtilty he destroyeth all the worshippers of Baal. 29 Jehu followeth Jeroboam's sins. 32 Hazael oppresseth Israel. 34 Jehoahas succeedeth Jehu.

AND Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to [14]them that brought up Ahab's children, saying,

2 Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;

3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be [15]mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.[i]

8 ¶ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?[j]

10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake [16]by his servant Elijah.[k]

11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his [17]kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 ¶ And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the [1]shearing house in the way,

13 Jehu [2]met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down [3]to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen.[a]

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he [4]lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he [5]saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.[b]

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.[c]

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.[d]

18 ¶ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much.[e]

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.[f]

20 And Jehu said, [6]Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal [7]was full from one end to another.[g]

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him.[h]

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with [8]the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought forth the [9]images out of the house of Baal, and burned them.[i]

27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day.[j]

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 ¶ Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.[k]

30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.[l]

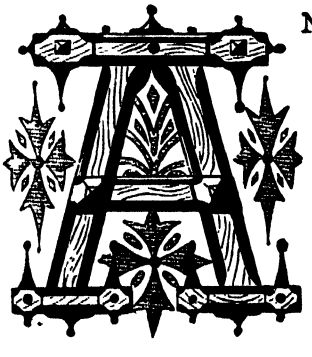
31 But Jehu [10]took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.[m]

32 ¶ In those days the LORD began [11]to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel;[n]

33 From Jordan [12]eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, [13]even Gilead and Bashan.[o]

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.



36 And [14]the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Jehoash, being saved by Jehosheba his aunt from Athaliah's massacre of the seed royal, is hid six years in the house of God. 4 Jehoiada, giving order to the captains, in the seventh year anointeth him king. 13 Athaliah is slain. 17 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

AND when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the [15]seed royal.[p]

2 But [16]Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took [17]Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

4 ¶ And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.[q]

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;[r]

CORONATION OF JOASH INTERRUPTED BY ATHALIAH.

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, [1]that it be not broken down.

7 And two [2]parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.[a]

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right [3]corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, [4]God save the king.

13 ¶ And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.[b]

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason.[c]

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

17 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; between the king also and the people.[d]

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed [5]officers over the house of the LORD.[e]

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.

21 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.[f]

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jehoash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada. 4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple. 17 Hazael is diverted from Jerusalem by a present of the hallowed treasures. 19 Jehoash being slain by his servants, Amaziah succeedeth him

IN the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.[g]

2 And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.[h]

4 ¶ And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the [6]dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even [7]the money of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that [8]cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD,[i]

5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that [9]in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.[j]

7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.[k]

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the [10]door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.[l]

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's [11]scribe and the high priest came up, and they [12]put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they [13]laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that [14]was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 Howbeit there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD:[a]

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

15 Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.[b]

16 The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.[c]

17 ¶ Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.[d]

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and [1]Joash his son reigned [2]in his stead.

10 ¶ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah [3]began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked therein.

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?[b]

13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.[c]

15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows.

17 And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them.[d]

18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.[e]

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man [5]was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 ¶ But Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.[f]

23 And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and

Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his [1]presence as yet.[a]

24 So Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz [2]took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.[b]

IN the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah.[c]

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did.

4 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.[d]

5 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father.[e]

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.[f]

7 He slew of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took [3]Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel unto this day.[g]

8 ¶ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.[h]

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.[i]

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry [4]at home: for why shouldest thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?[j]

11 But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.[k]

12 And Judah was [5]put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits.[l]

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

25 He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant [2]Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher.[c]

26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel.[d]

IN the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began [4]Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.[g]

2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.[h]

5 ¶ And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.[i]

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.[j]

8 ¶ In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria [5]six months.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.[k]

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.[l]

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of [6]Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned [7]a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.[m]

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Menahem smote Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the women therein that were with child he ripped up.[n]

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

19 And Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand.[o]

20 And Menahem [8]exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.[b]

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.[c]

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.[d]

5 ¶ Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.[e]

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered [2]Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.[f]

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to [3]Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.[g]

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Hoshea's wicked reign. 3 Being subdued by Shalmaneser, he conspireth against him with So king of Egypt. 5 Samaria for their sins is captivated. 24 The strange nations, which were transplanted in Samaria, being plagued with lions, make a mixture of religions.

IN the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began [7]Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 ¶ Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and [8]gave him [9]presents.[n]

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 ¶ Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.[o]

6 ¶ In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.[p]

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.[a]

9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.[b]

10 And they set them up [1]images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:[c]

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.[d]

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, [2]by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.[e]

14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.[f]

15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.[g]

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.[h]

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.[i]

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.[j]

19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.[k]

20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.[l]

21 For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin.[m]

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.[n]

24 ¶ And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from [3]Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.[o]

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,[p]

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.[q]

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.[r]

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations [4]whom they carried away from thence.[s]

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;[t]

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:[u]

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.[v]

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.[w]

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods.[x]

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.[y]

THE SERVANTS OF HEZEKIAH REPORTING THE MESSAGE OF THE KING OF ASSYRIA.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 4 He destroyeth idolatry, and prospereth. 9 Samaria is carried captive for their sins. 13 Sennacherib invading Judah is pacified by a tribute. 17 Rab-shakeh, sent by Sennacherib again, revileth Hezekiah, and by blasphemous persuasions soliciteth the people to revolt.

NOW it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.[a]

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was [1]Abi, the of Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

4 ¶ He removed the high places, and brake the and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces

the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it [3]Nehushtan.[b]

5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.[c]

6 For he clave to the LORD, and departed not [4]from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.[d]

7 And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.[e]

8 He smote the Philistines, even unto [5]Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.[f]

9 ¶ And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.[g]

10 And at the end of three years they took it:

even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.[a]

11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:[b]

12 Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.[c]

13 ¶ Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did [1]Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.[d]

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.[e]

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave [2]it to the king of Assyria.

17 ¶ And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a [3]great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.[f]

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the houshold, and Shebna the [4]scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?[g]

20 Thou [5]sayest, (but they are but [6]vain words,) [7]I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou [8]trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.[h]

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?[i]

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give [9]pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:[j]

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, [10]Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his [11]cistern:[k]

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he [12]persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.[l]

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?[m]

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and [13]Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?[n]

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?[o]

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the houshold, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.[p]

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.[q]

2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the houshold, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to [14]Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

ASSYRIAN WARRIORS RETURNING FROM BATTLE.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.[b]

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [2]Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.[b]

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept [3]sore.[c]

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle [4]court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.[d]

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.[e]

7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.[f]

8 ¶ And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?[g]

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the [1]dial of Ahaz.[b]

12 ¶ At that time [2]Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.[c]

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his [3]precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his [4]armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.[d]

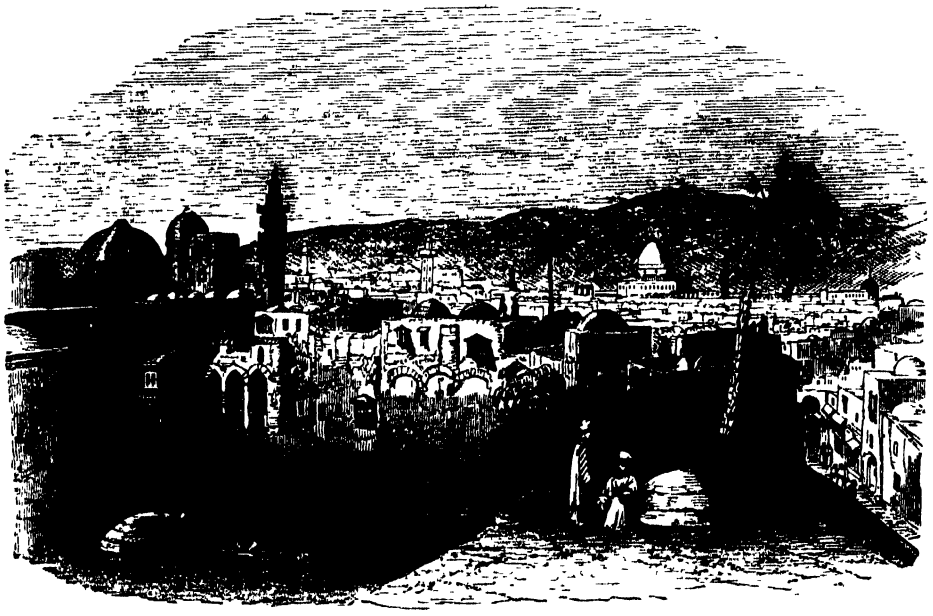
14 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.[e]

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.[f]

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.[g]



19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, [5]Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?[h]

HEZEKIAH'S POOL, JERUSALEM.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Manasseh's reign. 3 His great idolatry. 10 His wickedness causeth prophecies against Judah. 17 Amon succeedeth him. 19 Amon's wicked reign. 23 He being slain by his servants, and those murderers slain by the people, Josiah is made king.

MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.[k]

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.[l]

3 For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.[m]

4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem will I put my name.[n]

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.[o]

7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:[p]

8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.[q]

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.[r]

10 ¶ And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols:[s]

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.[t]

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, [1]wiping it, and turning it upside down.[a]

14 And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem [2]from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.[b]

17 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?[c]

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.[d]

19 ¶ Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.[e]

20. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did.[f]

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.[g]

23 ¶ And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.[h]

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and [3]Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He taketh care for the repair of the temple. 8 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to enquire of the Lord. 15 Huldah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but respite thereof in Josiah's time.

JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath[i]

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.[j]

3 ¶ And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,[k]

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the [4]door have gathered of the people:[l]

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.[m]

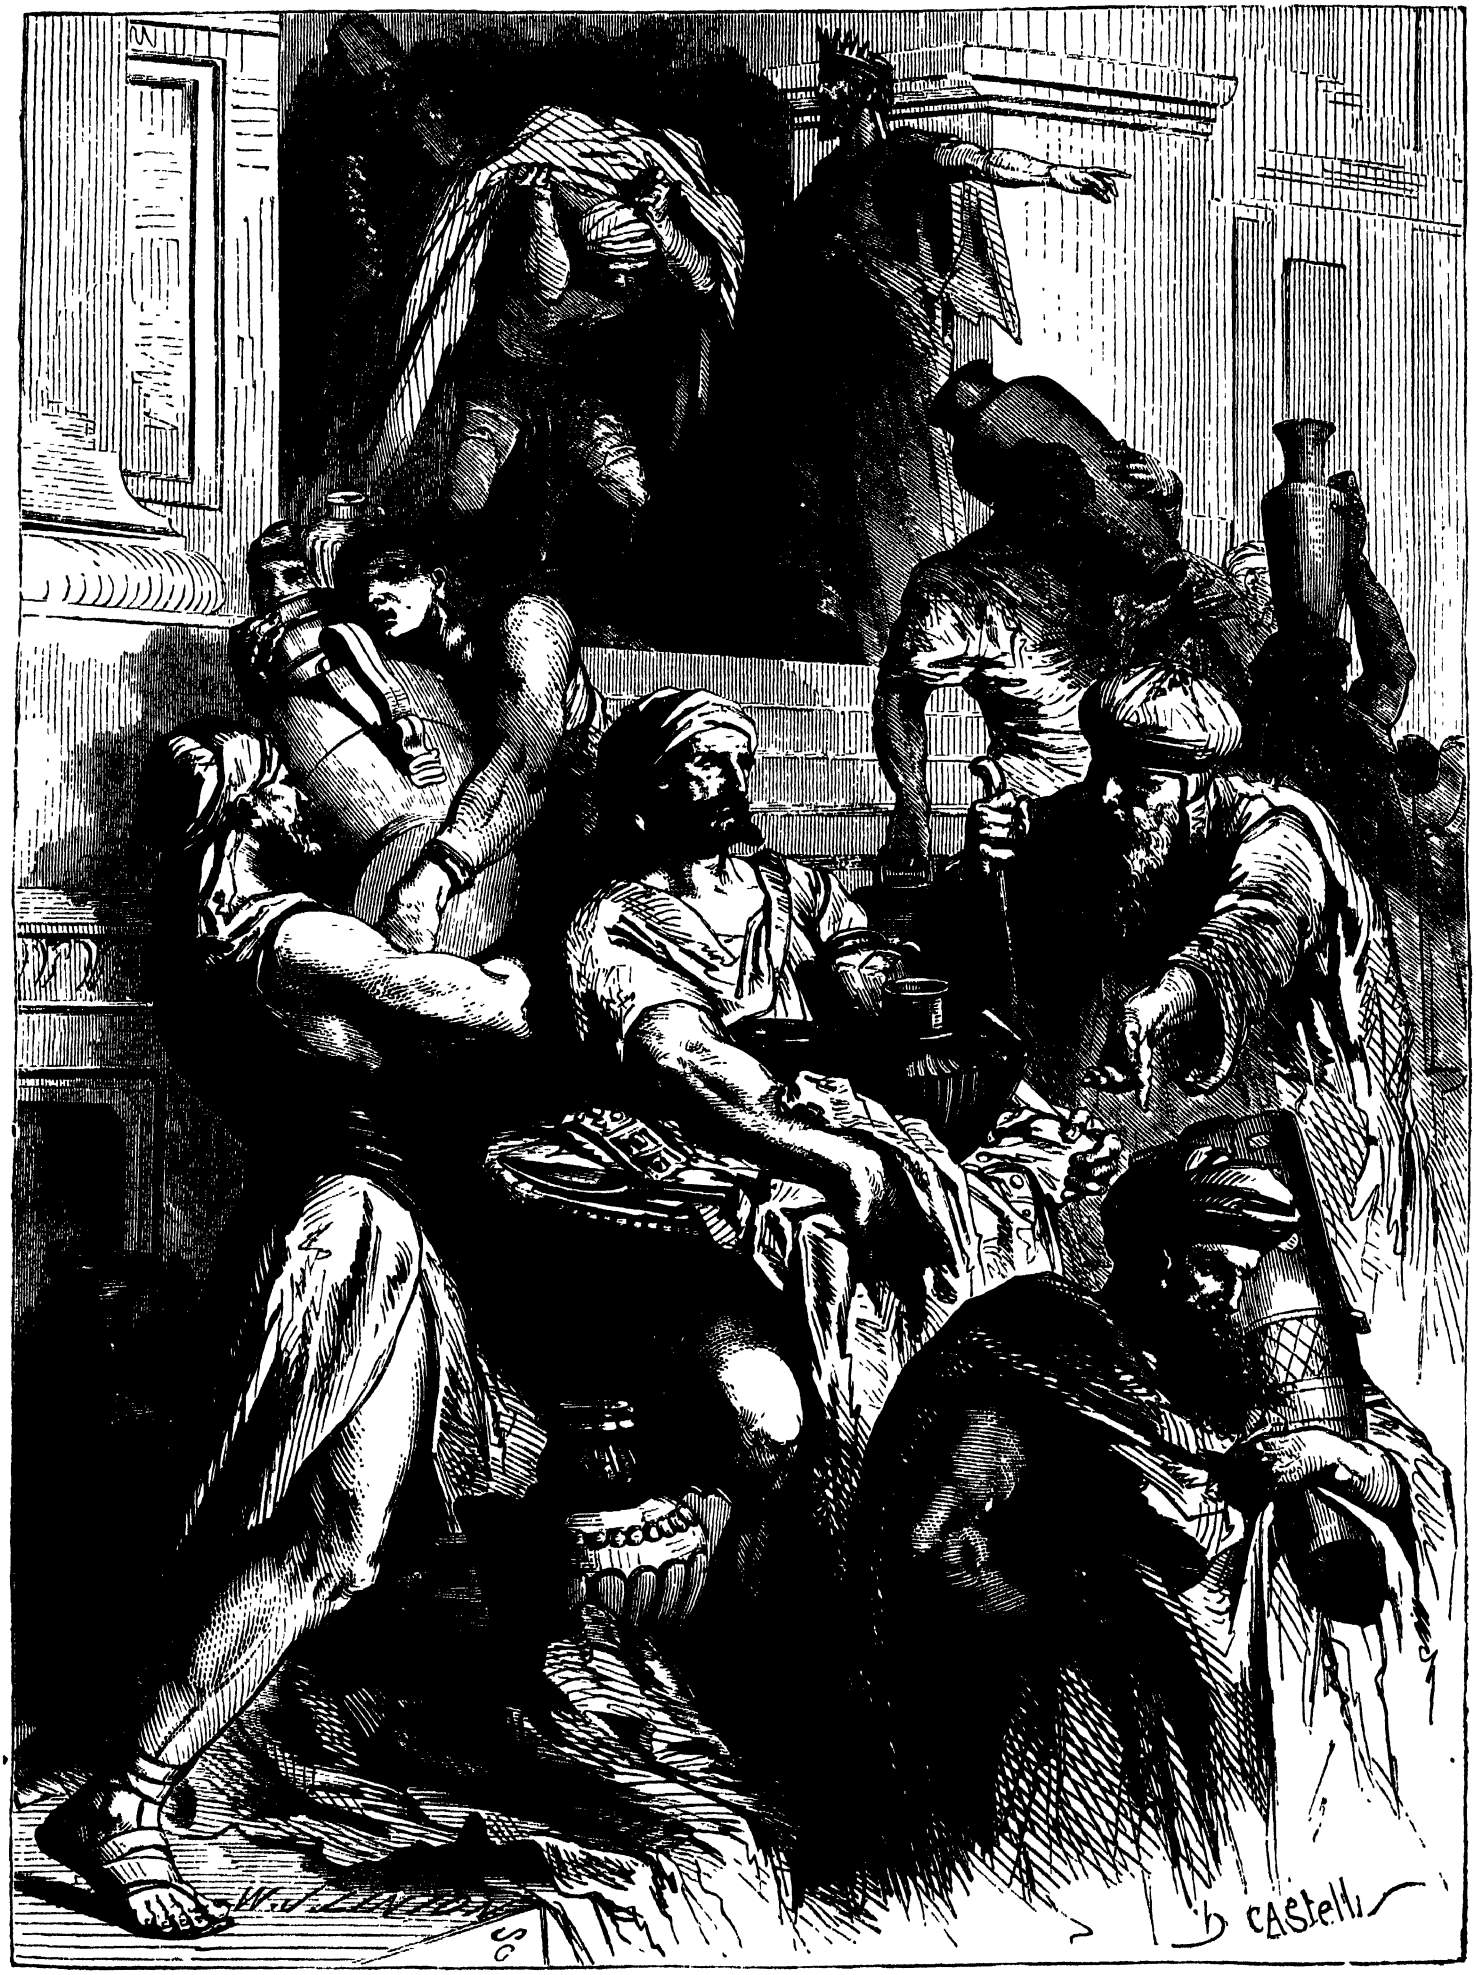
8 ¶ And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.[n]

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have [5]gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.

10 And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and [6]Achbor the son of [7]Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying,



13 Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.[o]

14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of [8]Tikvah, the son of [9]Harhas, keeper of the [10]wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem [11]in the college;) and they communed with her.

15 ¶ And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:[p]

17 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.[q]

REMOVING THE VESSELS OF BAAL FROM THE TEMPLE BY THE COMMAND OF KING JOSIAH.

18 But to the king of Judah which sent you to enquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard;[a]

19 Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.[b]

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.[c]

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Josiah causeth the book to be read in a solemn assembly. 3 He renewcth the covenant of the Lord. 4 He destroyeth idolatry. 15 He burnt dead men's bones upon the altar of Beth-el, as was foreprophesied. 21 He kept a most solemn passover. 24 He put away witches and all abomination. 26 God's final wrath against Judah. 29 Josiah, provoking Pharaoh-nechoh, is slain at Megiddo. 31 Jehoahaz, succeeding him, is imprisoned by Pharaoh-nechoh, who made Jehoiakim king. 36 Jehoiakim's wicked reign.

AND the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.[d]

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, [1]both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.[e]

3 ¶ And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.[f]

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.[g]

5 And he [2]put down [3]the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the [4]planets, and to all the host of heaven.[h]

6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.[i]

7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove [5]hangings for the grove.[j]

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.[k]

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.[l]

10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.[m]

11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the [6]chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and [7]brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.[n]

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of [8]the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.[o]

14 And he brake in pieces the [9]images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.[p]

15 ¶ Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.[q]

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.[r]

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.[s]

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones [10]alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.[t]

20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.[a]

21 ¶ And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.[c]

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the [1]eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 ¶ Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the [2]images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.[d]

25 And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.[e]

26 ¶ Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the [3]provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.[f]

27 And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.[g]

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 ¶ In his days Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo, when he had seen him.[h]

30 And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.[i]

31 ¶ [4]Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.[j]

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, [5]that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and [6]put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.[k]

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and died there.[l]

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-necho.[m]

36 ¶ Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.[n]

37 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Jehoiakim, first subdued by Nebuchadnezzar, then rebelling against him, procureth his own ruin. 5 Jehoiachin succeedeth him. 7 The king of Egypt is vanquished by the king of Babylon. 8 Jehoiachin's evil reign. 10 Jerusalem is taken and carried captive into Babylon. 17 Zedekiah is made king, and reigneth ill unto the utter destruction of Judah.

IN his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.[o]

2 And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake [7]by his servants the prophets.[p]

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;[q]

4 And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.[r]

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.[s]

7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.[t]

8 ¶ [8]Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.[u]

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

ZEDEKIAH BEFORE THE KING OF BABYLON.

10 ¶ At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was [1]besieged.[a]

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his [2]officers: [3]and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.[b]

13 And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.[c]

14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.[d]

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his [4]officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.[e]

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.[f]

17 ¶ And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.[g]

18 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.[h]

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.[i]

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.[j]

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Jerusalem is besieged. 4 Zedekiah taken, his sons slain, his eyes put out. 8 Nebuzar-adan defaceth the city, carrieth the remnant, except a few poor labourers, unto captivity, 13 spoileth and carrieth away the treasures. 18 The nobles are slain at Riblah. 22 Gedaliah, who was set over them that remained, being slain, the rest flee into Egypt. 27 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin in his court.

AND it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.[k]

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.[a]

4 ¶ And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward the plain.[b]

5 And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they [1]gave judgment upon him.[c]

7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.[d]

8 ¶ And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, [2]captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:[e]

9 And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.[f]

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.[g]

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the [3]fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.[h]

12 But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.[i]

13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.[j]

14 And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.[k]

15 And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, [4]one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.[l]

17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapiter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapiter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.[m]

18 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the [5]door:[n]

19 And out of the city he took an [6]officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that [7]were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the [8]principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:[o]

20 And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.[p]

22 ¶ And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.[q]

23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.[r]

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25 But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed [9]royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.[s]

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;[t]

28 And he spake [10]kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life.[u]

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

12 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (of whom came the Philistines,) and Caphthorim.[a]

13 And Canaan begat Zidon his firstborn, and Heth,[b]

14 The Jebusite also, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

15 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

16 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite.

17 ¶ The sons of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and [1]Meshech.[c]

18 And Arphaxad begat Shelah, and Shelah begat Eber.

19 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was [2]Peleg; because in his days the earth was divided: and his brother's name was Joktan.

20 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah,[d]

21 Hadoram also, and Uzal, and Diklah,

22 And Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

23 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

24 ¶ Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah,[e]

25 Eber, Peleg, Reu,[f]

26 Serug, Nahor, Terah,

27 Abram; the same is Abraham.[g]

28 The sons of Abraham; Isaac, and Ishmael.[h]

29 ¶ These are their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,[i]

30 Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, [3]Hadad, and Tema,

31 Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.

32 ¶ Now the sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bare Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan; Sheba, and Dedan.[j]

33 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Henoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these are the sons of Keturah.

34 And Abraham begat Isaac. The sons of Isaac; Esau and Israel.[k]

35 ¶ The sons of Esau; Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.[l]

36 The sons of Eliphaz; Teman, and Omar, [4]Zephi, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek.

37 The sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

38 And the sons of Seir; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezar, and Dishan.[m]

39 And the sons of Lotan; Hori, and Homam: and Timna was Lotan's sister.[n]

40 The sons of Shobal; [5]Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, [6]Shephi, and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon; Aiah, and Anah.

41 The sons of Anah; Dishon. And the sons of Dishon; [7]Amram, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.[o]

42 The sons of Ezer; Bilhan, and Zavan, and [8]Jakan. The sons of Dishan; Uz, and Aran.

43 ¶ Now these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.[p]

44 And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

45 And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

46 And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, which smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

47 And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

48 And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.[q]

49 And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

50 And when Baal-hanan was dead, [9]Hadad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was [10]Pai; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

51 ¶ Hadad died also. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke [11]Aliah, duke Jetheth,[r]

52 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon,

53 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar,

54 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram. These are the dukes of Edom.

16 Whose sisters were Zeruiah, and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three.[a]
17 And Abigail bare Amasa: and the father of Amasa was [1]Jether the Ishmeelite.[b]
18 ¶ And Caleb the son of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth: her sons are these; Jesher, and Shobab, and Ardon.
19 And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him Ephrath, which bare him Hur.[c]
20 And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezaleel.[d]
21 ¶ And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he [2]married when he was threescore years old; and she bare him Segub.[e]
22 And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead.
23 And he took Geshur, and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even threescore cities. All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.[f]
24 And after that Hezron was dead in Caleb-ephratah, then Abiah Hezron's wife bare him Ashur the father of Tekoa.[g]
25 ¶ And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah.
26 Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.
27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker.
28 And the sons of Onam were, Shammai, and Jada. And the sons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abishur.
29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bare him Ahban, and Molid.
30 And the sons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without children.
31 And the sons of Appaim; Ishi. And the sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And the children of Sheshan; Ahlai.
32 And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without children.
33 And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.
34 ¶ Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha.
35 And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai.
36 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad,[h]
37 And Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed,
38 And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah,
39 And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah,
40 And Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, 41 And Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama.
42 ¶ Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, which was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.
43 And the sons of Hebron; Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema.
44 And Shema begat Raham, the father of Jorkoam: and Rekem begat Shammai.
45 And the son of Shammai was Maon: and Maon was the father of Beth-zur.
46 And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez: and Haran begat Gazez.
47 And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Gesham, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph.
48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bare Sheber, and Tirhanah.
49 She bare also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibea: and the daughter of Caleb was Achsa.[i]
50 ¶ These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of [3]Ephratah; Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim, 51 Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader.
52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons; [4]Haroeh, and [5]half of the Manahethites.
53 And the families of Kirjath-jearim; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the Zareathites, and the Eshtaulites.
54 The sons of Salma; Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, [6]Ataroth, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites.
55 And the families of the scribes which dwelt at Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab.[j]

CHAPTER III.

1 The sons of David. 10 His line to Zedekiah. 17 The successors of Jeconiah.

NOW these were the sons of David, which were born unto him in Hebron; the firstborn Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second [7]Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess:[k]
2 The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith:
3 The fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife.[l]
4 These six were born unto him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years.[m]
5 And these were born unto him in Jerusalem: Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of [8]Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel:[n]

CHAPTER IV.

1, 11 The posterity of Judah by Caleb the son of Hur. 5 Of Ashur the posthumous son of Hezron. 9 Of Jabez, and his prayer. 21 The posterity of Shelah. 24 The posterity and cities of Simeon. 39 Their conquest of Gedor, and of the Amalekites in mount Seir.

THE sons of Judah; Pharez, Hezron, and [13]Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal.[f]
2 And [14]Reaiah the son of Shobal begat Jahath; and Jahath begat Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites.
3 And these were of the father of Etam; Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi:
4 And Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah, the father of Beth-lehem.[g]
5 ¶ And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.[h]
6 And Naarah bare him Ahuzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.
7 And the sons of Helah were, Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan.
8 And Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.
9 ¶ And [15]Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow.[i]
10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, [16]Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest [17]keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested.
11 ¶ And Chelub the brother of Shuah begat Mehir, which was the father of Eshton.
12 And Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of [18]Ir-nahash. These are the men of Rechah.
13 And the sons of Kenaz, Othniel, and Seraiah: and the sons of Othniel; [19]Hathath.[j]
14 And Meonothai begat Ophrah: and Seraiah

begat Joab, the father of the [1]valley of [2]Charashim; for they were craftsmen.[a]

15 And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah, even [3]Kenaz.

16 And the sons of Jehaleleel; Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel.

17 And the sons of Ezra were, Jether, and Mered, and Epher, and Jalon: and she bare Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

18 And his wife [4]Jehudijah bare Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, which Mered took.

19 And the sons of his wife [5]Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

20 And the sons of Shimon were, Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were, Zoheth, and Ben-zoheth.

21 ¶ The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were, Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of them that wrought fine linen, of the house of Ashbea,[b]

22 And Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had the dominion in Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. And these are ancient things.

23 These were the potters, and those that dwelt among plants and hedges: there they dwelt with the king for his work.

1 The line of Reuben (who lost his birthright) unto the captivity. 9 Their habitation and conquest of the Hagarites. 11 The chief men and habitations of Gad. 18 The number and conquest of Reuben, Gad, and the half of Manasseh. 23 The habitations and chief men of that half tribe. 25 Their captivity for their sin.

NOW the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.[d]

2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came [11]the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's:)[e]

3 The sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and

4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

5 Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son,

6 Beerah his son, whom [12]Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,[g]

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of [13]Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-meon:[h]

THE REUBENITES CARRIED INTO CAPTIVITY BY THE ASSYRIANS.

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.[a]

10 And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents [1]throughout all the east land of Gilead.[b]

11 ¶ And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Salcah:[c]

12 Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon [2]their borders.[d]

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.[e]

18 ¶ The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of [3]valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.[f]

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they put their trust in him.[g]

21 And they [4]took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and [5]of men an hundred thousand.

37 The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah,[p]

38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

39 And his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea,

40 The son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchiah,

41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,[q]

42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,

43 The son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

44 And their brethren the sons of Merari stood on the left hand: [1]Ethan the son of [2]Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

45 The son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,

46 The son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer,

47 The son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 Their brethren also the Levites were appointed unto all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

49 ¶ But Aaron and his sons offered upon the altar of the burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the place most holy, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.[a]

50 And these are the sons of Aaron; Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son,

53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

54 ¶ Now these are their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites: for their's was the lot.[b]

55 And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it.[c]

56 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.[d]

57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely, Hebron, the city of refuge, and Libnah with her suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa, with their suburbs,[e]

58 And [3]Hilen with her suburbs, Debir with her suburbs,

59 And [4]Ashan with her suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with her suburbs:

60 And out of the tribe of Benjamin; Geba with her suburbs, and [5]Alemeth with her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

61 And unto the sons of Kohath, which were left of the family of that tribe, were cities given out of the half tribe, namely, out of the half tribe of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities.[f]

62 And to the sons of Gershom throughout their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

63 Unto the sons of Merari were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.[g]

64 And the children of Israel gave to the Levites these cities with their suburbs.

65 And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities, which are called by their names.

66 And the residue of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their coasts out of the tribe of Ephraim.[h]

67 And they gave unto them, of the cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim with her suburbs; they gave also Gezer with her suburbs,[i]

69 And Aijalon with her suburbs, and Gathrimmon with her suburbs:

70 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh; Aner with her suburbs, and Bileam with her suburbs, for the family of the remnant of the sons of Kohath.

71 Unto the sons of Gershom were given out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Ashtaroth with her suburbs:

72 And out of the tribe of Issachar; Kedesh with her suburbs, Daberath with her suburbs,

73 And Ramoth with her suburbs, and Anem with her suburbs:

74 And out of the tribe of Asher; Mashal with her suburbs, and Abdon with her suburbs,

75 And Hukok with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs:

76 And out of the tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammon with her suburbs, and Kirjathaim with her suburbs.

77 Unto the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon with her suburbs, Tabor with her suburbs:

78 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of Jordan, were given them out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with her suburbs, and Jahzah with her suburbs,

79 Kedemoth also with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs:

CHAPTER IX.

1 The original of Israel's and Judah's genealogies. 2 The Israelites, 10 the priests, 14 and the Levites, with Nethinims, which dwelt in Jerusalem. 27 The charge of certain Levites. 35 The stock of Saul and Jonathan.

SO all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.[b]

2 ¶ Now the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nethinims.[c]

3 And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh;[d]

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah.

5 And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.

6 And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah,

8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10 ¶ And of the priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin,[e]

11 And [5]Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God;

12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasiai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; [6]very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the [7]gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.[f]

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer [8]did ordain in their [9]set office.[g]

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.[h]

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their [10]set office, and were over the [11]chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

27 ¶ And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they [12]should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the [13]instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.[i]

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the [14]set office over the things that were made [15]in the pans.[j]

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the [16]shewbread, to prepare it every sabbath.[k]

whom David had, who [1]strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD, concerning Israel.[a]

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, [2]an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties.

13 He was with David at [3]Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they [4]set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great [5]deliverance.

15 ¶ Now [6]three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.[b]

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men [7]that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

20 ¶ And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.[c]

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.[d]

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, [8]who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.[e]

23 And he slew an Egyptian, [9]a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighties.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 ¶ Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,[f]

1 The companies that came to David at Ziklag. 23 The armies that came to him at Hebron.

NOW these are they that came to David to Ziklag, [26]while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.[g]

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.[h]

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out [4]to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall [5]be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no [6]wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then [7]the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.[c]

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul [8]to the jeopardy of our heads.[d]

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David [1]against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.[a]

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 ¶ And these are the numbers of the [2]bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.[b]

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready [3]armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.[c]

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the [4]kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto [5]the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.[d]

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, [6]famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.[e]

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, [7]expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could [8]keep rank: they were [9]not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, [10]expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, [11]meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obed-edom.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, [12]let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are [13]in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us [14]bring again the ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul.[f]

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.[g]

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.[h]

7 And they [15]carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.[i]

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with [16]singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.[j]

9 ¶ And when they came unto the threshingfloor of [17]Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen [18]stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.[k]

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called [19]Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David [20]brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.[l]

[c] 2 Sam. v. 17.

3 ¶ And David took [1]more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,[b]

5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and [2]Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.[c]

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.[a]

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to [1]Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.[b]

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.[c]

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from [2]Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.[d]

CHAPTER XV.

1 David, having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom. 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.[e]

2 Then David said, [3]None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.[f]

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.[g]

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and [4]his brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

9 Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:[i]

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.[j]

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.[k]

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;[l]

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and [5]Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;[m]

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps [6]on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, [7]was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.[n]

25 ¶ So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.[o]

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the [8]song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

DAVID, IN THE ASSEMBLY OF THE LEVITES, COMMANDING THE BRINGING UP OF THE ARK.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.[a]

29 ¶ And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.[b]

CHAPTER

1 David's festival sacrifice. 4 He ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalm of thanksgiving. 37 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO they brought God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.[c]

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:[d]

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel [1]with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.[e]

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David, to build God an house, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him. 11 He promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.[n]

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but [5]have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Whersoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, [6]even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel:

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:[o]

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.[a]

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?[b]

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all [1]these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

27 Now therefore [3]let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

DAVID'S TOWER, AT JERUSALEM

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites. 3 He smiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians. 9 Tou sendeth Hadoram with presents to bless David. 11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God. 13 He putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 David's officers.

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.[c]

2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote [4]Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and [5]seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of [6]Damascus came to help

Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from [1]Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.[a]

9 ¶ Now when [2]Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent [3]Hadoram his son to king David, [4]to enquire of his welfare, and [5]to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer [6]had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 ¶ Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover [7]Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.[b]

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.[c]

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, [8]recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and [9]Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and [10]Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief [11]about the king.[d]

CHAPTER XIX.

1 David's messengers, sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villanously entreated 6 The Ammonites, strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach, making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.[e]

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Haman to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, [12]Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves [13]odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.[f]

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that [14]the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the [15]choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of [16]Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

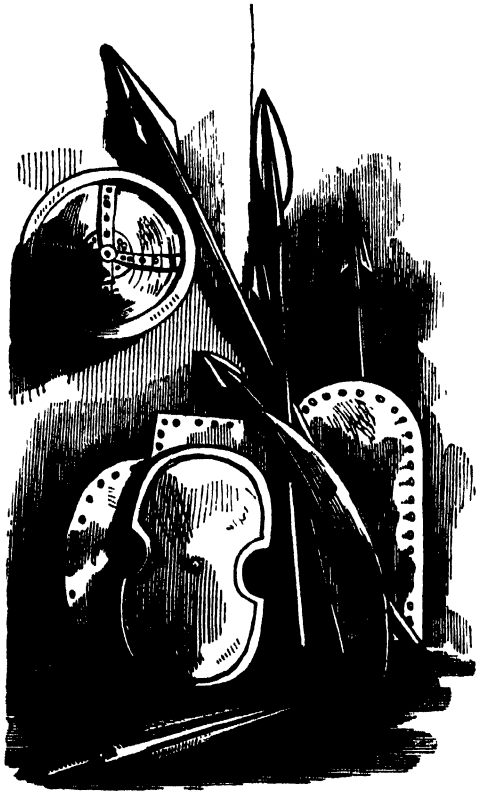
14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond [17]the river: and [18]Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.



19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrows of the Philistines.

AND it came to pass, that [1]after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.[a]

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it [2]to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.[b]

ANCIENT JEWISH SHIELDS AND SPEARS.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that there [3]arose war at [4]Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew [5]Sippai, that was of the children of [6]the giant: and they were subdued.[c]

5 And there was war again with the Philistines: and Elhanan the son of [7]Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was [8]a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was [9]the son of the giant.[d]

7 But when he [10]defied Israel, Jonathan the son of [11]Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 David, tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by Gad chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David, by Gad's direction, purchaseth Ornan's threshing-floor: where having built an altar, God giveth a sign of his favour by fire, and stayeth the plague. 28 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the angel.

AND Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.[e]

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.[f]

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.[g]

7 [12]And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.[h]

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,[i]

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, [13]I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [14]Choose thee

DAVID INSTRUCTING JOAB TO NUMBER THE PEOPLE.

12 Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.[a]

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very [1]great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of [2]Ornan the Jebusite.[b]

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.[c]

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.[d]

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 [3]And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, [1]Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.[a]

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.[b]

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 ¶ At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.[c]

30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 David, foreknowing the place of the temple, prepareth abundance for the building of it. 6 He instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the temple. 17 He chargeth the princes to assist his son.

THEN David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.[d]

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.[e]

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;[f]

4 Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.[g]

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.[h]

6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.[j]

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be [2]Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.[k]

10 He shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.[l]

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.[m]

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.[n]

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.[o]

14 Now, behold, [3]in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.[p]

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and [4]workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.[q]

17 ¶ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.[r]

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.[s]

SO when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.[t]

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.[a]

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were [1]to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:[b]

5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith.[c]

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS USED BY THE ANCIENT JEWS.

6 And David divided them into [2]courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.[d]

7 ¶ Of the Gershonites were, [3]Laadan, and Shimei.[e]

8 The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, [4]Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah [5]had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.[f]

13 The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever.[g]

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.[h]

15 The sons of Moses were, Gershom, and Eliezer.[i]

16 Of the sons of Gershom, [6]Shebuel was the chief.[j]

29 Both for the shewbread, and for the fine flour for meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in [14]the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size;[t]

30 And to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at even;

31 And to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:[u]

32 And that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.[v]

20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.[w]

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.[x]

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: [1]one principal houshold being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

21 Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.[c]

22 Of the Izharites; [3]Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and 31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The number and offices of the singers. 8 Their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

MOREOVER David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was:[b]

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and [1]Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied [2]according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun, Gedaliah, and [3]Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, [4]six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, [5]Uzziel, [6]Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the [7]words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, [8]according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.[c]

7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed [11]him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;) [a]

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 ¶ And they cast lots, [1]as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to [2]Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward.

15 To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the house of [3]Asuppim.

16 To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward. [b]

17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

18 At Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 ¶ And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the [4]dedicated things. [c]

21 As concerning the sons of [5]Laadan; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were [6]Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD.

23 Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

24 And Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures. [d]

25 And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. [e]

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 [7]Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD.

28 And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren. [f]

29 ¶ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. [g]

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 David in a solemn assembly having declared God's favour to him, and promise to his son Solomon, exhorteth them to fear God. 9, 20 He encourageth Solomon to build the temple. 11 He giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and [3]possession of the king, [4]and of his sons, with the [5]officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.[c]

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:[d]

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed [6]blood.[e]

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:[f]

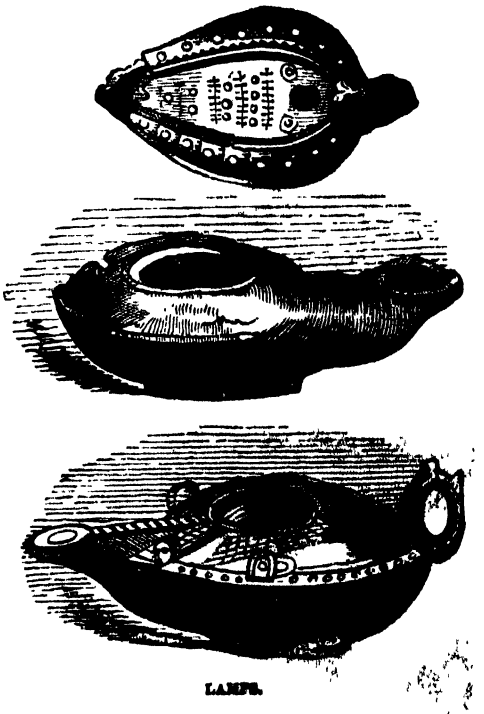
5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.[g]

6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.[h]

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be [7]constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.[i]

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.[j]



10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.[k]

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,[l]

12 And the pattern [8]of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things:[m]

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

FURTHERMORE David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.[e]

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.[f]

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing [1]to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,[g]

7 And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.[h]

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.[i]

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.[j]

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

CHAPTER 1.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

BEFORE CHRIST 1015

AND Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.[a]

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.[b]

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.[c]

5 Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had [1]made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.[d]

d Exod. xxvii. 1, 2; xxxviii. 1, 2

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.[a]

7 ¶ In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.[b]

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.[c]

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people [1]like the dust of the earth in multitude.[d]

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?[e]

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:[f]

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.[g]

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.[h]

15 And the king [2]made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance.[i]

16 And [3]Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.[j]

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, [4]by their means.

CHAPTER II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His embassage to Huram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Huram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.[k]

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.[l]

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to [5]Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.[m]

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him [6]sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.[n]

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.[o]

6 But who [7]is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?[p]

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill [8]to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.[q]

8 Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and [9]algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants,

9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be [10]wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.[r]

11 ¶ Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.[s]

12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, [11]endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.[t]

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's,

14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.[u]

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:[v]

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, [12]as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in flotes by sea to [13]Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.[w]

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all [14]the strangers that

CHAPTER III.

1 The place, and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubims. 14 The vail and pillars.

Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, [1]where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of [2]Ornan the Jebusite.[c]

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon was [3]instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.[d]

4 And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.[e]

5 And the greater house he cieled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.[f]

6 And he [4]garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy house he made two cherubims [5]of image work, and overlaid them with gold.[g]

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

14 ¶ And he made the vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and [7]wrought cherubims thereon.[h]

15 Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits [8]high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.[i]

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.[j]

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.[n]

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

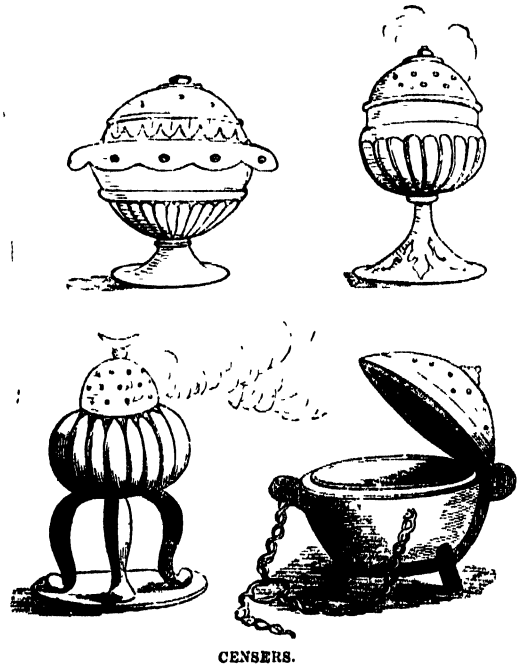
5 And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, [1]with flowers of lilies; and it received and held three thousand baths.[e]

6 ¶ He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: [2]such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.[h]

7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.[c]

8 He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred [3]basons of gold.[d]

9 ¶ Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.[e]



10 And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.[f]

11 And Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the [4]basons. And Huram [5]finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;[g]

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of the pillars;[h]

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were [6]upon the pillars.[i]

14 He made also bases, and [7]lavers made he upon the bases;[j]

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of [8]bright brass.[k]

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the [9]clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.[l]

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.[m]

19 ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;[n]

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;[o]

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that [10]perfect gold;[p]

22 And the snuffers, and the [11]basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

THUS all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.[q]

2 ¶ Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.[r]

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month.[s]

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Solomon, having blessed the people, blesseth God. 12 Solomon's prayer in the consecration of the temple, upon the brasen scaffold.

HEN said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.[a]

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.[b]

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.[c]

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.[d]

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:[e]

13 For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits [1]long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:[f]

15 Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.[g]

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, [2]There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.[h]

17 Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built![i]

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth [3]toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall [4]make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, [5]and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel [6]be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee [7]in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;[j]

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillers; if their enemies besiege them [8]in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be:[k]

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands [9]in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men:)

SOLOMON'S PRAYER.

2 CHRON VI

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, [1]so long as they live [2]in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house;[a]

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that [3]this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their [4]cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and [5]they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;[b]

37 Yet if they [6]bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:

39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their [7]cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be [8]attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.[c]

CHAPTER VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him. 4 Solomon's solemn sacrifice. 8 Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dismisseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon giveth him promises upon condition.

NOW when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.[e]

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD'S house.[a]

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.[b]

4 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.[c]

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised [1]by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.[d]

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.[e]

8 ¶ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.[f]

9 And in the eighth day they made [2]a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.[g]

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.[h]

12 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.[i]

13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;[j]

14 If my people, [3]which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.[k]

15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears [4]attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.[l]

16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.[m]

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;[n]

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, [5]There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.[o]

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;[p]

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?[q]

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

AND it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,[r]

2 That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.[s]

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and [6]all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,[t]

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.[a]

11 ¶ And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are [1]holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.[b]

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch,

13 Even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.[c]

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to [3]Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom.[e]

18 And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.[f]

1 The queen of Sheba admireth the wisdom of Solomon. 13 Solomon's gold. 15 His targets. 17 The throne of ivory. 20 His vessels. 23 His presents. 25 His chariots and horse. 26 His tributes. 29 His reign and death.

AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.[a]

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his [1]cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true [2]report which I heard in mine own land of [3]thine acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought [4]algum trees and precious stones.[b]

11 And the king made of the algum trees [5]terraces to [6]the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and [7]stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Israelites, assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam, refusing the old men's counsel, by the advice of young men answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revolting kill Hadoram, and make Rehoboam to flee.

AND Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.[a]

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.[b]

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father [1]put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.[c]

So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

AND when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.[e]

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,[f]

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak. 5 He and the princes, repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.[a]

2 And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,[a]

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.[b]

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.[c]

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.[d]

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them [1]some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.[e]

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.[f]

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.[g]

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.[h]

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: [2]and also in Judah things went well.[i]

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.[j]

14 And he did evil, because he [3]prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the [4]book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.[k]

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord.[p]

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.[q]

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.[r]

9 Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to [7]consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.[s]

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.[t]

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.[u]

13 ¶ But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

DEFEAT OF THE ISRAELITES BY THE CHILDREN OF JUDAH.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.[a]

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.[b]

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephrain with the towns thereof.[c]

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.[d]

21 ¶ But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the [1]story of the prophet Iddo.[e]

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Asa succeeding destroyeth idolatry 6 Having peace, he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and armies. 9 Calling on God, he overthroweth Zerah, and spoileth the Ethiopians.

SO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.[f]

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the [2]images, and cut down the groves:[g]

4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the [3]images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 ¶ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, f 1 Kings xv. 8, &c.

g ch. xv. 17; Exod. xxxiv. 13, 1 Kings xi. 7; xv. 14.

and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah.[a]

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not [1]man prevail against thee.[b]

12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.[c]

13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were [2]destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.[d]

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.[e]

15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God. 16 He putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry. 18 He bringeth dedicate things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:[f]

2 And he went out [3]to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.[g]

3 Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.[h]

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.[i]

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.[j]

6 And nation was [4]destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.[k]

8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the [5]abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.[l]

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.[m]

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD [6]the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.[n]

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;[o]

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.[p]

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.[q]

16 ¶ And also concerning Maachah the [7]mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an [8]idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.[r]

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.[s]

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah. 7 Being reproved thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison. 11 Among his other acts in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians. 13 His death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.[t]

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at [9]Damascus, saying,

BURNING SPICES AT THE BURIAL OF KING ASA.

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains [1]of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.[a]

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, [3]to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.[c]

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa [4]oppressed some of the people the same time.[d]

11 ¶ And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.[e]

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.[f]

13 ¶ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.[a]

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he [1]had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.[b]

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat, succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth. 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah. 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute. 12 His greatness, captains, and armies.

AND Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.[c]

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.[d]

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways [2]of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.[e]

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah [3]brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.[f]

6 And his heart [4]was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.[g]

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.[h]

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.[i]

10 ¶ And the fear of the LORD [5]fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.[j]

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.[k]

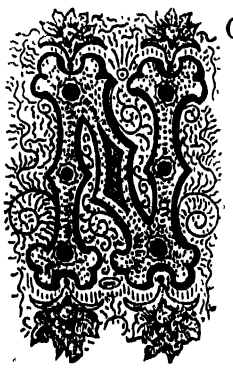
12 ¶ And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah [6]castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And [7]next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.[l]



17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, beside those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.[m]

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab, seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.[n]

2 And [8]after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.[o]

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.[p]

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD [9]besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his [10]officers, and said, [11]Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a [12]void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until [13]they be consumed.

MICAIAH AND THE FALSE PROPHETS BEFORE AHAB AND JEHOSHAPHAT.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king [1]with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of their's, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.[a]

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, [2]but evil?

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?[b]

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.[c]

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?[d]

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go [3]into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.[a]

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again [1]from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow [2]at a venture, and smote the king of Israel [3]between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host, for I am [4]wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

11 And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. [1]Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.[d]

CHAPTER XX.

1 Jehoshaphat in his fear proclaimeth a fast. 5 His prayer. 14 The prophecy of Jahaziel. 20 Jehoshaphat exhorteth the people, and setteth singers to praise the Lord. 22 The great overthrow of the enemies. 26 The people, having blessed God at Berachah, return in triumph. 31 Jehoshaphat's reign. 35 His convoy of ships, which he made with Ahaziah, according to the prophecy of Eliezer, unhappily perished.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi.[e]

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set [2]himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.[f]

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?[g]

7 Art not thou our God, [3]who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?[h]

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.[i]

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;[j]

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.[k]

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.[l]

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;[m]

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's.[n]

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the [4]cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the [5]brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.[o]

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.[p]

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.[q]

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and [6]that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD, for his mercy endureth for ever.[r]

22 ¶ [7]And when they [8]began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and [9]they were smitten.[s]

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped [10]to destroy another.

JEHOSHAPHAT AND THE PEOPLE MOURNING—THE PROPHECY OF JAHAZIEL

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and [1]none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of [2]Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the [3]forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.[e]

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.[b]

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.[c]

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.[e]

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the [4]book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who [5]is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.[f]

35 ¶ And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:[g]

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.[h]

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Jehoram, succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren. 5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt. 12 The prophecy of Elijah against him in writing. 16 Philistines and Arabians oppress him. 18 His incurable disease, infamous death, and burial.

NOW Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son [1]reigned in his stead.[a]

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to [2]reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.[b]

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a [3]light to him and to his sons for ever.[c]

8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the [4]dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.[d]

12 ¶ And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:[e]

14 Behold, with [5]a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.[f]

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:[g]

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and [6]carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save [7]Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.[h]

18 ¶ [8]And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.[i]

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.[j]

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed [9]without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.[k]

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Ahaziah succeeding reigneth wickedly. 5 In his confederacy with Joram the son of Ahab, he is slain by Jehu. 10 Athaliah, destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, whom Jehoshabeath his aunt hid, usurpeth the kingdom.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.[l]

2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.[m]

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.[n]

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds [10]which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And [11]Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.[o]

out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.[a]

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.[b]

9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.[c]

10 ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.[d]

11 But [1]Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

AND in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.[e]

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.[f]

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the [2]doors;[g]

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.[a]

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.[b]

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the [1]right side of the temple to the left side of the [2]temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [3]God save the king.[c]

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [1]Treason, Treason.[a]

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her, and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.[b]

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD'S people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.[c]

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained [2]by David.[d]

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.[e]

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.[f]

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada. 4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple. 15 Jehoiada's death and honourable burial. 17 Joash, falling to idolatry, slayeth Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. 23 Joash is spoiled by the Syrians, and slain by Zabad and Jehozabad. 27 Amaziah succeedeth him.

JOASH was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.[g]

2 And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.[h]

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded [3]to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.[i]

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?[j]

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.[k]

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.[l]

9 And they made [4]a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.[m]

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.[n]

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and [5]the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and [6]to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.[o]

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.[p]

19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.[q]

20 And the Spirit of God [7]came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.[r]

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass [1]at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [2]Damascus.[b]

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.[c]

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.[d]

26 And these are they that conspired against him; [3]Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of [4]Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the [5]repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the [6]story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.[e]

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well. 3 He executeth justice on the traitors 5 Having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them. 11 He overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Israelites, discontented with their dismission, spoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah, proud of his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet. 17 He provoketh Joash to his overthrow. 25 His reign. 27 He is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.[f]

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.[g]

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was [7]established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.[h]

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.[i]

5 ¶ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.[j]

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the [8]army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.[k]

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, [9]to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home [10]in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.[l]

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But [11]the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.[m]

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?[n]

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath [12]determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.[o]

17 ¶ Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.[p]

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The [13]thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by [14]a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.[f]

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.[g]

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a [1]several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.[h]

1 Jotham reigning well prospereth. 5 He subdueth the Ammonites. 7 His reign. 9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

JOTHAM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.[a]

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly.[b]

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of [2]Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand [1]measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. [2]So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he [3]prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 ¶ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.[a]

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Ahaz reigning very wickedly is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. 6 Judah being captivated by the Israelites is sent home by the counsel of Oded the prophet. 16 Ahaz sending for aid to Assyria is not helped thereby. 22 In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. 26 He dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

AHAZ was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:[b]

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.[c]

3 Moreover he [4]burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.[d]

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to [5]Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.[e]

6 ¶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all [6]valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.[f]

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was [7]next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.[g]

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.[h]

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?[i]

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.[j]

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war,

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren; then they returned to Samaria.[k]

16 ¶ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.[l]

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away [8]captives.

18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.[m]

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.[n]

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of [9]Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.[o]

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.[p]

25 And in every several city of Judah he made

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.[c]

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.[d]

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and [2]turned their backs.[e]

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.[a]

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to [1]trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.[b]

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.[c]

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.[d]

11 My sons, [2]be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and [3]burn incense.[e]

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, [4]by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.[f]

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.[g]

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.[h]

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.[i]

23 And they brought [5]forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:[j]

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.[k]

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment [6]of the LORD [7]by his prophets.[l]

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.[m]

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And [8]when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the [9]instruments ordained by David king of Israel.[n]

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the [10]singers sang, and the trumpets sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were [11]present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.[o]

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have [12]consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.[p]

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites [13]did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.[q]

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.[r]

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly, having destroyed the altars of idolatry, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.[a]

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.[b]

4 And the thing [1]pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters [2]from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.[c]

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.[d]

8 Now [3]be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but [4]yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.[e]

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.[f]

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto

Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.[a]

11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.[b]

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.[c]

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.[d]

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.[e]

16 And they stood in [1]their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.[f]

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one[g]

19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.[h]

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were [2]present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with [3]loud instruments unto the LORD.[i]

22 And Hezekiah spake [4]comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.[j]

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.[k]

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [5]did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.[l]

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.[m]

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to [6]his holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.[n]

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The people is forward in destroying idolatry. 2 Hezekiah ordereth the courses of the priests and Levites, and provideth for their work and maintenance. 5 The people's forwardness in offerings and tithes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes. 20 The sincerity of Hezekiah.

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel that were [7]present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the [8]images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, [9]until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.[o]

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.[p]

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.[q]

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.[r]

5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment [10]came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and [11]honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.[s]

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them [12]by heaps.[t]

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.[u]

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare [13]chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them,

12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.[a]

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers [1]under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And [2]next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their [3]set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:[b]

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;[c]

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;[d]

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their [4]set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.[e]

20 ¶ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.[f]

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifieth himself, and encourageth his people. 9 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib, by message and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 21 An angel destroyeth the host of the Assyrians, to the glory of Hezekiah. 24 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery. 25 He waxing proud is humbled by God. 27 His wealth and works. 31 His error in the ambassage of Babylon. 32 He dying, Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought [5]to win them for himself.[f]

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that [6]he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that [7]ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made [8]darts and shields in abundance.[g]

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and [9]spake comfortably to them, saying,[h]

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him:[i]

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people [10]rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.[j]

9 ¶ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his [11]power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,[k]

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide [12]in the siege in Jerusalem?[l]

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?[m]

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?[n]

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?[o]

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?[p]

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.[q]

18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.[a]

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.[b]

20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels [1]slew him there with the sword.[c]

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and [2]presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.[d]

24 ¶ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he [3]gave him a sign.[e]

25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.[f]

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah [4]humbled himself for [4]the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.[g]

27 ¶ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of [5]pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.[a]

31 ¶ Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.[b]

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.[c]

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the [1]chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.[d]

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign. 3 He setteth up idolatry, and would not be admonished. 11 He is carried into Babylon. 12 Upon his prayer to God he is released, and putteth down idolatry. 18 His acts 20 He dying, Amon succeedeth him. 21 Amon reigning wickedly is slain by his servants. 25 The murderers being slain, Josiah succeedeth him.

MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:[e]

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.[f]

3 ¶ For [2]he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.[g]

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.[h]

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.[i]

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.[j]

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:[k]

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.[l]

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host [3]of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with [4]fetters, and carried him to Babylon.[m]

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,[n]

13 And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.[o]

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about [5]Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.[p]

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.[q]

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.[r]

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.[s]

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.[t]

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of [6]the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.[u]

21 ¶ Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.[v]

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon [7]trespassed more and more.[w]

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.[x]

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.[y]

SHAPHAN READING THE BOOK OF THE LAW BEFORE KING JOSIAH.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He destroyeth idolatry. 8 He taketh order for the repair of the temple. 14 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to enquire of the Lord. 23 Huldah propheseth the destruction of Jerusalem, but respite thereof in Josiah's time. 29 Josiah, causing it to be read in a solemn assembly, reneweth the covenant with God.

JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.[a]

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.[b]

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the [1]images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the [2]graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.[c]

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.[d]

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their [3]mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images [1]into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.[a]

8 ¶ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.[b]

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.[c]

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and [2]to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.[d]

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given [3]by Moses.[e]

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed [4]to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have [5]gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read [6]it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and [7]Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of [8]Hasrah, keeper of the [9]wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem [10]in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect.[f]

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.[g]

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, [11]great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.[h]

32 And he caused all that were [12]present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not [13]from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.[i]

DEATH OF JOSIAH

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover. 20 He, provoking Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.[a]

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,[b]

3 And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,[c]

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.[d]

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of [1]the families of the fathers of your brethren [2]the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.[e]

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.[f]

7 And Josiah [3]gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.[g]

8 And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, [1]gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.[a]

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.[b]

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.[c]

13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and [2]divided them speedily among all the people.[d]

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in [3]their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.[e]

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were [4]present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.[f]

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[g]

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

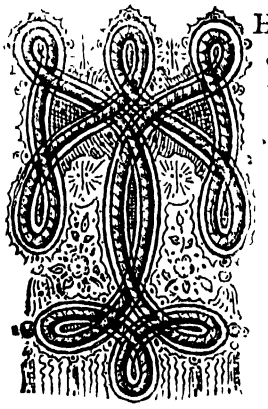
20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the [5]temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.[h]

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against [6]the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.[i]

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore [7]wounded.[j]

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried [8]in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.[k]



25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.[l]

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and [9]his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD,

27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

3 And the king of Egypt [10]put him down at Jerusalem, and [11]condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

CHAPTER I

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 5 The people provide for the return. 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

B C 536

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he [1]made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,[a]

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.[b]

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.[c] he sojourneth, let the men of his place [1]help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.[a]

6 And all they that were about them [2]strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 ¶ Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;[b]

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.[c]

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of [3]the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, in all an hundred thirty and nine.

45 The children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub,

46 The children of Hagab, the children of [2]Shalmai, the children of Hanan,

47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah,

48 The children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam,

49 The children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai,

50 The children of Asnah, the children of Mehunim, the children of [3]Nephusim,

52 The children of [4]Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,

53 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Thamah,

54 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

56 The children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,

58 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.[c]

59 And these were they which went up from Telmelah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, [7]Addan, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, and their [8]seed, whether they were of Israel:

60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.

62 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore [9]were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.[e]

63 And the [10]Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.[f]

64 ¶ The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,[g]

65 Beside their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.[j]

CHAPTER III.

1 The altar is set up. 4 Offerings frequented. 7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundations of the temple are laid in great joy and mourning.

AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up [11]Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and [12]Zerubbabel the son of [13]Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.[k]

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.[l]

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, [14]as the duty of every day required;[m]

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD.[n]

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But [15]the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the [16]carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.[o]

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.[p]

9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of [17]Judah, [18]together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.[a]

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.[b]

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.[c]

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:[d]

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The adversaries, being not accepted in the building of the temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Then letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The decree of Artaxerxes. 23 The building is hindered.

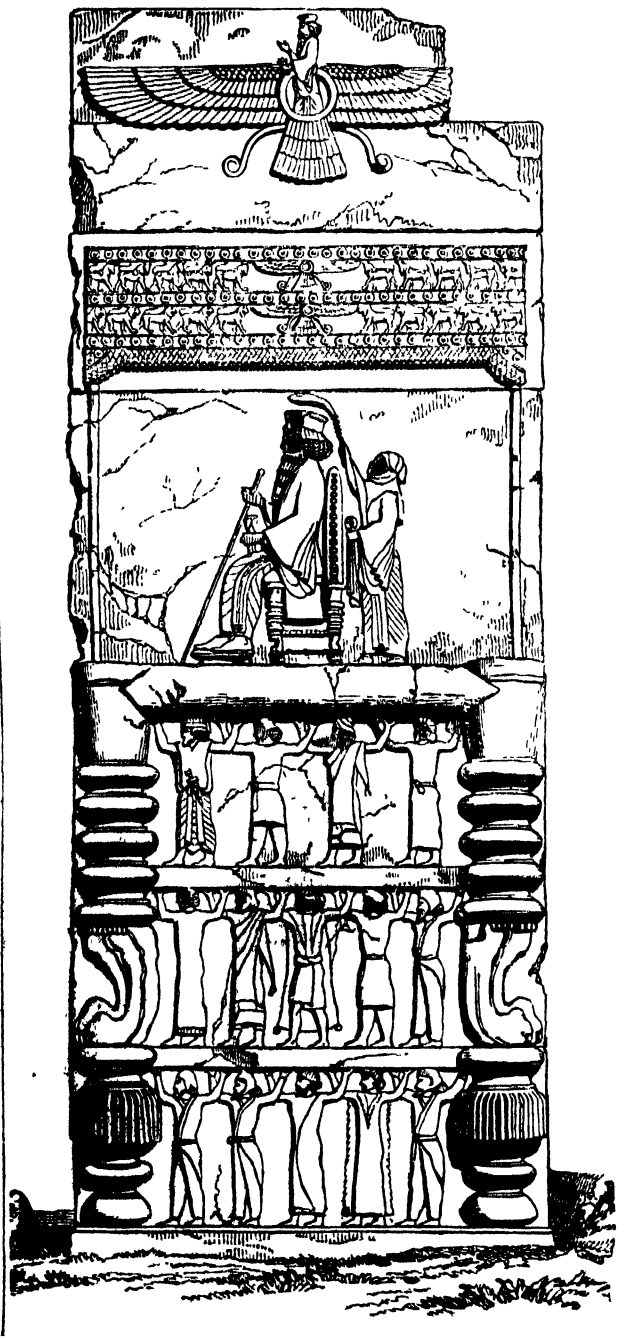
NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the [1]children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel;[e]

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.[f]

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.[g]

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,[h]

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.



6 And in the reign of [2]Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote [3]Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their [4]companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the [5]scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their [6]companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,[i]

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and [7]at such a time.[j]

COURT OF KING DARIUS—PRESENTATION OF THE LETTER OF COMPLAINT AGAINST THE JEWS.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And [7]I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time [8]hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.[a]

21 [1]Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease [2]by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER V.

1 Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

THEN the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.[b]

2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.[c]

3 ¶ At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?[d]

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men [3]that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.[e]

6 ¶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:[f]

7 They sent a letter unto him, [4]wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with [5]great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?[g]

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.[h]

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.[i]

RUINS OF PERSEPOLIS, THE PLACE OF SEPULTURE OF THE PERSIAN KINGS.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.[a]

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made [1]governor;[b]

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.[c]

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.[d]

CHAPTER VI.

1 Darius, finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the building 13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 16 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the passover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the [2]rolls, where the treasures were [3]laid up in Babylon.[e]

2 And there was found at [4]Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of the king's house:[f]

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and [5]brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.[g]

6 Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and [6]your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:[h]

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover [7]I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not [8]hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices [9]of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.[i]

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, [10]let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.[j]

12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.[k]

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.[l]

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of [11]the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy,[m]

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.[n]

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; [12]as it is written in the book of Moses.[o]

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month.[p]

20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.[q]

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat,[r]

22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.[s]

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra. 27 Ezra blesseth God for his favour.

NOW after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,[a]

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.[b]

7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.[c]

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month [1]began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.[d]

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.[e]

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, [2]unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.[f]

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art [3]sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;[g]

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem,[h]

THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush.[n]

3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.[a]

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan [1]the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai and [2]Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there [3]abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.[b]

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and [4]I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;[c]

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.[d]

21 ¶ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.[e]

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.[f]

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.[g]

24 ¶ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest;

CHAPTER IX.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the

Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.[a]

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.[b]

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonied.[c]

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonied until the evening sacrifice.[d]

5 ¶ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my [1]heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,[e]

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our [2]trespass is grown up unto the heavens.[f]

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.[g]

8 And now for [3]a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.[h]

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and [4]to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.[i]

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast commanded [5]by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it [6]from one end to another with their uncleanness.[j]

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.[k]

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God [7]hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;[l]

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?[m]

CHAPTER X.

1 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning assembleth the people. 9 The people, at the exhortation of Ezra, repent, and promise amendment. 15 The care to perform it. 18 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people [8]wept very sore.[o]

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.[p]

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God [9]to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.[q]

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.[r]

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.[s]

6 ¶ Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.[t]

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be [10]forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for [11]the great rain.[u]

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and [12]have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.[a]

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for [1]we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God [2]for this matter be turned from us.[b]

15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah [3]were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by

CHAPTER I.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth. 5 His prayer

B. C. 446

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,[a]

[a] ch. x. 1

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.[b]

[b] ch. ii. 17. 2 Kings xxv. 10

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:[a]

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.[b]

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.[c]

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:[d]

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.[e]

10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.[f]

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.[g]

CHAPTER II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 9 Nehemiah, to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jerusalem. 12 He vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls. 17 He inciteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.[h]

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,[i]

3 And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?[j]

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the [1]queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.[k]

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.[l]

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.[m]

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.[n]

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.[o]

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.[p]

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.[q]

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?[r]

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.[s]

REBUILDING THE WALLS OF JERUSALEM, AFTER THE CAPTIVITY.

CHAPTER III.

The names and order of them that builded the wall.

THEN Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.[a]

2 And [1]next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.[b]

3 But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.[c]

9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired [3]the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.[g]

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof,

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.[d]

6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.[e]

7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothe-and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.[h]

14 But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem, he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.[i]

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.[j]

17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

19 And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall.[g]

20 After him Baruch the son of [1]Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house.

24 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.[h]

25 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.[i]

26 Moreover the Nethinims [2]dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.[k]

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

28 From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.[l]

29 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate.

30 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber.

31 After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the [3]going up of the corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

CHAPTER IV.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth and continueth the work.
7 Understanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, he setteth a watch.
13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.[f]

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they [4]fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.[s]

4 Hear, O our God; for we are [5]despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:[t]

5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.[u]

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem [6]were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,[x]

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and [7]to hinder it.[y]

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.[z]

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, [8]From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I [9]in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.[m]

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.[n]

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.[o]

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.[a]

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, [1]saving that every one put them off for washing.[b]

CHAPTER V.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 14 He forbeareth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

AND there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.[c]

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.[d]

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then [2]I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.[e]

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.[f]

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?[g]

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olivevards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.[h]

13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and [3]emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.[i]

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.[j]

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.[k]

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.[l]

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.[m]

19 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.[n]

CHAPTER VI.

1 Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terror of the enemies. 17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and [4]Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)[o]

2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.[p]

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

NEHEMIAH AND SANBALLAT'S SERVANT.

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and [1]Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.[a]

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.[b]

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.[c]

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.[a]

17 ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah [1]sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my [2]words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 46 of the Nethinims, 57 of Solomon's servants, 63 and of the priests which could not find their pedigree. 66 The whole number of them, with their substance. 70 Their oblations

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,[b]

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.[c]

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [3]large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;[d]

7 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, [4]Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this;

8 The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two.

9 The children of [5]Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

12 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

13 The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five.

14 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

15 The children of [6]Binnui, six hundred forty and eight.

16 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight.

17 The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two.

18 The children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven.

19 The children of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven.

20 The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five.

21 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

22 The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight.

23 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four.

24 The children of [7]Hariph, an hundred and twelve

25 The children of [8]Gibeon, ninety and five.

26 The men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, an hundred fourscore and eight.

27 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight.

28 The men of [9]Beth-azmaveth, forty and two.

29 The men of [10]Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three.

30 The men of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one.

31 The men of Michmas, an hundred and twenty and two.

32 The men of Beth-el and Ai, an hundred twenty and three.

33 The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two.

34 The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.[e]

35 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

36 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one.

38 The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

39 ¶ The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.[f]

40 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.[g]

41 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.[h]

42 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.[i]

43 ¶ The Levites: the children of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of [11]Hodevah, seventy and four.

44 ¶ The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred forty and eight.

45 ¶ The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children

52 The children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of [3]Nephishesim,

54 The children of [4]Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,

55 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah,

56 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

58 The children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,

60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

61 And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, [7]Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their [8]seed, whether they were of Israel.[a]

62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.

63 ¶ And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And [9]the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.[b]

66 ¶ The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 ¶ And [10]some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.[c]

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.[d]

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.[e]

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The religious manner of reading and hearing the law. 9 They comfort the people. 13 The forwardness of them to hear and be instructed. 16 They keep the feast of tabernacles.

AND all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.[f]

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and [11]all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.[g]

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate [12]from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a [13]pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the [14]sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:[h]

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.[i]

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.[j]

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is [15]the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.[a]

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.[b]

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.[c]

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even [1]to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded [2]by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:[d]

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.[e]

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.[b]

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was [1]a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.[c]

CHAPTER IX.

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people. 4 The Levites make a religious confession of God's goodness, and their wickedness.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.[d]

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all [2]strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.[e]

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.[f]

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the [3]stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.[g]

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.[h]

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;[i]

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:[j]

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;[k]

10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.[l] judgments, and [4]true laws, good statutes and commandments:[o]

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:[p]

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land [5]which thou hadst sworn to give them.[q]

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,[r]

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.[s]

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;[t]

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.[u]

20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withholdest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.[a]

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.[b]

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.[c]

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.[d]

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them [1]as they would.[e]

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, [2]wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and [3]fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.[f]

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.[g]

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.[h]

28 But after they had rest, [4]they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;[i]

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and [5]withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.[j]

30 Yet many years didst thou [6]forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit [7]in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.[k]

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.[l]

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the [8]trouble seem little before thee, [9]that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.[m]

33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly:[n]

CHAPTER XII.

1 The priests, 8 and the Levites, which came up with Zerubbabel. 10 The succession of high priests. 22 Certain chief Levites. 27 The solemnity of the dedication of the walls. 44 The offices of priests and Levites appointed in the temple.

NOW these are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,[b]
2 Amariah, [3]Malluch, Hattush,
3 [4]Shechaniah, [5]Rehum, [6]Meremoth,
4 Iddo, [7]Ginnetho, Abijah,[c]
5 [8]Miamin, [9]Maadiah, Bilgah,
6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,
7 [10]Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua.[d]
8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over [11]the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.[e]
9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.
10 ¶ And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.
12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;
13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;
14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;
15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;
16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;
18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;
19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;
20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;
21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.
22 ¶ The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.
23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.[f]
24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.[g]
25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the [12]thresholds of the gates.
26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.[h]
27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.[i]
28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;
29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.
30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.
31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate:[j]
32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,
33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,
34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,
35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:[k]
36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.[l]
37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.[m]
38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;[n]
39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.[o]
40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:
41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;
42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers [13]sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.
43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

1 Upon the reading of the law separation is made from the mixed multitude 4 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleansed 10 He reformeth the offices in the house of God 15 The violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives

ON that day [5]they read in the book of Moses in the [6]audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;[e]

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.[f]

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.[g]

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, [7]having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:[a]

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, [1]which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.[b]

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and [2]after certain days [3]obtained I leave of the king:[c]

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.[d]

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the houshold stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.[e]

FRANKINCENSE.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.[f]

11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their [4]place.[g]

TREADING THE WINE PRESS.

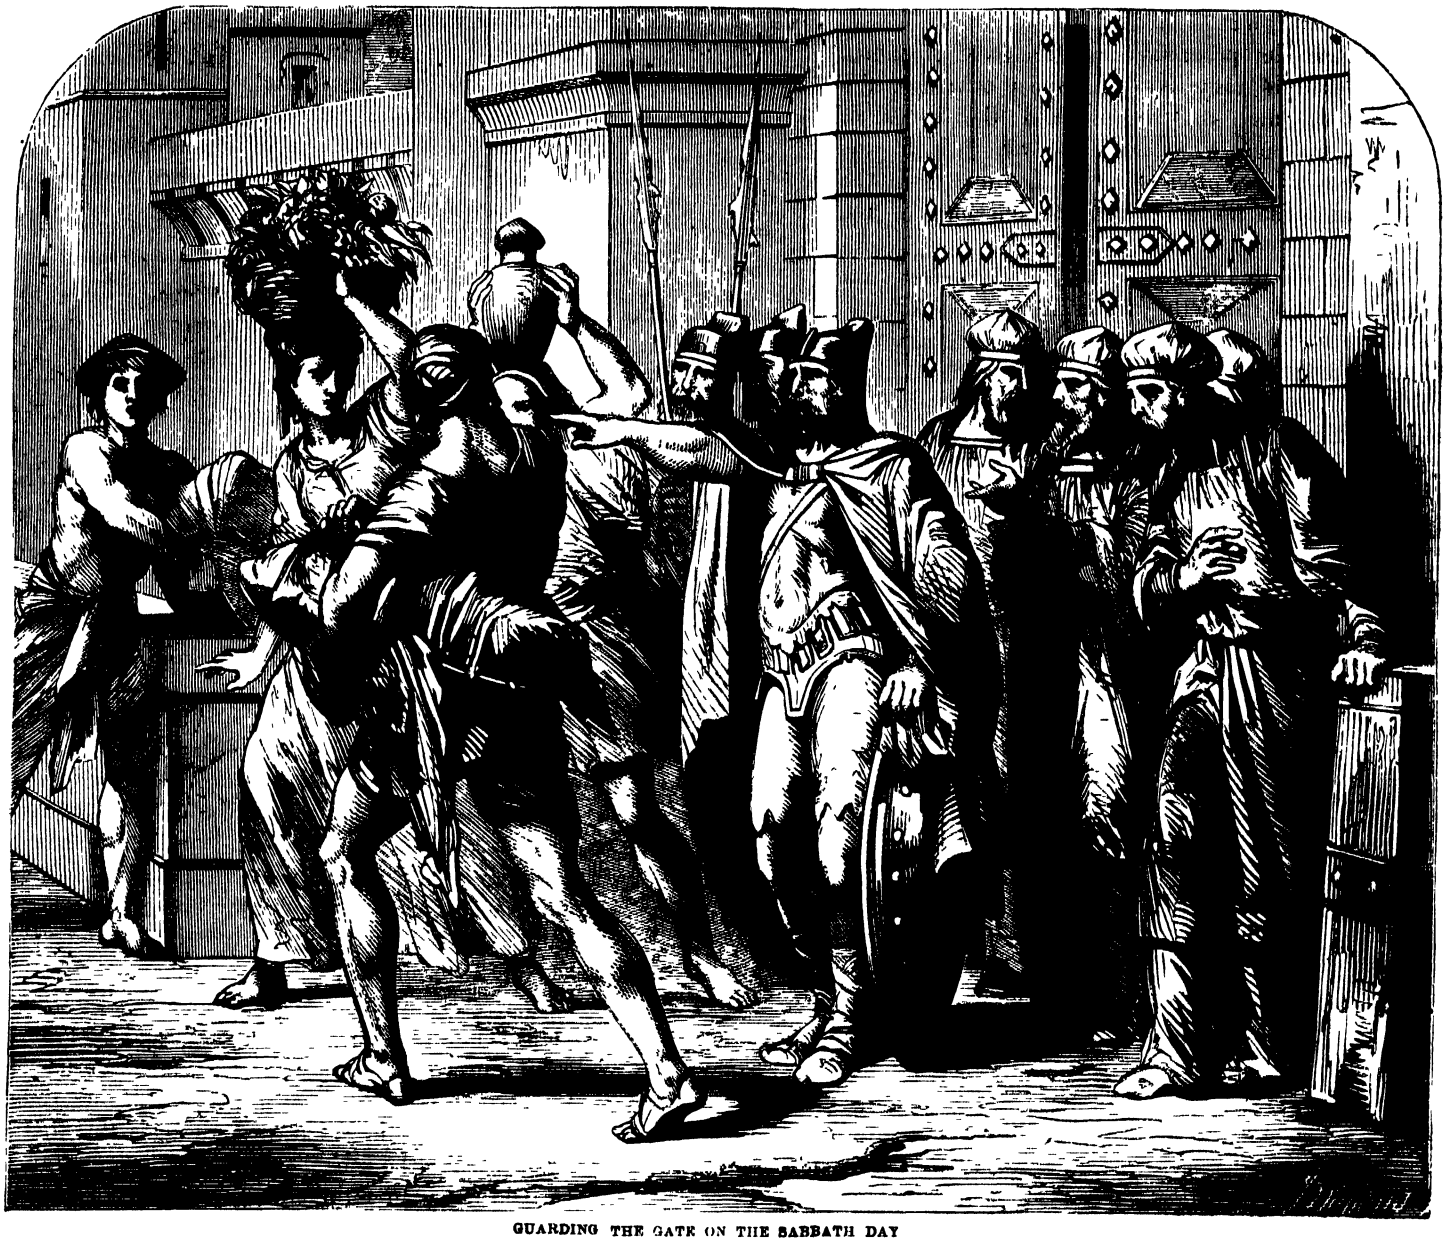
14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my [8]good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the [9]offices thereof.[j]

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.[k]

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?[l]

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.[m]



19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.[n]

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye [10]about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the [11]greatness of thy mercy.[o]

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that [12]had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:[a]

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, [1]and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language [2]of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and [3]cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.[b]

26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.[c]

CHAPTER I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti, sent for, refuseth to come 13 Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)[a]

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,[b]

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:[c]

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were [1]present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

[a] ch. viii. 9, Ezra iv. 6, Dan. vi. 1, ix. 1.

[c] ch. ii. 18.

6 Where were white, green, and [1]blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement [2]of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.[a]

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and [3]royal wine in abundance, [4]according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law: none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven [5]chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,[b]

11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was [6]fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment [7]by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:[c]

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)[d]

15 [8]What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 [9]If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment [10]from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, [11]that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate [12]unto another that is better than she.[e]

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and [14]that it should be published according to the language of every people.[g]

CHAPTER II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins a queen is to be chosen. 5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest. 12 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 15 Esther best pleasing the king is made queen. 21 Mordecai discovering a treason is recorded in the chronicles.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.[h]

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, [15]unto the custody of [16]Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with [17]Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.[i]

7 And he [18]brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was [19]fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.[j]

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.[k]

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with [20]such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and [1]he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.[c]

10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.[b]

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, [2]to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.[c]

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and [3]favour [4]in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a [5]release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.[d]

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.[e]

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, [6]Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.[f]

CHAPTER III.

Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He casteth lots. 8 He obtaineth by calumniation a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.[g]

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.[h]

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?[i]

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.[a]

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.[b]

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.[c]

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not [1]for the king's profit to suffer them.[d]

9 If it please the king, let it be written [2]that they may be destroyed: and I will [3]pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

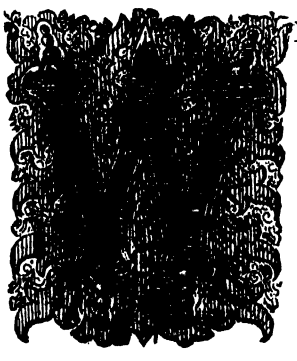
10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.[a]

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's [1]scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.[b]



13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.[c]

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.[d]

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.[e]

CHAPTER IV.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews. 4 Esther, understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit. 10 She excusing herself is threatened by Mordecai. 15 She appointing a fast undertaketh the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;[f]

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and [2]many lay in sackcloth and ashes.[g]

4 ¶ So Esther's maids and her [3]chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, [4]whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.[j]

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there [5]enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?[k]

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are [6]present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.[l]

17 So Mordecai [7]went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER V.

1 Esther, adventuring on the king's favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet. 6 She, being encouraged by the king in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 9 Haman, proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai. 14 By the counsel of Zeresh he buildeth for him a pair of gallows.

NOW it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.[m]

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.[c]

10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and [2]called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.[e]

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.[f]

as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a [1]gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. ON that night [2]could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.[b]

4 ¶ And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.[d]

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man [5]whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man [6]whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 [7]Let the royal apparel be brought [8]which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:[e]

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and [9]bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.[f]

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: [10]let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.[g]

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.[h]

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.[i]

1 Mordecai is advanced. 3 Esther maketh suit to reverse Haman's letters. 7 Ahasuerus granteth to the Jews to defend themselves. 15 Mordecai's honour, and the Jews' joy.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.[a]

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.[b]

3 ¶ And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, [1]and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,[c]

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse [2]the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, [3]which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For [4]how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?[d]

7 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.[e]

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.[f]

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.[g]

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:[h]

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey,[i]

12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.[j]

13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was [5]published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.[k]

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of [6]blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.[l]

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.[m]

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.[n]

NOW in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;)[o]

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.[p]

ANCIENT JEWS CELEBRATING THE FEAST OF PURIM

the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.[a]

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace [1]was brought before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.[b]

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and [2]let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.[c]

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.[d]

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey,[e]

17 On the thirteenth [3]day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.[f]

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.[g]

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.[a]

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised[b] against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to [1]consume them, and to destroy them;[b]

25 But [2]when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.[c]

TOMB OF ESTHER AND MORDECAI.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of [3]Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,[d]

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not [4]fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;[e]

A PERSIAN LANDSCAPE

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not [5]fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them [6]perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with [7]all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.[f]

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,[g]

31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed [8]for themselves and for their seed the matters of the fastings and their cry.[h]

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

CHAPTER 1.

B. C. 1500—1600

The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. 6 Satan, appearing before God, by calumniation obtaineth leave to tempt Job. 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he blesseth God.

a ch. ii. 3, Gen. vi. 9, xvii. 1, xxii. 20, 21, Prov. viii. 13, xvi. 6, Ezek. xiv. 14, James v. 11.

1 Or, cattle

THERE was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.[a]

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His [1]substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great [1]houshold; so that this man was the greatest of all the [2]men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job [3]continually.[e]

6 ¶ Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and [4]Satan came also [5]among them.[h]

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.[c]

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, [6]Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?[d]

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his [7]substance is increased in the land.[e]

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.[f]

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy [8]power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:[g]

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [9]The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and [10]fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:[k]

19 And, behold, there came a great wind [11]from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his [12]mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped,[l]

21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.[j]

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor [13]charged God foolishly.[k]

CHAPTER II.

1 Satan appearing again before God obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. 7 He smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God. 11 His three friends condole with him in silence.

AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.[i]

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.[m]

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, [14]to destroy him without cause.[n]

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.[o]

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; [15]but save his life.[p]

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.[q]

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.[r]

9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.[s]

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.[t]

11 ¶ Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.[u]

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.[v]

1 Job curses the day and services of his birth 13 The ease of death 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job [1]spake, and said,

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.[b]

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death [2]stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; [3]let the blackness of the day terrify it.[c]

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; [4]let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.[d]

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up [5]their mourning.[e]

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark: let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see [6]the dawning of the day:[f]

11 Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?[g]

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?[h]

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest,

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;[i]

16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.[j]

17 There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the [7]weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.[k]

19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;[l]

21 Which [8]long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;[m]

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?[n]

24 For my sighing cometh [9]before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For [10]the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, to humble the excellency of creatures before God

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay [11]to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but [12]who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.[o]

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened [13]the feeble knees.[p]

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest, it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?[q]

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?[r]

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.[s]

9 By the blast of God they perish, and [14]by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.[t]

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.[u]

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.[v]

12 Now a thing was [15]secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,[a]

14 Fear [1]came upon me, and trembling, which made [2]all my bones to shake.[b]

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, [3]there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?[c]

18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants; [4]and his angels he charged with folly:[d]

19 How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?[e]

20 They are [5]destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.[f]

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.[g]

CHAPTER V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 8 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou [6]turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and [7]envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.[h]

4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.[i]

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.[j]

6 Although [8]affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 Yet man is born unto [9]trouble, as the [10]sparks fly upward.[k]

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things [11]and unsearchable; marvellous things [12]without number:[l]

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the [13]fields:[m]

11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.[n]

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands [14]cannot perform their enterprise.[o]

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.[p]

14 They [15]meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.[q]

15 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.[r]

16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.[s]

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war [16]from the power of the sword.[w]

21 Thou shalt be hid [17]from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.[x]

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.[y]

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.[z]

24 And thou shalt know [18]that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not [19]sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be [20]great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.[a]

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn [21]cometh in in his season.[b]

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it [22]for thy good.[c]

CHAPTER VI.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless 8 He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort. 14 He reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 Oh that my grief were throughly weighed, and my calamity [23]laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore [24]my words are swallowed up.[d]

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.[e]

5 Doth the wild ass bray [25]when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me [26]the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.[f]

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

ARRIVAL OF AN EASTERN CARAVAN AT A DRY BROOK.

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh [1]of brass?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 [2]To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.[a]

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;[b]

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm, [3]they vanish: [4]when it is hot, they are [5]consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.[c]

20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.[d]

CHAPTER VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death. 12 He complaineth of his own restlessness, 17 and God's watchfulness.

IS there not [1]an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?[a]

2 As a servant [2]earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.[b]

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.[c]

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.[i]

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;[b]

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather [1]than my life.

16 I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity.[c]

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?[e]

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works. 8 He alleageth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite. 20 He applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?[f]

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away [2]for their transgression;[g]

5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;[h]

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just [8]with God?[q]

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?[r]

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.[s]

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the [9]waves of the sea.[t]

9 Which maketh [10]Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.[u]

10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.[v]

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, [11]who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?[w]

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the [12]proud helpers do stoop under him.[y]

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.[z]

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.[a]

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.[b]

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?[c]

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.[d]

26 They are passed away as the [1]swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.[e]

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:[f]

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.[g]

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall [2]abhor me.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.[h]

33 Neither is there [3]any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.[i]

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:[j]

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; [4]but it is not so with me.

CHAPTER X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions. 18 He complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.

MY soul is [5]weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.[k]

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise [6]the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?[l]

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?[m]

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 [7]Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.[n]

8 Thine hands [8]have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?[o]

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?[p]

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast [9]fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.[q]

15 If I be wicked, woe unto me, and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;[r]

16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.[s]

17 Thou renewest [10]thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.[t]

18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me![u]

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,[v]

21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;[w]

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 5 God's wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should [11]a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy [12]lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.[x]

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality. 14 He professeth his confidence in God: 20 and intreateth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.[s]

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.[a]

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value.[b]

5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.[c]

SYRIAN CULPRIT IN THE STOCKS.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?[d]

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 [1]Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?[e]

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will [2]maintain mine own ways before him.[f]

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause, I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.[g]

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?[h]

25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.[i]

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and [3]lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the [4]heels of my feet.[j]

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Job entreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is [5]of few days, and full of trouble.[k]

4 [6]Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.[n]

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;[o]

CHAPTER XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself. 17 He proveth by tradition the unquietness of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter [3]vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, [4]thou castest off fear, and restrainest [5]prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth [1]uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.[a]

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?[b]

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?[c]

9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?[d]

10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.[e]

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at,

13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?[f]

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.[g]

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?[h]

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:[i]

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.[j]

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.[k]

21 [2]A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.[l]

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.[m]

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.[n]

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.[o]

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.[p]

32 It shall be [3]accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.[q]

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness. 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case. 17 He maintaineth his innocency.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I have heard many such things: [5]miserable comforters are ye all.[s]

3 Shall [6]vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.[t]

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should asswage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: and though I forbear, [7]what am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.[u]

10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.[v]

11 God [8]hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.[w]

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.[x]

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.[y]

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.[z]

19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record [9]is on high.[a]

20 My friends [10]scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his [11]neighbour![b]

22 When [12]a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.[c]

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may astonish, but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

MY [1]breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.[a]

2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye [2]continue in their provocation?[b]

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?[c]

4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also a byword of the people; and [3]aforetime I was as a tabret.[d]

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all [4]my members are as a shadow.[e]

8 Upright men shall be astonied at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands [5]shall be stronger and stronger.[f]

10 But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.[g]

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even [6]the thoughts of my heart.[h]

12 They change the night into day: the light is [7]short because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have [8]said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.[i]

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Bildad reproveth Job of presumption and impatience. 5 The calamities of the wicked.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?[j]

4 He teareth [9]himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?[k]

5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.[l]

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his [10]candle shall be put out with him.[m]

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.[n]

8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.[o]

9 The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.[p]

10 The snare is [11]laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall [12]drive him to his feet.[q]

12 His strength shall be hungerbitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.[r]

13 It shall devour the [13]strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.

14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.[s]

15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16 His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.[t]

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.[u]

18 [14]He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

19 He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.[v]

20 They that come after him shall be astonied at his day, as they that [15]went before [16]were affrighted.[w]

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.[x]

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Job, complaining of his friends' cruelty, sheweth there is misery enough in him to feed their cruelty. 21, 28 He craveth pity. 23 He believeth the resurrection.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye [17]make yourselves strange to me.[y]

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:[z]

6 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of [18]wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.[a]

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.[b]

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and [5]for this I make haste.

3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is [6]short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?[d]

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the [7]clouds;[e]

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?[f]

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?[f]

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses [4]are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.[g]

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.[h]

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days [5]in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.[i]

14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.[j]

32 Yet shall he be brought to the [7]grave, and shall [8]remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God, [10]as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?[j]

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and [11]stripped the naked of their clothing.[k]

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.[l]

8 But as for [12]the mighty man, he had the earth; and [13]the honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.[m]

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;[n]

12 Is not God in [14]the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, [15]How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?[p]

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.[w]

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold [20]as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.[y]

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy [21]defence, and thou shalt have [22]plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.[z]

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.[a]

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save [23]the humble person.[b]

2 Even to day is my complaint bitter: [1]my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.[a]

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.[b]

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?[a]

2 Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and [1]feed thereof.[b]

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.[c]

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide themselves together.[d]

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one [2]his corn in the field: and [3]they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.[e]

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.[f]

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.[g]

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and [4]disguiseth his face.[h]

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light.[i]

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat [5]consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.[j]

21 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and [6]no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.[k]

24 They are exalted for a little while, but [7]are gone and brought low; they are [8]taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.[l]

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: [6]he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things. 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is [1]a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the [2]earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath [3]dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the [4]rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods [5]from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?[a]

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.[b]

14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.[c]

15 [6]It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.[d]

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for [7]jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of [8]coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?[e]

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the [9]air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.[f]

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;[g]

25 To make the weight for the winds: and he weigheth the waters by measure.[h]

CHAPTER XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

MOREOVER Job [11]continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;[k]

3 When his [12]candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;[l]

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;[m]

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured [13]me out rivers of oil;[n]

7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.[o]

10 [14]The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.[p]

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.[q]

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.[r]

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.[s]

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.[t]

17 And I brake [15]the jaws of the wicked, and [16]plucked the spoil out of his teeth.[u]

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.[v]

19 My root was [17]spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.[w]

20 My glory was [18]fresh in me, and my bow was [19]renewed in my hand.[x]

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.[y]

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.[a]

8 Surely thou hast spoken [1]in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.[b]

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy,[c]

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.[d]

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou strive against him? for [2]he giveth not account of any of his matters.[e]

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.[f]

17 That he may withdraw man from his [4]purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life [5]from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul [6]dainty meat.[i]

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.[j]

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found [7]a ransom.[k]

25 His flesh shall be fresher [8]than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:[l]

28 [2]He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.[c]

29 Lo, all these things worketh God [3]oftentimes with man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.[d]

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust. 31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elihu reproveth Job.

FURTHERMORE Elihu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words, as the [4]mouth tasteth meat.[e]

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.[f]

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.[g]

7 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water?[h]

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.[i]

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye [5]men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.[j]

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.[k]

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.[l]

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed [6]the whole world?

14 If he set his heart [7]upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;[m]

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.[n]

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right [8]govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?[o]

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and [9]the mighty shall be taken away without hand.[r]

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.[s]

22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.[t]

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should [10]enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men [11]without number, and set others in their stead.[u]

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are [12]destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men [13]in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back [14]from him, and would not consider any of his ways:[v]

28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.[w]

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.[x]

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:[y]

32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

36 [17]My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith

ELIHU spake moreover, and said,

2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, [18]if I be cleansed from my sin?[a]

4 [1]I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.[a]

5 Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.[b]

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?[c]

7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?[d]

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.[e]

10 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night;[f]

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?[g]

12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.[h]

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.[i]

14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.[j]

15 But now, because it is not so, [2]he hath visited in his anger; yet [3]he knoweth it not in great extremity:[k]

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.[l]

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways. 16 How Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said,

2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee [4]that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and [5]wisdom.[m]

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the [6]poor.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.[n]

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;[o]

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.[p]

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.[q]

12 But if they obey not, [7]they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.[r]

14 [8]They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.[s]

15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and [9]that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.[t]

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: [10]judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot [11]deliver thee.[u]

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.[v]

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.[w]

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?[x]

23 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?[y]

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.[z]

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.[a]

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.[b]

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:[c]

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.[d]

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

SUMMER SCENE IN THE EAST

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth [1]the bottom of the sea.[a]

31 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.[b]

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.[c]

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning [2]the vapour.[d]

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works. 15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 [3]Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.[e]

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his [4]lightning unto the [5]ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.[f]

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.[g]

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; [6]likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.[h]

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.[i]

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.[j]

9 [7]Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of [8]the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.[k]

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:[l]

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for [9]correction, or for his land, or for mercy.[m]

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.[n]

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?[o]

CHAPTER XL.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his right consuss, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth

MOREOVER the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.[c]

3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.[d]

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,[e]

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.[f]

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?[g]

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?[h]

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.[i]

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.[j]

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 ¶ Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 [2]He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.[k]

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow: the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, [3]he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not; he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.[l]

24 [4]He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.[m]

CHAPTER XLI.

Of God's great power in the leviathan.

CANST thou draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord [5]which thou lettest down?[n]

2 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?[o]

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.[p]

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him [6]with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His [7]scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and [8]sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 [1]The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the [2]habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 [3]Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, [4]who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for [6]him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.[e]

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted [7]Job.

10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD [8]gave Job twice as much as he had before.[f]

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.[g]

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.[h]

13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.[i]

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.[j]

BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the [1]ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.[a]

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.[b]

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not [2]wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.[c]

4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the [3]chaff which the wind driveth away.[d]

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.[a]

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ. 10 Kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY do the heathen [1]rage, and the people [2]imagine a vain thing?[b]

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,[c]

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.[d]

4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.[e]

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and [3]vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I [4]set my king [5]upon my holy hill of Zion.[f]

7 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.[g]

8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.[h]

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.[i]

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.[j]

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.[k]

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience. 2 He reproveth and exhorteth his enemies 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; [7]have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.[t]

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.[u]

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.[v]

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.[w]

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.[x]

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.[y]

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.[z]

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.[a]

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand [8]in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.[b]

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor [9]the bloody and deceitful man.[c]

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward [10]thy holy temple.[d]

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of [11]mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.[e]

9 For there is no [12]faithfulness [13]in their mouth; their inward part is [14]very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.[f]

10 [15]Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall [16]by their own counsels: cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.[g]

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because [17]thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.[e]

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou [1]compass him as with a shield.[h]

PSALM VI.

1 David's complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.[i]

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD: for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.[d]

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long?[e]

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?[f]

1 David prayeth against the malice of his enemies, professing his innocency. 10 By faith he seeth his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite

LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:[i]

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is [1]none to deliver.[a]

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;[b]

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)[c]

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.[e]

10 [2]My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.[g]

11 [3]God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.[h]

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.[i]

PSALM VIII.

God's glory is magnified by his works, and by his love to man

To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.[m]

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou [5]ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.[n]

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;[o]

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?[p]

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:[q]

PSALM IX.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment. 11 He inciteth others to praise him. 13 He prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben, A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.[s]

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For [7]thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging [8]right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.[t]

6 [9]O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.[u]

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.[v]

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.[w]

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.[x]

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the [10]humble.[y]

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.[z]

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 [1]The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.[a]

3 For the wicked boasteth of his [2]heart's desire, and [3]blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.[b]

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: [4]God is not in all his thoughts.[c]

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?[f]

2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may [3]privily shoot at the upright in heart.[g]

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?[h]

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD'S throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.[i]

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.[j]

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain [4]snares, fire and brimstone, and [5]an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.[k]

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.[l]

PSALM XII.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God 3 He comforteth himself with God's judgments on the wicked, and confidence in God's tried promises.

To the chief Musician upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with [7]a double heart do they speak.[n]

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh [8]proud things:[o]

PSALM XVI.

1 David, in distrust of merits, and hatred of idolatry, fleeth to God for preservation. 5 He sheweth the hope of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

Michtam of David.

PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.[b]

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;[c]

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that [1]hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.[d]

5 The LORD is the portion [2]of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.[e]

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.[f]

8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.[g]

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall [3]rest in hope.[h]

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.[i]

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.[j]

PSALM XVII.

1 David, in confidence of his integrity, craveth defence of God against his enemies. 10 He sheweth their pride, craft, and eagerness. 13 He prayeth against them in confidence of his hope.

A Prayer of David.

HEAR [4]the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth [5]not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.[k]

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps [6]slip not.[l]

6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.[m]

7 Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou [7]that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.[n]

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings,[o]

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul And he said,

I WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.[u]

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, [16]my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.[v]

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.[w]

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [17]ungodly men made me afraid.[x]

5 The [18]sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [19]out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.[y]

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.[z]

11 He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.[a]

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.[b]

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.[c]

14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.[d]

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.[a]

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of [1]many waters.[b]

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.[c]

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.[d]

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright [2]before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands [3]in his eyesight.[e]

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;[f]

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt [4]shew thyself froward.[g]

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.[h]

28 For thou wilt light my [5]candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.[i]

29 For by thee I have [6]run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is [7]tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.[j]

31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?[k]

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.[l]

33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.[m]

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.[n]

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and [8]thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that [9]my feet did not slip.[o]

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast [10]subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.[p]

PSALM XIX.

1 The creatures shew God's glory 7 The word his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.[y]

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, [18]where their voice is not heard.

4 [19]Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.[z]

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The [20]law of the LORD is perfect, [21]converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.[a]

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.[b]

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are [22]true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and [23]the honeycomb.[c]

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.[d]

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.[e]

DAVID REJOICING WITH HIS "MIGHTY MEN" AT A VICTORY OVER HIS ENEMIES.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from [1]the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, [2]my strength, and my redeemer.[h]

PSALM XX.

1 The church blesseth the king in his exploits. 7 Her confidence in God's succour.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob [3]defend thee;[c]

2 Send [4]thee help from the sanctuary, and [5]strengthen thee out of Zion;

3 Remember all thy offerings, and [6]accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.[d]

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.[e]

6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him [7]from his holy heaven [8]with the saving strength of his right hand.[f]

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.[g]

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

PSALM XXI.

1 A thanksgiving for victory. 7 Confidence of further success

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice![h]

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.[i]

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.[j]

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.[k]

5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast [9]made him most blessed for ever: thou hast [10]made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.[l]

7 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.[m]

8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.[n]

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.[o]

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.[p]

12 Therefore [11]shalt thou make them turn their [12]back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.[q]

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM XXII.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement. 9 He prayeth in great distress. 23 He praiseth God.

To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far [13]from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?[r]

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and [14]am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.[s]

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.[t]

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.[u]

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they [15]shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,[v]

8 [16]He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, [17]seeing he delighted in him.[w]

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou [18]didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.[x]

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.[y]

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is [19]none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.[z]

13 They [20]gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.[a]

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are [21]out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.[b]

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.[c]

16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.[d]

17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.[e]

18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.[f]

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.[g]

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; [22]my darling [23]from the power of the dog.[h]

21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.[i]

22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.[j]

AN EASTERN SHEPHERD LEADING HIS FLOCK.—PSALM XXIII

PSALM XXIII.

David's confidence in God's grace.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.[a]

2 He maketh me to lie down in [1]green pastures: he leadeth me beside the [2]still waters.[b]

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.[c]

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.[d]

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou [3]anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.[e]

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD [4]for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

1 God's lordship in the world. 3 The citizens of his spiritual kingdom. 7 An exhortation to receive him.

A Psalm of David.

THE earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.[f]

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.[g]

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?[h]

4 [5]He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.[i]

5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, [6]O Jacob. Selah.[j]

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.[k]

8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

1 David's confidence in prayer. 7 He prayeth for remission of sins, 16 and for help in affliction.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.[l]

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.[m]

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.[n]

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, [7]thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.[o]

7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.[p]

8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.[q]

12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.[r]

13 His soul [8]shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.[s]

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; [9]and he will shew them his covenant.[t]

15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall [10]pluck my feet out of the net.[u]

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.[v]

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.[w]

19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many, and they hate me with [11]cruel hatred.

20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.[x]

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.[y]

PSALM XXVI.

David resorteth unto God in confidence of his integrity

A Psalm of David.

JUDGE me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.[z]

2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me, try my reins and my heart.[a]

3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.[b]

4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.[c]

5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.[d]

6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O LORD:[e]

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place [12]where thine honour dwelleth.[f]

9 [13]Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with [14]bloody men:[g]

10 In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is [15]full of bribes.[h]

seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold [2]the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.[f]

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.[g]

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices [3]of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.[h]

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 [1] When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.[a]

PSALM XXVIII.

1 David prayeth earnestly against his enemies 6 He blesseth God. 9 He prayeth for the people.

A Psalm of David

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent [5]to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.[h]

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands [6]toward thy holy oracle.[i]

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.[j]

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.[k]

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.[l]

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.[m]

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.[n]

8 The LORD is [7]their strength, and he is the [8]saving strength of his anointed.[o]

9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: [9]feed them also, and lift them up for ever.[p]

PSALM XXIX.

1 David exhorteth princes to give glory to God, 3 by reason of his power, 11 and protection of his people.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O [10]ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.[q]

2 Give unto the LORD [11]the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD [12]in the beauty of holiness.[r]

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon [13]many waters.[s]

4 The voice of the LORD is [14]powerful; the voice of the LORD is [15]full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.[t]

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.[u]

7 The voice of the LORD [16]divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.[v]

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds [17]to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple [18]doth every one speak of his glory.[w]

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.[x]

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.[y]

PSALM XXX.

1 David praiseth God for his deliverance 4 He exhorteth others to praise him by example of God's dealing with him.

A Psalm and Song [1]at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.[a]

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.[b]

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.[c]

4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks [19]at the remembrance of his holiness.[d]

5 For [20]his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure [21]for a night, but [22]joy cometh in the morning.[e]

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.[f]

7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast [23]made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.[g]

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?[h]

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;[i]

12 To the end that [24]my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.[j]

PSALM XXXI.

1 David shewing his confidence in God craveth his help. 7 He rejoiceth in his mercy. 9 He prayeth in his calamity. 19 He praiseth God for his goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

PSALM XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins 3 Confession of sins giveth ease to the conscience. 8 God's promises bring joy.

A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.[k]

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.[l]

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.[m]

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.[n]

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee [4]in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.[o]

7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.[p]

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: [5]I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.[q]

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.[r]

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.[t]

2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.[u]

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.[v]

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the [6]goodness of the LORD.[w]

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.[x]

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.[y]

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.[z]

10 The LORD [7]bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.[a]

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart [8]to all generations.[b]

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.[c]

13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.[d]

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.[e]

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.[f]

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;[g]

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.[h]

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.[i]

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.[j]

PSALM XXXIV.

1 David praiseth God, and exhorteth others thereto by his experience. 8 They are blessed that trust in God. 11 He exhorteth to the fear of God 15 The privileges of the righteous.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.[a]

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.[b]

3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.[c]

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.[d]

5 [1]They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.[e]

7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.[f]

8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.[g]

9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.[h]

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.[i]

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.[j]

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?[k]

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.[l]

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.[m]

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.[n]

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.[o]

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.[p]

18 The LORD is nigh [2]unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be [3]of a contrite spirit.[q]

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.[r]

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.[s]

21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous [4]shall be desolate.[t]

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.[u]

PSALM XXXV.

1 David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies' confusion. 11 He complaineth of their wrongful dealing. 22 Thereby he inciteth God against them.

A Psalm of David.

PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.[a]

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.[b]

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.[c]

6 Let their way be [1]dark and slippery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.[d]

7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.[e]

8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.[f]

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.[g]

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?[h]

11 [2]False witnesses did rise up; [3]they laid to my charge things that I knew not.[i]

12 They rewarded me evil for good to the [4]spoiling of my soul.[j]

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I [5]humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.[k]

14 I [6]behaved myself [7]as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine [8]adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not.[l]

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.[m]

17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, [9]my darling from the lions.[n]

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among [10]much people.[o]

19 Let not them that are mine enemies [11]wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.[p]

20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.[q]

22 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me.[r]

PSALM XXXVI.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked. 5 The excellency of God's mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.[y]

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, [14]until his iniquity be found to be hateful.[z]

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.[a]

4 He deviseth [15]mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.[b]

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.[c]

6 Thy righteousness is like [16]the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.[d]

7 How [17]excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.[e]

8 They shall be abundantly [18]satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.[f]

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.[g]

10 O [19]continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.[h]

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.[i]

PSALM XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

FRET not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.[j]

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.[k]

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.[a]

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.[c]

7 [2]Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.[d]

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.[e]

9 For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.[f]

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.[g]

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.[h]

13 The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.[j]

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay [4]such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.[k]

16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.[l]

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.[m]

18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.[n]

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.[o]

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as [5]the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.[p]

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.[q]

22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.[a]

23 The steps of a good man are [1]ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.[b]

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.[c]

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.[d]

26 He is [2]ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.[e]

27 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.[f]

28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.[g]

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.[h]

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.[i]

31 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his [3]steps shall slide.[j]

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.[k]

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.[l]

34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.[m]

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like [4]a green bay tree.[n]

36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.[o]

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.[p]

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.[q]

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.[r]

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.[s]

PSALM XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.[t]

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.[u]

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any [5]rest in my bones because of my sin.[v]

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.[w]

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am [6]troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.[x]

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease; and there is no soundness in my flesh.[y]

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.[z]

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also [7]is gone from me.[a]

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my [8]sore; and [9]my kinsmen stand afar off.[b]

12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.[c]

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.[d]

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For [10]in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt [11]hear, O Lord my God.[e]

16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.[f]

17 For I am ready [12]to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.[g]

18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.[h]

19 But mine enemies [13]are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.[i]

20 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is.[j]

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.[k]

22 Make haste [14]to help me, O Lord my salvation.

PSALM XXXIX.

1 David's care of his thoughts. 4 The consideration of the brevity and vanity of life, 7 the reverence of God's judgments, 10 and prayer, are his bridles of impatiency.

To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep [15]my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.[m]

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was [16]stirred.[n]

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue,[o]

4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know [17]how frail I am.[p]

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man [18]at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in [19]a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.[r]

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.[s]

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.[t]

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.[u]

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the [20]blow of thine hand.[v]

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: [4]they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.[h]

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou [5]opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.[i]

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,[j]

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is [6]within my heart.[k]

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.[l]

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.[m]

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.[a]

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart [1]faileth me.[b]

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.[c]

PSALM XLI.

1 God's care of the poor. 4 David complaineth of his enemies' treachery. 10 He fleeth to God for succour.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

BLESSED is he that considereth [2]the poor: the LORD will deliver him [3]in time of trouble.[h]

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and [4]thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.[i]

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt [5]make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.[j]

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.[k]

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise [6]my hurt.

8 [7]An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, [8]mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath [9]lifted up his heel against me.[l]

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.[m]

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.[n]

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?[o]

3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?[p]

4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude. I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.[q]

5 Why art thou [11]cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet [12]praise him [13]for the help of his countenance.[r]

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from [14]the hill Mizar.[s]

7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.[t]

8 Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.[u]

2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.[h]

5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.[k]

6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.[a]

7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.[b]

8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.[c]

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.[d]

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.[e]

11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.[f]

PSALM XLVII.

The nations are exhorted cheerfully to entertain the kingdom of Christ.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

CLAP your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.[g]

2 For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.[h]

3 He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.[i]

4 He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.[j]

5 God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.[k]

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises [1]with understanding.[l]

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.[m]

9 [2]The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.[n]

PSALM XLVIII.

The ornaments and privileges of the church.

A Song and Psalm for the sons of Korah.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.[o]

2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.[p]

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.[q]

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.[r]

7 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.[s]

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.[t]

9 We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.[u]

10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.[v]

11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13 [3]Mark ye well her bulwarks, [4]consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.[w]

PSALM XLIX.

1 An earnest persuasion to build the faith of resurrection, not on worldly power, but on God. 16 Worldly prosperity is not to be admired.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor, together.[x]

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.[y]

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?[z]

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;[a]

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:[b]

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)[c]

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.[d]

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.[e]

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places [5]to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.[f]

12 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.[g]

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity [6]approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their [7]beauty shall consume [8]in the grave from their dwelling.[h]

15 But God will redeem my soul [9]from the power of [10]the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.[i]

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.[j]

18 Though [11]while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.[k]

PSALM L.

1 The majesty of God in the church. 5 His order to gather saints. 7 The pleasure of God is not in ceremonies, 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

A Psalm of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.[c]

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.[d]

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.[e]

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.[f]

5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.[g]

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.[h]

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.[i]

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.[j]

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.[k]

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are [2]mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.[l]

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:[m]

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.[n]

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.[o]

18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and [3]hast been partaker with adulterers.[p]

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.[q]

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.[r]

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him [4]that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.[s]

PSALM LI.

1 David prayeth for remission of sins, whereof he maketh a deep confession. 6 He prayeth for sanctification. 10 God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity. 18 He prayeth for the church

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.[u]

2 Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.[v]

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.[w]

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.[x]

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother [5]conceive me.[y]

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.[z]

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.[a]

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.[b]

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.[c]

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew [6]a right spirit within me.[d]

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.[e]

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.[f]

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from [7]bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.[g]

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; [8]else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.[h]

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.[i]

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.[j]

PSALM LII.

1 David, condemning the spitefulness of Doeg, propheseth his destruction 6 The righteous shall rejoice at it. 8 David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, giveth thanks

To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.[a]

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.[b]

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.[c]

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, [1]O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise [2]destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.[d]

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:[e]

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his [3]wickedness.[f]

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.[i]

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.[j]

3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.[k]

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.[b]

1 David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful case 9 He prayeth against his enemies, of whose wickedness and treachery he complaineth. 16 He comforteth himself in God's preservation of him, and confusion of his enemies

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;[g]

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.[h]

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.[i]

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath [1]overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and [2]divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.[a]

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:[b]

13 But it was thou, [3]a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.[c]

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.[f]

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.[g]

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. [6]Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.[h]

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: [7]he hath broken his covenant.[i]

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.[j]

22 Cast thy [8]burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.[k]

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: [9]bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.[l]

To the chief Musician upon Jonath-elem-rechokim, Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath

BE merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.[m]

2 [10]Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.[n]

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?[t]

PSALM LVII.

1 David in prayer fleeing unto God complaineth of his dangerous case. 7 He encourageth himself to praise God.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.[u]

2 I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me.[v]

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me [11]from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.[w]

4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.[x]

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.[y]

6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.[z]

7 My heart is [12]fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.[a]

8 Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.[b]

9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.[c]

10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.[d]

11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.[e]

PSALM LVIII.

1 David reproveth wicked judges, 3 describeth the nature of the wicked, 6 devoteth them to God's judgments, 10 whereat the righteous shall rejoice.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.[f]

EASTERN SERPENT-CHARMER.—PSALM LVIII. 5.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.[a]

4 Their poison is [1]like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf [2]adder that stoppeth her ear;[b]

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, [3]charming never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.[c]

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.[d]

DAVID ESCAPING BY A WINDOW, WHILE SAUL'S SOLDIERS WERE LYING IN WAIT FOR HIM.—PSALM LIX.

PSALM LIX.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from his enemies. 6 He complaineth of their cruelty 8 He trusteth in God. 11 He prayeth against them. 16 He praiseth God

To the chief Musician, [1]Al-taschith, Michtam of [a]David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God: [2]defend me from them that rise up against me.[b]

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.[c]

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake [3]to help me, and behold.[d]

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

PSALM LX.

1 David, complaining to God of former judgment, 4 now, upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance. 6 Comforting himself in God's promises, he craveth that help whereon he trusteth.

To the chief Musician [d]upon Shushan-eduth, [3]Michtam of David, to teach; [e]when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

GOD, thou hast cast us off, thou hast [4]scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.[f]

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.[g]

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.[h]

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.[i]

5 That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.[j]

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.[k]

8 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, [5]triumph thou because of me.[m]

9 Who will bring me into the [6]strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?[n]

11 Give us [7]help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.[o]

12 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.[p]

PSALM LXI.

1 David fleeth to God upon his former experience. 4 He voweth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises

To the chief Musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.[q]

4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will [8]trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.[r]

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

PSALM LXII.

1 David professing his confidence in God discourageth his enemies 5 In the same confidence he encourageth the godly 9 No trust is to be put in worldly things. 11 Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to [u]Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

TRULY[11] my soul [12]waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.[v]

2 He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.[w]

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.[x]

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.[b]

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are [14]altogether lighter than vanity.[c]

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.[d]

11 God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that [15]power belongeth unto God.[e]

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.[f]

PSALM LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies. 7 He promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, as the righteous shall rejoice at it

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:[e]

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil [2]matter: they commune [3]of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?[f]

6 They search out iniquities; [4]they accomplish [5]a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly [6]shall they be wounded.[g]

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.[h]

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.[i]

10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.[j]

PSALM LXV.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God's chosen by reason of benefits.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE [7]waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.[k]

3 [8]Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.[l]

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.[m]

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:[n]

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:[o]

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.[p]

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening [9]to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, [10]and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.[q]

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: [11]thou settlest the furrows thereof: [12]thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest [13]the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills [14]rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.[r]

1 David exhorteth to praise God, 5 to observe his great works, 8 to bless him for his gracious benefits. 12 He voweth for himself religious service to God 16 He declareth God's special goodness to himself

To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, [15]all ye lands:[s]

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies [16]submit themselves unto thee.[t]

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.[u]

5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.[v]

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.[w]

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.[x]

11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.[a]

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a [18]wealthy place.[b]

PSALM LXX.

David solicited God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the godly.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, [c]to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste [1]to help me, O LORD.[d]

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.[e]

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.[f]

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.[g]

PSALM LXXI.

1 David, in confidence of faith, and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He promiseth constancy. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promiseth to do it cheerfully.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.[h]

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.[i]

3 [2]Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.[j]

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.[k]

5 For thou art my hope, O Lord GOD: thou art my trust from my youth.[l]

6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.[m]

7 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.[n]

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.[o]

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.[p]

10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that [3]lay wait for my soul take counsel together,[q]

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help.[r]

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.[s]

A Psalm [7]for [a]Solomon.

GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.[b]

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.[c]

4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.[d]

5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.[e]

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.[f]

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace [8]so long as the moon endureth.[g]

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.[h]

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.[i]

"THE KINGS OF TARSHISH AND OF THE ISLES SHALL BRING PRESENTS."—PSALM LXXII. 10

11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.[a]

12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.[b]

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.[c]

PSALM LXXIII.

1 The prophet, prevailing in a temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked. 13 The wound given thereby diffidence. 15 The victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

[4]A Psalm of [h]Asaph.

TRULY[5] God is good to Israel, even to such as are [6]of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.[i]

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is [7]firm.

5 They are not [8]in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued [9]like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: [10]they have more than heart could wish.[l]

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.[k]

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.[l]

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.[m]

11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?[n]

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.[a]

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.[b]

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and [1]chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, [2]it was too painful for me;[c]

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.[d]

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.[e]

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.[f]

22 So foolish was I, and [3]ignorant: I was as a beast [4]before thee.[g]

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.[h]

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.[i]

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the [5]strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.[j]

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.[k]

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.[l]

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David.

[7]Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.[f]

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:[g]

3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.[h]

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.[i]

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:[k]

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:[l]

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation [8]that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.[m]

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and [9]carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;[n]

HE RAINED DOWN MANNA UPON THEM TO EAT.—PSALM LXXVIII. 24

11 And forgat his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.[a]

12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.[b]

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.[c]

14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.[d]

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.[e]

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.[f]

17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness.[g]

18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.[h]

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God [1]furnish a table in the wilderness?[i]

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed, can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?[j]

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;[k]

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:[l]

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven,[m]

24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.[n]

25 [2]Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind [3]to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.[o]

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and [4]feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;[a]

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths,[b]

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and [1]smote down the [2]chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.[c]

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.[d]

34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.[e]

35 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer.[f]

36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.[g]

37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.[h]

38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.[i]

39 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.[j]

40 How oft did they [3]provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert![k]

41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel.[l]

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.

43 How he had [4]wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:[m]

44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.[n]

45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.[o]

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpiller, and their labour unto the locust.[p]

47 He [5]destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycomore trees with [6]frost.[q]

48 [7]He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to [8]hot thunderbolts.[r]

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave [9]their life over to the pestilence;

51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:[s]

52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea [10]overwhelmed their enemies.[t]

54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.[u]

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.[v]

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:[w]

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.[x]

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.[y]

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;[z]

61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.[a]

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.[b]

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not [11]given to marriage.[c]

64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.[d]

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.[e]

66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.[f]

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath [12]established for ever.[g]

70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:[h]

71 [13]From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.[i]

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.[j]

A Psalm [14]of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.[k]

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.[l]

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.[m]

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.[n]

5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?[o]

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.[p]

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.[b]

PSALM LXXX.

1 The psalmist in his prayer complaineth of the miseries of the church. 8 God's former favours are turned into judgments. 14 He prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician [g]upon Shoshannim-Eduth, A Psalm [6]of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.[h]

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and [7]come and save us.[i]

3 Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.[j]

4 O Lord God of hosts, how long [8]wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.[k]

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.[l]

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.[m]

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.[n]

9 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.[o]

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like [9]the goodly cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.[p]

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?[q]

13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;[r]

15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.[s]

16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.[t]

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.[u]

18 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.[v]

PSALM LXXXI.

1 An exhortation to a solemn praising of God. 4 God challengeth that duty by reason of his benefits. 8 God, exhorting to obedience, complaineth of their disobedience, which proveth their own hurt.

To the chief Musician [w]upon Gittith, A Psalm [10]of Asaph.

SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.[x]

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out [11]through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not.[y]

6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands [12]were delivered from the pots.[z]

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee: I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of [13]Meribah. Selah.[a]

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;[b]

9 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.[c]

10 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.[d]

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.[e]

12 So I gave them up [14]unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.[f]

13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways![g]

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the Lord should have [15]submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.[h]

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.[i]

16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.[r]

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth.[s]

JOY IN THE SERVICE OF THE SANCTUARY.—PSALM LXXXIV. 10

PSALM LXXXIV.

1 The prophet, longing for the communion of the sanctuary, 4 sheweth how blessed they are that dwell therein 8 He prayeth to be restored unto it

To the chief Musician[a] upon Gittith, A Psalm [1]for the sons of Korah.

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts![b]

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.[c]

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.[d]

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

6 Who passing through the valley [2]of Baca make it a well; the rain also [3]filleth the pools.[e]

7 They go [4]from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.[f]

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.[g]

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. [5]I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.[h]

12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.[i]

PSALM LXXXV.

1 The psalmist, out of the experience of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof. 8 He promiseth to wait thereon, out of confidence of God's goodness

To the chief Musician, A Psalm [6]of for the sons of Korah

LORD, thou hast been [7]favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.[k]

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.[l]

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: [8]thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.[m]

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?[n]

6 Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?[o]

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.[a]

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.[b]

10 Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.[c]

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.[d]

12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.[e]

13 Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.[f]

PSALM LXXXVI.

1 David strengtheneth his prayer by the conscience of his religion, 5 by the goodness and power of God 11 He desireth the continuance of former grace. 14 Complaining of the proud, he craveth some token of God's goodness.

[1]A Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am [2]holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee [3]daily.[g]

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.[h]

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.[i]

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.[j]

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.[k]

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.[l]

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.[m]

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.[n]

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest [4]hell.[o]

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of [5]violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.[p]

15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.[q]

16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.[r]

17 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

4 I will make mention of [7]Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.[v]

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A Song or Psalm [8]for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, [9]Maschil of [x]Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:[y]

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.[z]

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:[a]

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off [10]from thy hand.[b]

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.[c]

8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.[d]

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.[e]

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.[f]

11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?[g]

13 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.[h]

14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?[i]

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.[j]

16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

"IN THE MORNING SHALL MY PRAYER PREVENT THEE"—PSALM LXXXVIII. 13

17 They came round about me [1]daily like water; they compassed me about together.[a]

18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.[b]

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 The psalmist praiseth God for his covenant, 5 for his wonderful power, 15 for the care of his church, 19 for his favour to the kingdom of David. 38 Then complaining of contrary events, 46 he expostulateth, prayeth, and blesseth God.

[2]Maschil of [c]Ethan the Ezrahite.

I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness [3]to all generations.[d]

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.[e]

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,[f]

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.[g]

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.[h]

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?[i]

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.[j]

31 If they [6]break my statutes, and keep not my commandments,

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.[u]

33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness [7]will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness [8]to fail.[v]

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place [12]in all generations.[l]

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.[m]

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.[n]

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday [13]when it is past, and as a watch in the night.[o]

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which [14]groweth up.[p]

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up: in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.[q]

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.[r]

9 For all our days are [15]passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years [16]as a tale that is told.

10 [1]The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may [2]apply our hearts unto wisdom.[a]

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.[r]

10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.[s]

11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.[t]

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.[u]

13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.[v]

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and [6]flourishing;

15 To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.[w]

PSALM XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.[x]

2 Thy throne is established [7]of old: thou art from everlasting.[y]

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.[z]

5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, [8]for ever.

PSALM XCIV.

1 The prophet, calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety 8 He teacheth God's providence. 12 He sheweth the blessedness of affliction. 16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD [9]God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, [10]shew thyself.[a]

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.[b]

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?[c]

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?[d]

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.[e]

8 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?[f]

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?[g]

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?[h]

11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.[i]

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;[j]

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.[k]

GOING UP TO THE TEMPLE WITH OFFERINGS.—PSALM XCVI. 8

15 But judgment [1]shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had [2]almost dwelt in silence.[a]

18 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.[b]

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?[c]

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.[d]

22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.[e]

23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.[f]

PSALM XCV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 3 for his greatness, 6 and for his goodness, 8 and not to tempt him

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.[g]

2 Let us [3]come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.[h]

4 [4]In his hand are the deep places of the earth: [5]the strength of the hills is his also.

5 [6]The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.[i]

6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.[j]

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice,[k]

8 Harden not your heart, as in the [7]provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:[l]

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.[m]

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:[n]

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath [8]that they should not enter into my rest.[o]

PSALM XCVI.

O SING unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.[p]

2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

PSALM XCVII.

1 The majesty of God's kingdom. 7 The church rejoiceth at God's judgments upon idolaters. 10 An exhortation to godliness and gladness

THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice, let the [11]multitude of isles be glad thereof.[y]

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the [12]habitation of his throne.[z]

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.[a]

4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.[b]

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.[c]

6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.[d]

7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.[e]

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.[f]

10 Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.[g]

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.[h]

12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks [13]at the remembrance of his holiness.[i]

PSALM XCVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the Jews, 4 the Gentiles, 7 and all the creatures to praise God.

A Psalm.

O SING unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.[j]

2 The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he [14]openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.[k]

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.[a]

4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.[b]

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.[c]

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.[d]

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together[e]

9 Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.[f]

PSALM XCIX.

1 The prophet, setting forth the kingdom of God in Zion, 5 exhorteth all, by the example of forefathers, to worship God at his holy hill.

THE LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth [1]be moved.[g]

2 The LORD is great in Zion; and he is high above all the people.[h]

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.[i]

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.[j]

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for [2]he is holy.[k]

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.[l]

7 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.[m]

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.[n]

9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.[o]

PSALM C.

1 An exhortation to praise God cheerfully, 3 for his greatness, 4 and for his power.

[p]A Psalm of [3]praise.

MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, [4]all ye lands.[q]

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.[r]

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.[s]

PSALM CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.[u]

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.[v]

3 I will set no [6]wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.[w]

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.[x]

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.[y]

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh [7]in a perfect way, he shall serve me.[z]

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies [8]shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.[a]

PSALM CII.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint 12 He taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded 23 He sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God

A Prayer [9]of the afflicted, [1]when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.[c]

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.[d]

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.[e]

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.[f]

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my [10]skin.[g]

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.[h]

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.[i]

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.[j]

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping,[k]

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.[l]

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.[m]

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.[n]

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.[a]

14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.[b]

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.[c]

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.[d]

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.[e]

18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.[f]

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;[g]

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose [1]those that are appointed to death;[h]

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;[i]

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He [2]weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.[j]

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.[k]

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.[l]

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt [3]endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:[m]

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.[n]

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.[o]

PSALM CIII.

1 An exhortation to bless God for his mercy, 15 and for the constancy thereof

A Psalm of David.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.[p]

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;[q]

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;[r]

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.[s]

6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.[t]

7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.[u]

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and [4]plenteous in mercy.[v]

9 He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.[w]

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.[x]

11 For [5]as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.[y]

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.[z]

13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.[a]

14 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.[b]

15 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.[c]

16 For the wind passeth over it, and [6]it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.[d]

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;[e]

18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.[f]

19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.[g]

20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels, [7]that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.[h]

21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.[i]

22 Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.[j]

PSALM CIV.

1 A meditation upon the mighty power, 7 and wonderful providence of God 31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth perpetually to praise God

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty.[k]

2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:[l]

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:[m]

4 Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire:[n]

5 [8]Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.[o]

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.[p]

7 At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.[q]

8 [9]They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.[r]

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.[s]

10 [10]He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which [11]run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses [12]quench their thirst.

'MAN GOETH FORTH UNTO HIS WORK AND TO HIS LABOUR UNTIL THE EVENING."—PSALM CIV 23.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which [1]sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.[a]

14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth;[b]

15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and [2]oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.[c]

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;[d]

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.[e]

19 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.[f]

20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein [3]all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.[g]

21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.[h]

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening.[i]

24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.[j]

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships: there is that leviathan, whom thou hast [4]made to play therein.[k]

27 These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.[l]

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.[m]

30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.[n]

31 The glory of the LORD [5]shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoice in his works.[o]

32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.[p]

33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.[q]

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.[r]

PSALM CV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works. 7 The story of God's providence over Abraham, 16 over Joseph, 23 over Jacob in Egypt, 26 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 37 over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.[a]

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.[b]

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore.[c]

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;[d]

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.[e]

8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.[f]

9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;[g]

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, [1]the lot of your inheritance:[h]

12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.[i]

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;[j]

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.[k]

17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:[l]

18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: [2]he was laid in iron:[m]

19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him.[n]

20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.[o]

21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his [3]substance:[p]

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.[q]

24 And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.[r]

25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.[s]

26 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen.[t]

27 They shewed [4]his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.[u]

28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.[v]

32 [5]He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.[z]

33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.[a]

34 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillers, and that without number,[b]

35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength.[c]

37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.[d]

38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.[e]

39 He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.[f]

40 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.[g]

41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.[h]

42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.[i]

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with [6]gladness:

44 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;[j]

45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. [7]Praise ye the LORD.[k]

1 The psalmist exhorteth to praise God 4 He prayeth for pardon of sin, as God did with the fathers 7 The story of the people's rebellion, and God's mercy. 47 He concludeth with prayer and praise.

PRAISE[8] ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.[l]

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?[m]

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.[n]

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;[o]

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.[p]

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.[q]

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.[r]

"HE MADE THEM ALSO TO BE PITIED OF ALL THOSE THAT CARRIED THEM CAPTIVES."—PSALM CVI. 46.

9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.[c]

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.[b]

11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.[c]

12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.[d]

13 [1]They soon forgat his works; they waited not for his counsel:[e]

14 But [2]lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.[f]

15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.[g]

16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.[h]

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.[i]

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.[j]

19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.[k]

20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.[a]

21 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;[b]

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.[c]

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.[d]

24 Yea, they despised [1]the pleasant land, they believed not his word:[e]

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.[f]

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:[g]

27 [2]To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.[h]

28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.[i]

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.[j]

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.[k]

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:[l]

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.[m]

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:[n]

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.[o]

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.[p]

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,[q]

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.[r]

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.[s]

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.[t]

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were [3]brought low for their iniquity.[u]

44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry:[v]

45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.[w]

46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.[x]

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.[y]

PSALM CVII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, 4 over travellers, 10 over captives, 17 over sick men, 23 over seamen, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.[a]

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy,[c]

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and [5]from the south.[d]

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.[e]

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.[f]

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.[g]

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men![h]

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.[i]

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;[j]

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:[k]

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.[l]

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.[m]

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.[n]

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men![o]

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.[p]

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.[q]

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.[r]

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.[s]

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destruction.[t]

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men![u]

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with [6]rejoicing.[v]

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

"THEY MOUNT UP TO THE HEAVEN, THEY GO DOWN AGAIN TO THE DEPTHS: THEIR SOUL IS MELTED BECAUSE OF TROUBLE."—PSALM CVII. 26.

25 For he commandeth, and [1]raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.[a]

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.[b]

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and [2]are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.[c]

29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.[d]

PSALM CVIII.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God. 5 He prayeth for God's assistance according to his promise. 11 His confidence in God's help.

A Song or Psalm of David.

GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.[h]

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.[i]

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the [3]clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;[j]

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.[k]

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;[l]

9 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?[m]

11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.[n]

PSALM CIX.

1 David, complaining of his slanderous enemies, under the person of Judas devoteth them. 16 He sheweth their sin. 21 Complaining of his own misery, he prayeth for help. 29 He promiseth thankfulness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOLD not thy peace, O God of my praise;[o]

2 For the [4]mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful [5]are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause.[p]

4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.[q]

6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let [6]Satan stand at his right hand.[r]

7 When he shall be judged, let him [7]be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.[s]

8 Let his days be few; and let another take his [8]office.[t]

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.[u]

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.[v]

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.[w]

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.[x]

15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.[y]

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.[z]

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.[a]

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come [9]into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.[b]

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake; because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.[c]

24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.[d]

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads.[e]

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

27 That they may know that this is thy hand, that thou, LORD, hast done it.[f]

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.[g]

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame,

1 Godliness hath the promises of this life, 4 and of the life to come. 10 The prosperity of the godly shall be an eyesore to the wicked.

PRAISE[4] ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.[r]

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.[s]

3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.[t]

4 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.[u]

5 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with [5]discretion.[v]

6 Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.[w]

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.[x]

8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.[y]

9 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.[z]

2 Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.[c]

3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD's name is to be praised.[d]

4 The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.[e]

5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who [7]dwelleth on high,[f]

6 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth![g]

7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;[h]

8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.[i]

WHEN Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language;[k]

2 Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.[l]

3 The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.[m]

4 The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.[n]

"HE MAKETH THE BARREN WOMAN TO KEEP HOUSE, AND TO BE A JOYFUL MOTHER OF CHILDREN."—PSALM CXIII. 9.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?[a]

6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob;

8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.[b]

PSALM CXV.

1 Because God is truly glorious, 4 and idols are vanity, 9 he exhorteth to confidence in God. 12 God is to be blessed for his blessings.

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.[c]

PSALM CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy. 5 The psalmist by his experience sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.[a]

2 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.[a]

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I called upon the LORD [3]in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.[v]

6 The LORD is [4]on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?[w]

7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.[x]

8 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.[y]

9 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.[z]

10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I [5]destroy them.

11 They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.[a]

12 They compassed me about like bees, they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.[b]

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.[c]

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.[d]

17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.[e]

18 The LORD hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.[f]

19 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD:[g]

20 This gate of the LORD, into which the righteous shall enter.[h]

21 I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.[i]

22 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.[j]

23 [6]This is the LORD'S doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.[k]

27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light:

"OPEN THOU MINE EYES, THAT I MAY BEHOLD WONDROUS THINGS OUT OF THY LAW."—PSALM CXIX. 18.

bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.[a]

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee.[b]

29 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.[c]

PSALM CXIX.

This psalm containeth sundry prayers, praises, and professions of obedience.

ALEPH.

BLESSED are the [1]undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.[d]

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

3 They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.[e]

4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

5 O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.[f]

7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned [2]thy righteous judgments.[g]

8 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

BETH.

9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.[h]

11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.[i]

12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.[j]

13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.[k]

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.[l]

16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.[m]

GIMEL.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.[n]

18 [3]Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

19 I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.[o]

20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.[p]

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments.[q]

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.[r]

23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.[s]

24 Thy testimonies also are my delight and [4]my counsellors.[t]

DALETH.

25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.[u]

26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.[v]

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.[w]

28 My soul [5]melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.[x]

29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame.

32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.[y]

HE.

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.[z]

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.[a]

35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.[b]

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.[c]

37 [6]Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.[d]

38 Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.[e]

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.[f]

VAU.

41 Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word.[g]

42 [7]So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

44 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk [8]at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.[h]

47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.[i]

48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes.[j]

ZAIN.

PRINCES DID SIT AND SPEAK AGAINST ME.—PSALM CXIX. 23, 51.

53 Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law.[a]

54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law.[b]

56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts.

CHETH.

57 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words.[c]

58 I intreated thy [1]favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word.[d]

59 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.[e]

60 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments.

61 The [2]bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.[f]

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.[g]

TETH.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.[h]

68 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.[i]

69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.[j]

70 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law.[k]

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.[l]

72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.[m]

JOD.

73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.[a]

74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.[b]

75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are [1]right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.[c]

76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be [2]for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.

77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.[d]

78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.[e]

79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.

80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.

CAPH.

81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word.[f]

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?[g]

83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.[h]

84 How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?[i]

85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.[j]

86 All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.[k]

87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.

88 Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.[l]

LAMED.

89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.[m]

90 Thy faithfulness is [3]unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it [4]abideth.[n]

91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.[o]

92 Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.[p]

93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.

94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.

95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

96 I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.[q]

MEM.

97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.[r]

98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for [5]they are ever with me.[s]

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.[t]

100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.[u]

101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.[v]

102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

103 How sweet are thy words unto my [6]taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth![w]

104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.[x]

NUN.

105 Thy word is a [7]lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.[y]

106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.[z]

107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.[a]

108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.[b]

109 My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.[c]

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.[d]

111 Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.[e]

112 I have inclined mine heart to [8]perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end.[f]

SAMECH.

113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.[g]

115 Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.[h]

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.[i]

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood.[j]

119 Thou [9]puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.[k]

120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.[l]

AIN.

121 I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.[m]

123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.[n]

124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.[o]

125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.[p]

126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work: for they have made void thy law.

127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold.[a]

128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.[b]

PE.

129 Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

130 The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.[c]

131 I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy commandments.[d]

132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, [1]as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.[e]

133 Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.[f]

6 My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

7 I am [1]for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM CXXI.

The great safety of the godly, who put their trust in God's protection.

A Song of degrees.

I [2]WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.[b]

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.[c]

4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.[d]

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.[e]

7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.[f]

8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.[g]

PSALM CXXII.

1 David professeth his joy for the church, 6 and prayeth for the peace thereof.

A Song of degrees of David.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.[h]

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:[i]

4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.[j]

5 For there [3]are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.[k]

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.[l]

7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

9 Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.[m]

PSALM CXXIII.

1 The godly profess their confidence in God, 3 and pray to be delivered from contempt.

A Song of degrees.

UNTO thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.[n]

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

The church blesseth God for a miraculous deliverance.

A Song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say;[o]

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:[p]

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.[q]

8 Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.[r]

PSALM CXXV.

1 The safety of such as trust in God. 4 A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

3 For the rod of [4]the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.[s]

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.[t]

PSALM CXXVI.

1 The church, celebrating her incredible return out of captivity, 4 prayeth for, and prophesieth the good success thereof.

A Song of degrees.

WHEN the LORD [5]turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.[u]

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD [6]hath done great things for them.

3 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

5 They that sow in tears shall reap in [7]joy.[v]

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.[c]

2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God,[d]

3 Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.[e]

4 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.[f]

5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.[g]

6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.[h]

14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever:

15 But [2]overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.[n]

16 To him which led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever.[o]

17 To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:[p]

18 And slew famous kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:[q]

19 Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever:[r]

20 And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever:[s]

21 And gave their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever:[t]

22 Even an heritage unto Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.

23 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever:[u]

24 And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.

PSALM CXXXIX.

1 David praiseth God for his allseeing providence, 17 and for his infinite mercies. 19 He defieth the wicked. 23 He prayeth for sincerity.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.[a]

2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.[b]

3 Thou [1]compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.[c]

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.[d]

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.[e]

7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?[f]

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.[g]

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, the darkness [2]hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: [3]the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.[h]

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee: for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth [4]right well.

15 My [5]substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.[i]

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book [6]all my members were written, [7]which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them![j]

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.[k]

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.[l]

21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?[m]

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:[n]

PSALM CXL.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from Saul and Doeg. 8 He prayeth against them 12 He comforteth himself by confidence in God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from the evil man: [1]preserve me from the [1]violent man;[b]

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war.[c]

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.[d]

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.[e]

5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah.[f]

PSALM CXLI.

1 David prayeth that his suit may be acceptable, 3 his conscience sincere, 7 and his life safe from snares.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.[k]

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee

as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.[a]

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.[b]

5 [1]Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.[c]

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.[d]

8 But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; [2]leave not my soul destitute.[e]

9 Keep[f] me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.[f]

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal [3]escape.[g]

PSALM CXLII.

David sheweth that in his trouble all his comfort was in prayer unto God.

[4]Maschil of David; [h] A Prayer when he was in the cave.[i]

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.[j]

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.[k]

4 [5]I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge [6]failed me; [7]no man cared for my soul.[l]

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.[m]

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.[n]

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.[o]

BLESSED be the LORD [10]my strength, which teacheth my hands [11]to war, and my fingers to fight:[z]

2 [12]My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.[a]

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him![b]

4 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.[c]

5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.[d]

6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.[e]

7 Send thine [13]hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children,[f]

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.[g]

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.[h]

10 It is he that giveth [14]salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.[i]

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:[j]

PSALM CXLV.

1 David praiseth God for his fame, 8 for his goodness, 11 for his kingdom, 14 for his providence, 17 for his saving mercy.

David's Psalm of praise.[b]

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; [2]and his greatness is unsearchable.[c]

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.[d]

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous [3]works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will [4]declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and [5]of great mercy.[e]

9 The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.[f]

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee.[g]

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is [6]an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.[h]

14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.[i]

15 The eyes of all [7]wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.[j]

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.[k]

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and [8]holy in all his works.

18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.[l]

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.[m]

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is [4]excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.[k]

14 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.[l]

PSALM CXLIX.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his love to the church, 5 and for that power which he hath given to the church.

PRAISE[5] ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.[m]

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.[n]

3 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.[o]

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.[p]

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.[q]

6 Let the high praises of God be [6]in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand;[r]

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.[a]

PROVERBS

CHAPTER I.

1 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word. 10 To avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt. 24 She threateneth her contemners.

BEFORE CHRIST 1000.

THE proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;[a]

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and [1]equity;[b]

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and [2]discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:[c]

6 To understand a proverb, and [3]the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.[d]

7 ¶ The fear of the LORD is [4]the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.[e]

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:[f]

9 For they shall be [5]an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.[g]

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.[h]

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:[a]

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:[b]

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:[c]

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.[d]

17 Surely in vain the net is spread [1]in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.[e]

33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.[p]

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;[q]

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and [4]liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;[r]

SNARING BIRDS.—PROV. I. 17

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.[s]

24 ¶ Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;[t]

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:[u]

26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;[v]

27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.[w]

28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:[x]

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:[y]

30 They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.[z]

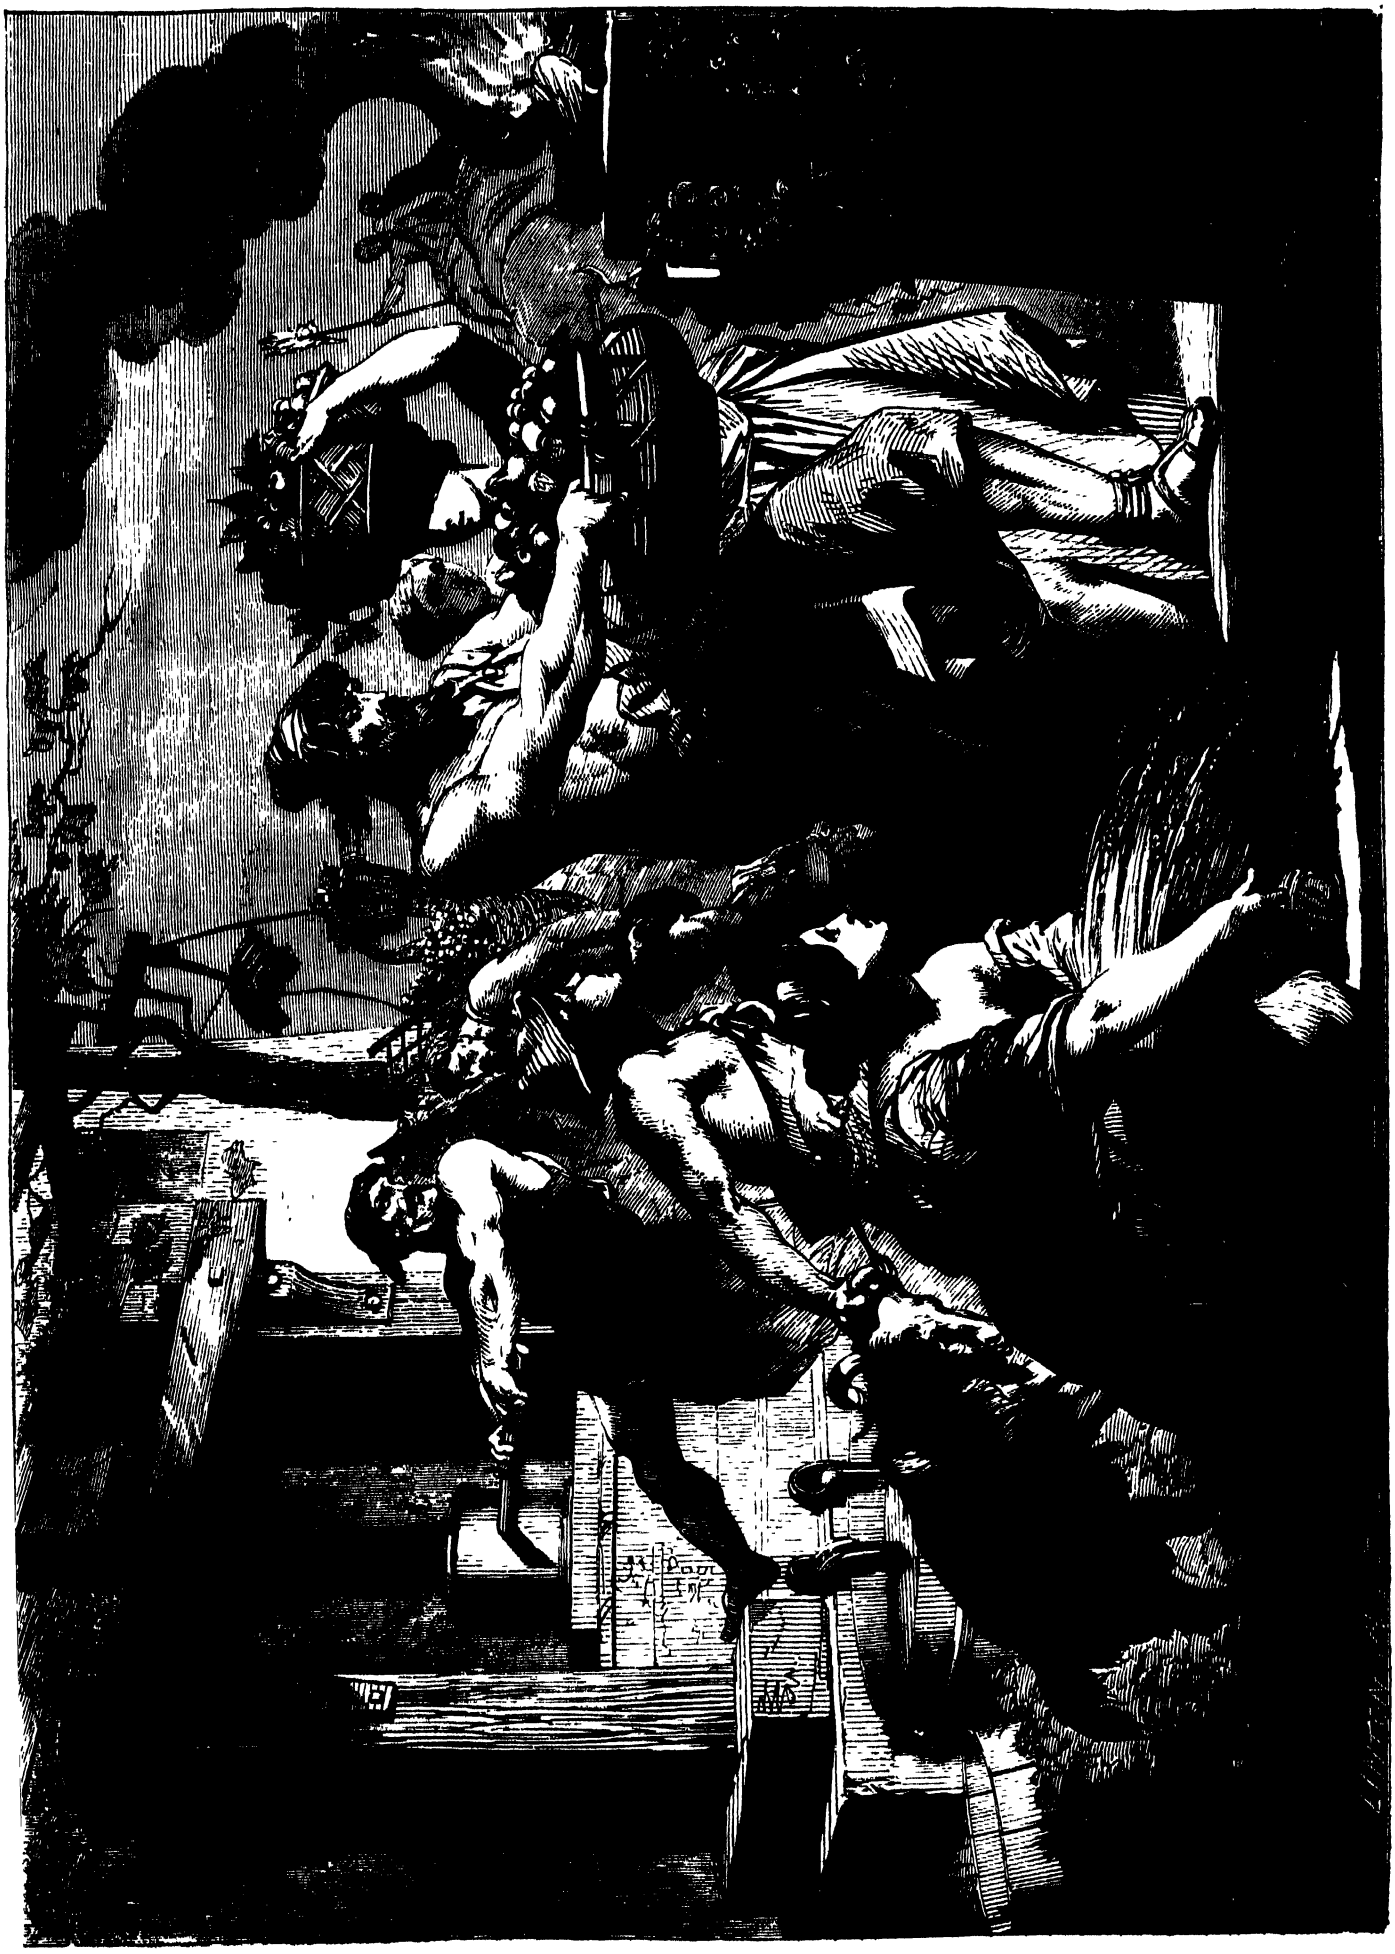
7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.[b]

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.[c]

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:[d]



12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;[e]

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;[f]

CHAPTER III.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 5 to faith, 7 to mortification, 9 to devotion, 11 to patience. 13 The happy gain of wisdom. 19 The power, 21 and the benefits of wisdom. 27 An exhortation to charitableness, 30 peaceableness, 31 and contentedness. 33 The cursed state of the wicked.

MY son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:[e]

2 For length of days, and [2]long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.[f]

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:[g]

4 So shalt thou find favour and [3]good understanding in the sight of God and man.[h]

5 ¶ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.[i]

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.[j]

7 ¶ Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.[k]

8 It shall be [4]health to thy navel, and [5]marrow to thy bones.[l]

9 Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:[m]

10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.[n]

11 ¶ My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:[o]

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.[p]

13 ¶ Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and [6]the man that getteth understanding.[q]

14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.[r]

15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.[s]

16 Length of days is in her right hand, and in her left hand riches and honour.[t]

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.[u]

18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.[v]

23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.[z]

24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.[a]

34 Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame [11]shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Solomon, to persuade obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked. 20 He exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.[i]

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.[k]

4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.[l]

5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.[m]

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.[n]

7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.[o]

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.[p]

9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: [12]a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.[q]

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.[r]

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.[a]

13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

14 ¶ Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.[b]

15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.[c]

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.[d]

19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.[e]

20 ¶ My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.[f]

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and [1]health to all their flesh.[g]

23 ¶ Keep thy heart [2]with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee [3]a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and [4]let all thy ways be established.

27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.[h]

CHAPTER V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom. 3 He sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot. 15 He exhorteth to contentedness, liberality, and chastity. 22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.[i]

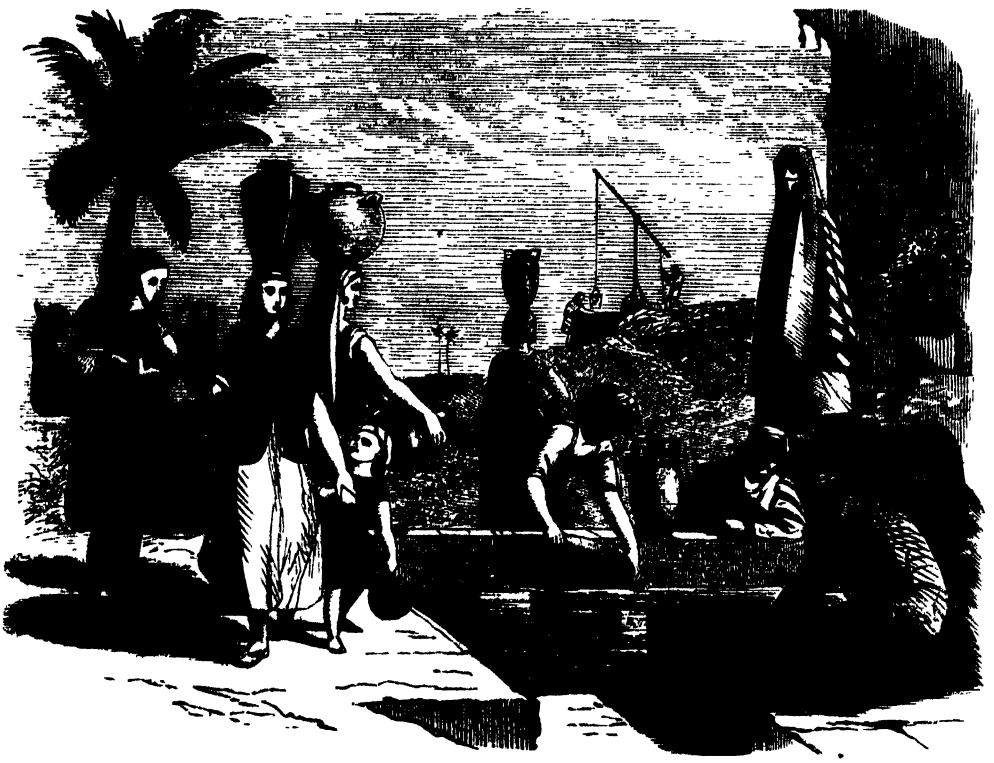
3 ¶ For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her [5]mouth is smoother than oil:[j]

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a twoedged sword.[k]

5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.[l]

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.



8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Lest strangers be filled with [6]thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;[m]

EASTERN WELL.—PROV. V. 15.

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

15 ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.[n]

19 Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and [7]be thou ravished always with her love.[o]

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?[p]

21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.[q]

21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.[g]

23 For the commandment is a [4]lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:[h]

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery [5]of the tongue of a strange woman.[i]

25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.[a]

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and [1]the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.[b]

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.[c]

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh [2]understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.[d]

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Solomon persuadeth to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom. 6 In an example of his own experience, he sheweth 10 the cunning of an whore, 22 and the desperate simplicity of a young wanton. 24 He dehorteth from such wickedness.

lay up my commandments with thee.[e]

2 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.[f]

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.[g]

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.[h]

6 ¶ For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among [4]the youths, a young man void of understanding,[i]

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, [5]in the evening, in the black and dark night:[j]

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:[k]

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and [6]with an impudent face said unto him,

14 [7]I have peace offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.[l]

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

AN EASTERN CASEMENT.—PROV. VII. 6.

20 He hath taken a bag of money [8]with him, and will come home at [9]the day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.[m]

22 He goeth after her [10]straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.[n]

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.[o]

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.[p]

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The fame, 6 and evidency of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DOTH not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?[a]

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.[b]

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is [1]an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing [2]froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.[c]

12 I wisdom dwell with [3]prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.[d]

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.[e]

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.[f]

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.[g]

18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.[h]

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.[i]

20 I [4]lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.[j]

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.[k]

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:[l]

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the [5]fields, nor [6]the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set [7]a compass upon the face of the depth:

CHAPTER IX.

1 The discipline, 4 and doctrine of wisdom 13 The custom, 16 and error of folly

WISDOM hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:[t]

2 She hath killed [9]her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.[u]

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,[v]

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,[w]

5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.[x]

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.[y]

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.[z]

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.[a]

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.[b]

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.[c]

13 ¶ A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.[d]

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,[e]

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,[a]

17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread [1]eaten in secret is pleasant.[b]

18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.[c]

CHAPTER X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.[d]

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.[e]

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away [2]the substance of the wicked.[f]

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.[g]

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.[h]

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.[i]

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.[j]

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but [3]a prating fool [4]shall fall.[k]

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.[l]

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.[m]

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.[n]

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.[o]

13 In the lips of him that hath [5]understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.[p]

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.[q]

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.[r]

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof [6]erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.[s]

19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.[t]

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want [7]of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.[u]

2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.[e]

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.[f]

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.[a]

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.[b]

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.[c]

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.[d]

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.[e]

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is [1]of a perverse heart shall be despised.[f]

9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.[g]

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the [2]tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.[h]

11 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.[i]

12 The wicked desireth [3]the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 [4]The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.[j]

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.[k]

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.[l]

16 A fool's wrath is [5]presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.[m]

18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.[o]

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.[p]

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.[q]

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.[r]

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the [6]slothful shall be under tribute.[s]

25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.[t]

26 The righteous is more [7]excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAPTER XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.[u]

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.[v]

3 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.[w]

4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.[x]

5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth [8]the sinner.[y]

7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.[z]

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the [9]lamp of the wicked shall be put out.[a]

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

11 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth [10]by labour shall increase.[b]

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.[c]

13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment [11]shall be rewarded.[d]

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.[e]

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool [12]layeth open his folly.[f]

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but [13]a faithful ambassador is health.[g]

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.[h]

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.[i]

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools [14]shall be destroyed.

CHAPTER XIV.

EVERY wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.[f]

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.[g]

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.[h]

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.[a]

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.[b]

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.[c]

10 The heart knoweth [1]his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.[d]

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.[e]

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.[f]

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.[g]

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.[h]

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but [2]the rich hath many friends.[i]

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.[j]

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.[k]

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.[l]

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is [3]hasty of spirit exalteth folly.[m]

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones.[n]

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.[o]

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.[p]

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.[q]

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach [4]to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.[r]

CHAPTER XV.

A SOFT answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.[s]

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools [5]poureth out foolishness.[t]

3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.[u]

4 [6]A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.[v]

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.[w]

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.[x]

10 [7]Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.[y]

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?[z]

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.[a]

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.[b]

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.[c]

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith.[d]

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.[e]

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.[f]

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous [8]is made plain.[g]

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.[h]

21 Folly is joy to him that is [9]destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.[i]

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.[j]

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken [10]in due season how good is it![k] and a man of understanding is of [1]an excellent spirit.[a]

28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.[b]

CHAPTER XVIII.

THROUGH[2] desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.[c]

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.[d]

5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.[e]

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.[f]

8 The words of a [3]talebearer are [4]as wounds, and they go down into the [5]innermost parts of the belly.[g]

9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.[h]

10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and [6]is safe.[i]

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.[j]

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.[k]

13 He that [7]answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.[l]

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.[m]

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.[n]

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.[o]

22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.[p]

23 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.[q]

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.[r]

CHAPTER XIX.

BETTER is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.[s]

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.[t]

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.[u]

5 A false witness shall not be [8]unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.[v]

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to [9]him that giveth gifts.[w]

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.[x]

8 He that getteth [10]wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.[y]

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.[z]

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.[a]

11 The [11]discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.[b]

12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass.[c]

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.[d]

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.[e]

15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.[f]

16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.[g]

17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and [12]that which he hath given will he pay him again.[h]

18 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare [13]for his crying.[i]

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must [14]do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.[j]

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.[k]

22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.[l]

24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.[m]

25 Smite a scorner, and the simple [15]will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.[n]

"IT IS NAUGHT, IT IS NAUGHT, SAITH THE BUYER"—PROV XX 14

26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.[a]

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 [1]An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.[b]

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.[c]

CHAPTER XX.

WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.[d]

2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.[e]

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.[f]

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the [2]cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.[g]

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.[h]

7 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.[j]

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.[k]

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?[l]

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.[c]

22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.[d]

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and [3]a false balance is not good.[e]

24 Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?[f]

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.[g]

26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.[h]

28 Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.[j]

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the grey head.[k]

30 The blueness of a wound [5]cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.[l]

3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.[m]

4 [6]An high look, and a proud heart, and [7]the plowing of the wicked, is sin.[n]

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.[o]

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.[p]

7 The robbery of the wicked shall [8]destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with [9]a brawling woman in [10]a wide house.[q]

10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour [11]findeth no favour in his eyes.[r]

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.[s]

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.[t]

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth [12]pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.[w]

19 It is better to dwell [13]in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.[x]

20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.[y]

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.[f]

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but [18]safety is of the LORD.[g]

CHAPTER XXII.

GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and [19]loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all.[h]

"A WISE MAN SCALETH THE CITY OF THE MIGHTY."—PROV. XXI. 22.

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: [1]and the rod of his anger shall fail.[a]

9 [2]He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.[b]

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.[c]

11 He that loveth pureness of heart, [3]for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.[d]

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.[w]

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.[x]

3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man [10]is strong; yea, a man of knowledge [11]increaseth strength.[y]

6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.[z]

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.[a]

8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.[b]

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is [12]small.

11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;[c]

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?[d]

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.[f]

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:[g]

"THE HONOUR OF KINGS IS TO SEARCH OUT A MATTER."—PROV. XXV. 2.

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.[a]

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:[b]

18 Lest the LORD see it, and [1]it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 [2]Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;[c]

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the [3]candle of the wicked shall be put out.[d]

21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with [4]them that are given to change:[e]

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.[f]

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.[d]

6 [2]Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.[e]

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.[f]

17 [6]Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be [7]weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.[m]

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.[n]

21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:[o]

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.[p]

23 [8]The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.[q]

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Observations about fools, 13 about sluggards, 17 and about contentious busybodies.

AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.[u]

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.[v]

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.[w]

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in [9]his own conceit.[x]

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh [10]damage.

7 The legs of the lame [11]are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 [12]As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 [13]The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool [14]returneth to his folly.[y]

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.[z]

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.[a]

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; [15]it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.[b]

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and [16]meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth [17]firebrands, arrows, and death,

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?[c]

20 [18]Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no [19]talebearer, the strife [20]ceaseth.[d]

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.[e]

22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the [21]innermost parts of the belly.[f]

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

"THE WORDS OF A TALEBEARER ARE AS WOUNDS."—PROV. XXVI.

24 He that hateth [1]dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When he [2]speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.[a]

26 Whose [3]hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.[b]

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Observations of selflove, 5 of true love, 11 of care to avoid offences, 23 and of the houshold care.

BOAST not thyself of [4]to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.[c]

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is [5]heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 [6]Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before [7]envy?[d]

5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.[e]

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are [8]deceitful.[f]

CHAPTER XXVIII.

General observations of impiety and religious integrity.

THE wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.[e]

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but [5]by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain [6]which leaveth no food.[f]

4 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.[g]

5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things.[h]

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.[i]

7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he

2 U *

that [1]is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.[a]

8 He that by usury and [2]unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.[b]

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.[c]

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.[d]

11 The rich man is wise [3]in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is [4]hidden.[e]

13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.[f]

14 Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.[g]

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.[h]

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.[i]

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.[j]

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.[k]

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be [5]innocent.[l]

21 To have respect of persons is not good: for for a piece of bread that man will transgress.[m]

22 [6]He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.[n]

23 He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.[o]

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of [7]a destroyer.[p]

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.[q]

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.[r]

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.[s]

HE,[8] that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.[t]

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.[v]

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but [10]he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.[w]

8 Scornful men [11]bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.[x]

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.[y]

10 [12]The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.[z]

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.[a]

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and [13]the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.[b]

14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.[c]

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.[d]

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.[e]

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.[f]

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty [15]in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.[h]

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.[i]

23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.[j]

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.[k]

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD [16]shall be safe.[l]

26 Many seek [17]the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.[m]

5 Every word of God is [2]pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.[b]

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.[c]

7 Two things have I required of thee; [3]deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food [4]convenient for me:[d]

9 Lest I be full, and [5]deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.[e]

10 [6]Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.[f]

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.[g]

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.[h]

16 The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.[i]

17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of [8]the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.[j]

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the [9]midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

OR,

THE PREACHER.

CHAPTER I.

1 The preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain · 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses, 9 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten, 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.[a]

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.[b]

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?[c]

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.[d]

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and [1]hasteth to his place where he arose.[e]

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.[f]

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they [2]return again.[g]

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.[c]

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man [1]to be exercised therewith.[d]

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and [2]that which is wanting cannot be numbered.[e]

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.[f]

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.[g]

18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.[h]

CHAPTER II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.

I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity.[i]

2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?[j]

3 I sought in mine heart [3]to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven [4]all the days of their life.[k]

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had [1]servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as [2]musical instruments, and that of all sorts.[a]

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.[b]

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.[c]

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.[d]

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? [3]even that which hath been already done.[e]

13 Then I saw [4]that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.[f]

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it [5]happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had [6]taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.[g]

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he [7]leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?[h]

24 ¶ There is nothing better for a man, than that he [8]should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.[j]

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good [9]in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.[k]

CHAPTER III.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail 11 There is an excellency in God's works. 16 But as for man, God shall judge his works there, and here he shall be like a beast.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:[l]

2 A time [10]to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;[m]

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time [11]to refrain from embracing;[n]

6 A time to [12]get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;[o]

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.[p]

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?[q]

10 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.[r]

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.[s]

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.[t]

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.[u]

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.[v]

15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth [13]that which is past.[w]

16 ¶ And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.[x]

"BEHOLD THE TEARS OF SUCH AS WERE OPPRESSED, AND THEY HAD NO COMFORTER."—ECCLES. IV. 1.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.[a]

18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, [1]that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.[b]

20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.[c]

21 Who knoweth the spirit [2]of man that [3]goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?[d]

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?[e]

CHAPTER IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the [4]side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.[f]

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.[g]

3 Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.[h]

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and [5]every right work, that [6]for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.[i]

6 Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.[j]

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.[k]

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, [7]who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.[l]

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any [8]thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.[m]

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.[n]

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.[o]

5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.[p]

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?[q]

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.[r]

8 ¶ If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not [9]at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.[s]

9 ¶ Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.[t]

1 The vanity of riches without use. 3 Of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:[f]

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.[g]

GOING TO THE HOUSE OF GOD.—ECCLES. V. 1.

the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun [2]all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion.[d]

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.[e]

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.[h]

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 ¶ Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the [1]appetite is not filled.[a]

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 ¶ Better is the sight of the eyes [2]than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.[b]

11 ¶ Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, [3]all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?[g]

CHAPTER VII.

1 Remedies against vanity are, a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 The difficulty of wisdom.

A GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.[d]

2 ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 [4]Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.[e]

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.[f]

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.[g]

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.[h]

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.[i]

9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.[j]

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire [5]wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is [6]good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.[k]

12 For wisdom is a [7]defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?[l]

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath [8]set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.[m]

16 Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou [9]destroy thyself?[o]

17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die [10]before thy time?[p]

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.[q]

20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.[r]

21 Also [11]take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.[s]

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?[t]

25 [12]I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:[u]

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: [13]whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.[v]

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, [14]counting one by one, to find out the account:[w]

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.[x]

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.[y]

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and [15]the boldness of his face shall be changed.[z]

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.[a]

3 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.[b]

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?[c]

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment [16]shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

"THERE WAS A POOR WISE MAN, AND HE BY HIS WISDOM DELIVERED THE CITY."—ECCLES. IX. 15.

6 ¶ Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.[a]

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him [1]when it shall be?[b]

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no [2]discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.[c]

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.[d]

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.[b]

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.[c]

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.[d]

CHAPTER IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this [1]I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.[e]

2 All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.[a]

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.[b]

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

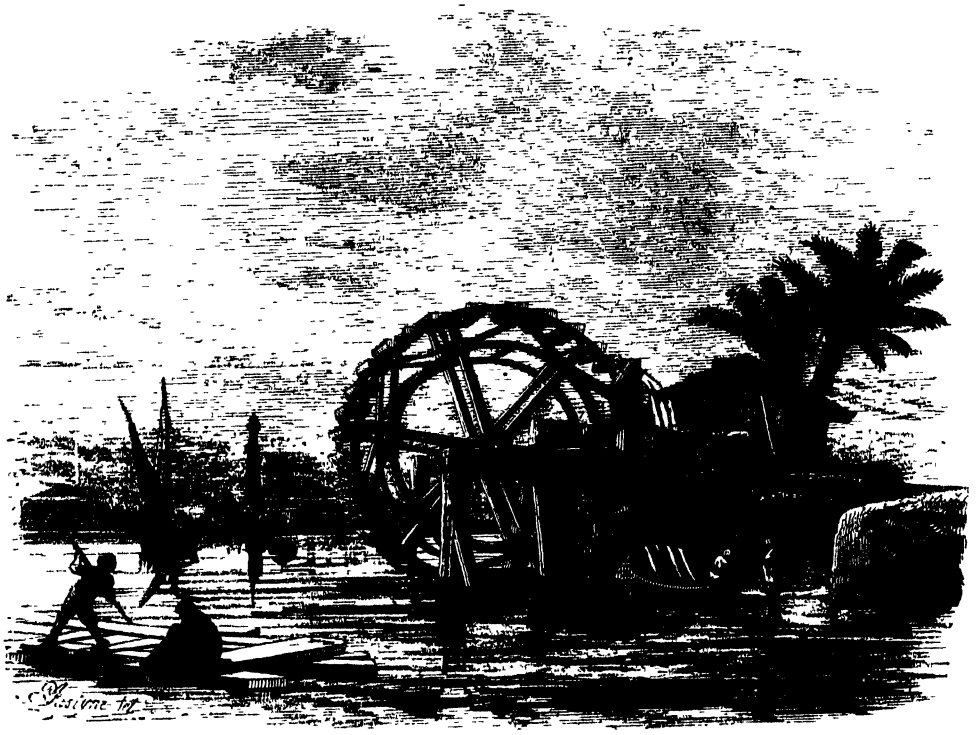
7 ¶ Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.[c]

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 [1]Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.[d]

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.[e]



12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.[f]

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 There was a little city and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:[g]

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength:

EASTERN WATER-WHEEL - ECCLES XII 6

nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.[h]

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.[i]

DEAD[2] flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, [3]his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.[j]

6 Folly is set [2]in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.[b]

8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.[c]

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and [3]a babbler is no better.[d]

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are [4]gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.[e]

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of [5]his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also [6]is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?[f]

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 ¶ Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning![g]

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness![h]

18 ¶ By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 ¶ A feast is made for laughter, and wine [7]maketh merry: but money answereth all things.[i]

20 ¶ Curse not the king, no not in thy [8]thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.[o]

10 Therefore remove [11]sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.[p]

CHAPTER XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due time. 8 The preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;[q]

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and [12]the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low;[r]

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:[s]

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.[t]

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.[u]

10 The preacher sought to find out [14]acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.[k]

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.[l]

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.[m]

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.[n]

17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains [11]of Bether.[o]

CHAPTER III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation. 6 The church glorieth in Christ.

BY night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.[p]

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?[q]

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

THE ROE.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.[r]

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?[a]

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself [1]a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ setteth forth the graces of the church. 8 He sheweth his love to her. 16 The church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, [2]that appear from mount Gilead.[b]

2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.[c]

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.[d]

4 Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.[e]

5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.[f]

6 Until the day [3]break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.[g]

7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.[h]

8 ¶ Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.[i]

9 Thou hast [4]ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices![j]

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.[k]

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling. 2 The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. 9 A description of Christ by his graces.

I AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice, I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, [7]yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.[o]

2 ¶ I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.[p]

3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved [8]for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with [9]sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.[a]

7 The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.[b]

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, [1]that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 ¶ What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?[c]

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, [2]the chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are [3]bushy, and black as a raven.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and [4]fitly set.[d]

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping [5]sweet smelling myrrh.

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 [6]His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The church professeth her faith in Christ. 4 Christ sheweth the graces of the church, 10 and his love towards her

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.[e]

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.[f]

4 ¶ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.[g]

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for [7]they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.[h]

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.[i]

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 ¶ Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?[j]

11 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.[k]

12 [8]Or ever I was aware, my soul [9]made me like the chariots of Ammi-nadib.

13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company [10]of two armies.[l]

CHAPTER VII.

1 A further description of the church's graces. 10 The church professeth her faith and desire.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.[n]

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.[o]

5 Thine head upon thee is like [12]Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is [13]held in the galleries

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down [14]sweetly, causing the lips [15]of those that are asleep to speak.

10 ¶ I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.[p]

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape [16]appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.[q]

13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.[r]

THE Book of the Prophet ISAIAH

CHAPTER I.

1 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion. 5 He lamenteth her judgments 10 He upbraideth their whole service 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgments. 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and the earth destruction to the wicked

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.[a]

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.[b]

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.[c]

4 Ah sinful nation, a people [1]laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are [2]gone away backward.[d]

BEFORE CHRIST 760

Isaiah, who stands pre-eminent among the Hebrew prophets, is supposed to have begun to exercise his sacred office some 760 years before the Christian Era. He was nearly contemporary with Hosea, Joel, Amos and Micah. He lived during several reigns, up to the fifteenth or sixteenth year of Hezekiah; while his prophetic career ran through a period of at least fifty years

2 Heb. alienated, or, separated.

d ch lvii. 3, 4 Matt iii 7.

5 ¶ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will [1]revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.[a]

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with [2]ointment.[b]

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, [3]as overthrown by strangers.[c]

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.[d]

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.[e]

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.[f]

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of [4]he goats.[g]

12 When ye come [5]to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?[h]

13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is [6]iniquity, even the solemn meeting.[i]

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.[j]

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye [7]make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of [8]blood.[k]

16 ¶ Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;[l]

17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, [9]relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.[m]

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.[n]

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.[o]

21 ¶ How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.[p]

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:[q]

23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.[r]

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:[s]

25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, and [10]purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:[t]

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.[u]

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and [11]her converts with righteousness.

28 ¶ And the [12]destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.[v]

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.[w]

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, [13]and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.[x]

CHAPTER II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom. 6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking. 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be [14]established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.[y]

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.[z]

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into [15]pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.[a]

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.[b]

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished [16]from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they [17]please themselves in the children of strangers.[c]

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:[d]

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:[e]

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all [1]pleasant pictures.[e]

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.[f]

18 And [2]the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of [3]the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.[g]

20 In that day a man shall cast his [4]idols of silver, and his idols of gold, [5]which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;[h]

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.[i]

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 9 The impudency of the people. 12 The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. 16 The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women.

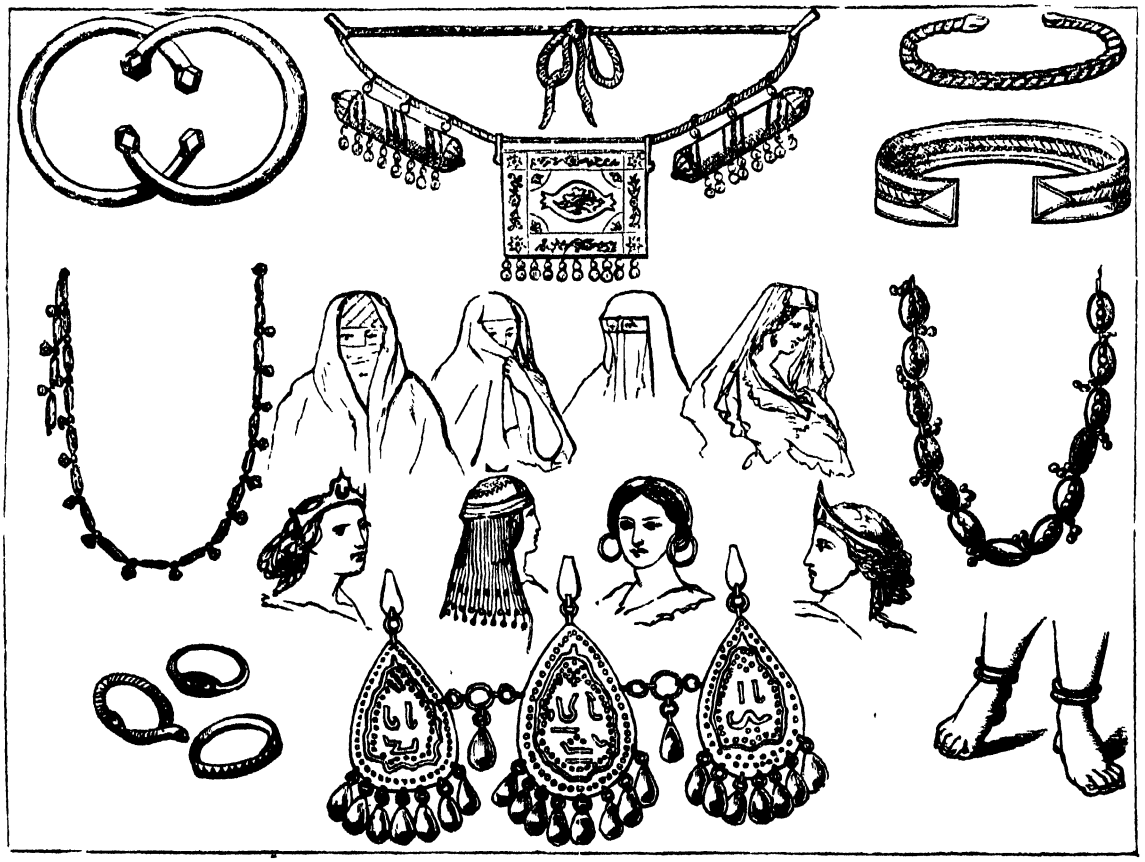
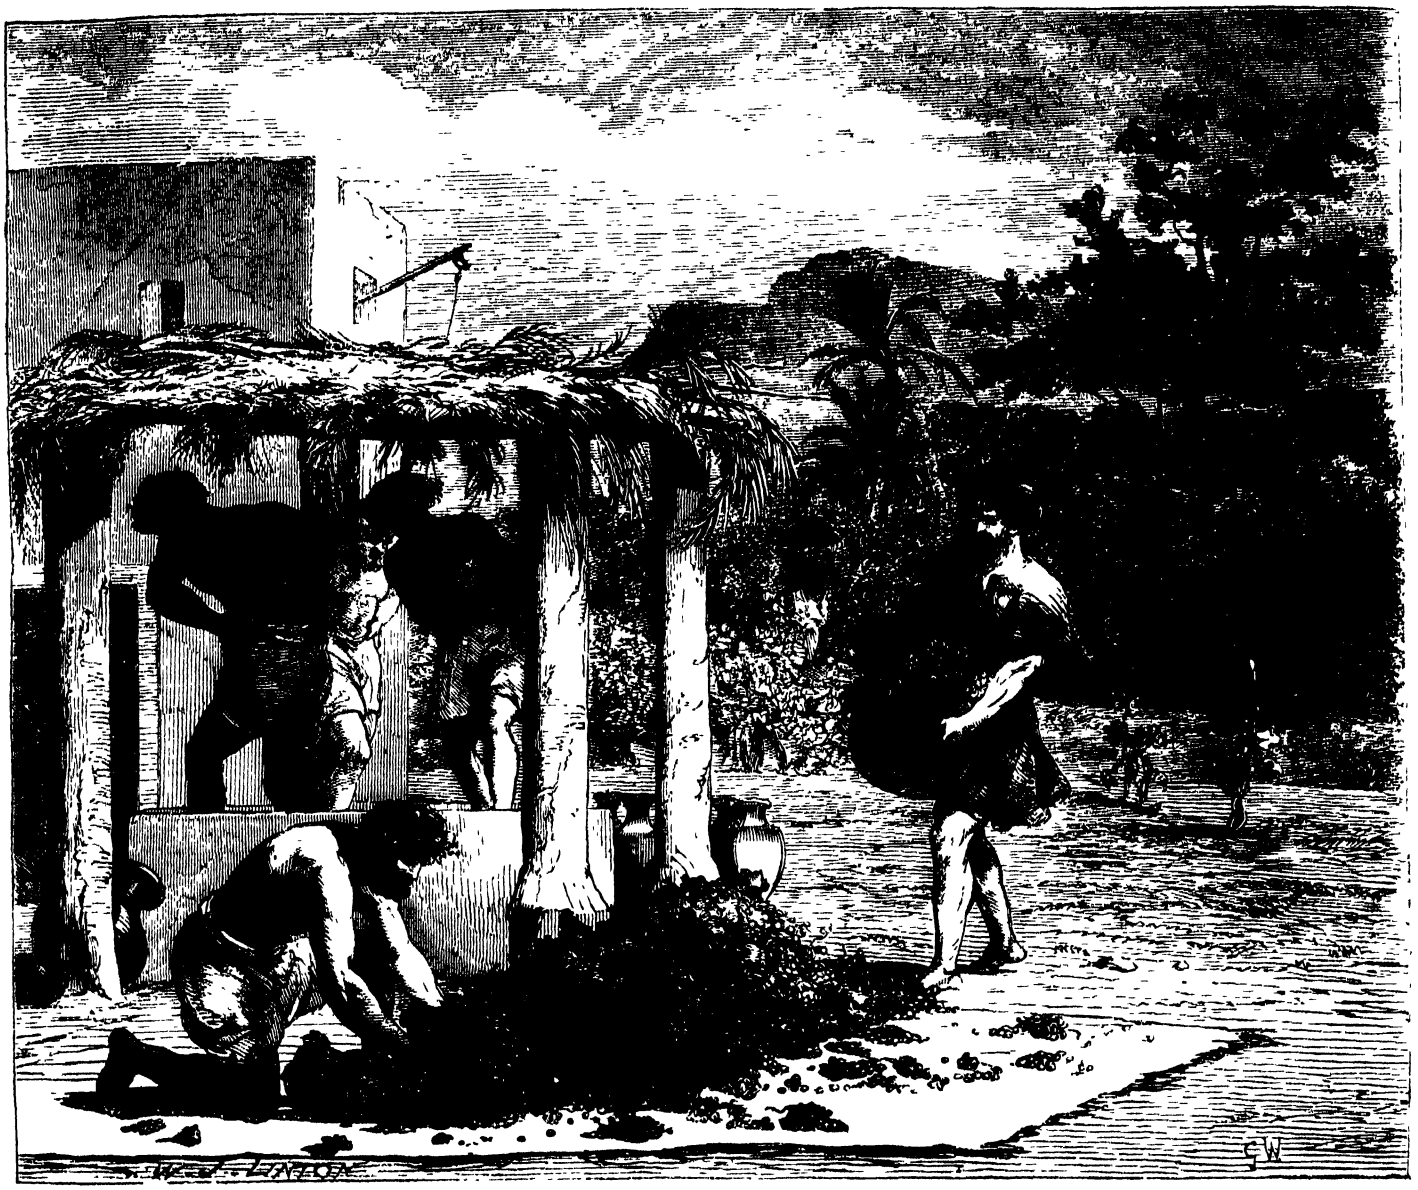
FOR, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,[k]

2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,[l]



3 The captain of fifty, and [6]the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the [7]eloquent orator.

4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.[m]



5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he [8]swear, saying, I will not be an [1]healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.[a]

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.[b]

9 ¶ The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.[c]

10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.[d]

11 Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be [2]given him.[e]

12 ¶ As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, [3]they which lead thee cause thee to err, and [4]destroy the way of thy paths.[f]

13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.[g]

14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have [5]eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.[h]

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts.[i]

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and [6]wanton eyes, walking and [7]mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will [8]discover their secret parts.[j]

In the extremity of evils, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only [3]let us be called by thy name, [4]to take away our reproach.[c]

2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be [5]beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely [6]for them that are escaped of Israel.[d]

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written [7]among the living in Jerusalem:[e]

4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.[f]

5 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for [8]upon all the glory shall be [9]a defence.[g]

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.[h]

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God excuseth his severe judgment 8 His judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 13 upon impiety, 20 and upon injustice 26 The executioners of God's judgments

NOW will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in [10]a very fruitful hill:[i]

2 And he [11]fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also [12]made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.[j]

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.[k]

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be [13]trodden down:[l]

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah [14]his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold [15]oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that [16]they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth![m]

9 [17]In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, [18]Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.[n]

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.[o]

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine [19]inflame them![p]

12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.[q]

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and [20]their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.[r]

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:[s]

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and [21]God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.[t]

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

19 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it![u]

20 ¶ Woe unto them [22]that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are wise [23]in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight![v]

22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:[w]

23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him![x]

24 Therefore as [1]the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.[a]

25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.[b]

26 ¶ And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly:[c]

27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:[d]

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and [2]sorrow, [3]and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.[f]

CHAPTER VI.

1 Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, 5 being terrified, is comforted for his message. 9 He sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and [4]his train filled the temple.[g]

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.[h]

3 And [5]one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: [6]the whole earth is full of his glory.[i]

4 And the posts of [7]the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.[j]

5 ¶ Then said I, Woe is me! for I am [8]undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.[k]

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, [9]having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he [10]laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.[l]

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, [11]Here am I; send me.

9 ¶ And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye [12]indeed, but understand not; and see ye [13]indeed, but perceive not.[m]

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.[n]

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be [14]utterly desolate,[o]

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.[p]

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, [15]and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose [16]substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.[q]

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.[r]

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria [17]is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and [18]Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the [19]highway of the fuller's field;[s]

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, [20]neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and [21]vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.[t]

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years [22]shall Ephraim be broken, [22]that it be not a people.[u]

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. [23]If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ [24]Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

3 And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, [6]the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.[a]

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;[b]

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

i ch. vii. 14; xxx. 28

9 ¶ Associate yourselves, O ye people, [1]and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.[a]

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.[b]

11 ¶ For the LORD spake thus to me [2]with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.[c]

13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.[d]

14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[e]

15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.[f]

16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.[g]

18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.[h]

19 ¶ And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?[i]

20 To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is [3]no light in them.[j]

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.[k]

22 And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.[l]

CHAPTER IX.

1 What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgments upon Israel for their pride, 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee [4]of the nations.[m]

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.[n]

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and [5]not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.[o]

4 [6]For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.[p]

5 [7]For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; [8]but this shall be with burning and [9]fuel of fire.[q]

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.[r]

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.[s]

8 ¶ The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and [10]join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel [11]with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.[t]

13 ¶ For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.[u]

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day.[v]

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For [12]the leaders of this people cause them to err; and [13]they that are led of them are [14]destroyed.[w]

17 Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh [15]folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.[x]

18 ¶ For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.[y]

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the [16]fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.[z]

20 And he shall [17]snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:[a]

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.[b]

RUINS OF SAMARIA.—ISAIAH IX. 8–10.

CHAPTER X.

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WOE unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and [1]that write grievousness which they have prescribed;[a]

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?[b]

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.[c]

5 ¶ [2]O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, [3]and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.[d]

6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and [4]to tread them down like the mire of the streets.[e]

7 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.[f]

8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?[g]

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?[h]

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

b Job xxxi. 14; Hos. ix. 7; Luke xix. 44.

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will [1]punish the fruit [2]of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.[a]

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants [3]like a valiant man.[b]

14 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.[c]

15 Shall the ax boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? [4]as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up [5]itself, as if it were no wood.[d]

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.[e]

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;[f]

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, [6]both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.[g]

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be [7]few, that a child may write them.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.[h]

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.[i]

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant [8]of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow [9]with righteousness.[j]

23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.[k]

24 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, [10]and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.[l]

25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.[m]

26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.[n]

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden [11]shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.[o]

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled.[p]

30 [12]Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.[q]

31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.[r]

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.[s]

33 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.[t]

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall [13]by a mighty one.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and vocation of the Gentiles.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:[u]

2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;[v]

3 And shall make him of quick [14]understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.[w]

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.[x]

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.[y]

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the [15]cockatrice' den.

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.[z]

10 ¶ And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be [16]glorious.[a]

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.[a]

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four [1]corners of the earth.[b]

13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.[c]

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil [2]them of the east together: [3]they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; [4]and the children of Ammon shall obey them.[d]

15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over [5]dryshod.[e]

16 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.[f]

CHAPTER XII.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God

AND in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.[g]

2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.[h]

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.[i]

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, [6]call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.[j]

5 Sing unto the LORD; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.[k]

6 Cry out and shout, thou [7]inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.[l]

CHAPTER XIII.

1 God mustereth the armies of his wrath 6 He threateneth to destroy Babylon by the Medes. 19 The desolation of Babylon.

THE burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.[m]

2 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.[n]

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.[o]

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, [8]like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 ¶ Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.[p]

7 Therefore shall all hands [9]be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall [10]be amazed [11]one at another; their faces shall be as [12]flames.[q]

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.[r]

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.[s]

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.[t]

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.[u]

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.[v]

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.[w]

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.[x]

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 ¶ And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be [13]as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.[y]

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 But [14]wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of [15]doleful creatures; and [16]owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.[z]

22 And the [17]wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate [18]houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.[a]

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel. 4 Their triumphant insultation over Babel. 24 God's purpose against Assyria. 29 Palestina is threatened.

FOR the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.[a]

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, [1]whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.[b]

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 ¶ That thou shalt take up this [2]proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the [3]golden city ceased![c]

5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with a [4]continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.[d]

9 [5]Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the [6]chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.[e]

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and [4]brought to silence;[b]

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.[c]

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, [5]weeping abundantly.[d]

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.[e]

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; [6]his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of [7]destruction.[f]

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be [8]desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.[g]

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the [9]brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring [10]more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.[h]

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Moab is exhorted to yield obedience to Christ's kingdom. 6 Moab is threatened for her pride. 9 The prophet bewaileth her. 12 The judgment of Moab.

SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from [11]Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.[i]

2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird [12]cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.[j]

3 [13]Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the [14]extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, [15]the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be [16]established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.[k]

6 ¶ We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.[l]

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye [17]mourn; surely they are stricken.[m]

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are [18]stretched out, they are gone over the sea.[n]

9 ¶ Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for [19]the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.[o]

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vint ge shouting to cease.[p]

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-haresh.[q]

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.[r]

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and [20]feeble.[s]

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;[k]

2 At the same time spake the LORD [5]by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.[l]

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;[m]

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away [6]the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the [7]shame of Egypt.[n]

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.[o]

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; [4]I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.[d]

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.[e]

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir [5]uncovered the shield.[f]

7 And it shall come to pass, that [6]thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array [7]at the gate.

8 ¶ And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.[g]

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.[h]

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.[i]

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:[j]

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.[k]

14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.[l]

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their unhappy return.

THE burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.[s]

2 Be [13]still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.[t]

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.[u]

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her [14]afar off to sojourn.[v]

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?[a]

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, [1]to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land [2]as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more [2]strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment [3]against [4]the merchant city, to destroy the [5]strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.[b]

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.[c]

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.[d]

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years [6]shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.[e]

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for [7]durable clothing.[f]

RUINS OF TYRE, NOW CALLED

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The doleful judgments of God upon the land. 13 A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and [8]turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the [9]priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.[g]

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, [10]the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.[h]

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.[i]

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh.[j]

8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.[k]

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.[l]

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the [11]fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.[m]

16 ¶ From the [1]uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, [2]My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.[a]

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.[b]

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.[c]

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.[d]

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.[e]

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall [3]punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.[f]

22 And they shall be gathered together, [4]as prisoners are gathered in the [5]pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be [6]visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and [7]before his ancients gloriously.[g]

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God, for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation

O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.[h]

2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.[i]

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.[j]

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.[k]

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.[l]

7 And he will [8]destroy in this mountain the face of the covering [9]cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations.[m]

8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.[n]

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.[o]

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be [10]trodden down under him, even as straw is [11]trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.[p]

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God, 5 for his judgments, 12 and for his favour to his people. 20 An exhortation to wait on God.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.[q]

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the [12]truth may enter in.[r]

3 Thou wilt keep him in [13]perfect peace, whose [14]mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.[s]

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is [15]everlasting strength:[t]

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.[u]

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.[v]

8 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.[w]

9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.[x]

10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.[y]

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy [16]at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.[z]

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works [17]in us.

13 O LORD our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.[a]

7 ¶ But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.[l]

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand [9]doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.[m]

10 For precept [10]must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.[q]

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be [13]trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only [14]to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.[r]

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.[a]

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in [1]the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the [2]rie in their [3]place?

26 [4]For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.[b]

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 God's heavy judgment upon Jerusalem. 7 The unsatiableness of her enemies. 9 The senselessness, 13 and deep hypocrisy of the Jews. 18 A promise of sanctification to the godly.

WOE [5]to Ariel, to Ariel, [6]the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them [7]kill sacrifices.[c]

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall [1]whisper out of the dust.[a]

5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.[b]

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.[c]

7 ¶ And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.[d]

8 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 ¶ Stay yourselves, and wonder; [2]cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.[e]

10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your [3]rulers, the seers hath he covered.[f]

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a [4]book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:[g]

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 ¶ Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men:[h]

14 Therefore, behold, [5]I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.[i]

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?[j]

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?[k]

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?[l]

18 ¶ And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.[m]

19 The meek also [6]shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.[n]

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The prophet threateneth the people for their confidence in Egypt, 8 and contempt of God's word. 18 God's mercies towards his church. 27 God's wrath, and the people's joy, in the destruction of Assyria.

WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin:[t]

2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt![u]

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.[v]

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.[w]

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.[x]

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.[y]

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried [8]concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.[z]

8 ¶ Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for [9]the time to come for ever and ever:[a]

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:[b]

10 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:[c]

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel,

Because ye despise this word, and trust in [1]oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.[a]

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of [2]the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.[b]

15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.[c]

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as [3]a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.[d]

18 ¶ And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.[e]

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.[f]

20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of [4]affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:[g]

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.[h]

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.[i]

23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.[j]

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat [5]clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every [6]high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the [7]'s fall.[k]

26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.[l]

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, [7]and the burden thereof is [8]heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.[m]

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the [9]mighty One of Israel.[n]

30 And the LORD shall cause [10]his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.[o]

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.[p]

32 And [11]in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall [12]lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight [13]with it.[q]

33 For Tophet is ordained [14]of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. 6 He exhorteth to conversion. 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

Before Christ 712

WOE to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD![a]

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not [1]call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.[b]

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.[c]

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.[d]

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.[e]

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.[f]

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and [2]his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.[g]

8 ¶ Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee [3]from the sword, and his young men shall be [4]discomfited.[h]

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.[q]

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

COME near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and [6]all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.[f]

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.[g]

4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.[h]

5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.[i]

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.[j]

7 And the [7]unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be [8]soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion.[k]

9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.[l]

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.[m]

11 ¶ But the [9]cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.[n]

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions solicteth the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.[l]

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the [1]scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?[a]

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but [2]vain words) [3]I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.[b]

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give [4]pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, [5]Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;[c]

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the houshold, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.[d]

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the houshold, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of [6]blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is [7]left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will [8]send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.[b]

26 [3]Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were [4]of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy [5]abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and [7]they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.[b]

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.[c] smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.[a]

37 ¶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of [1]Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Hezekiah, having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward, for a sign of that promise. 9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [2]Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.[b]

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept [3]sore.[c]

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.[d]

7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;[e]

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the [4]sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

1 Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures. 3 Isaiah, understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.[a]

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the [1]precious ointment, and all the house of his [2]armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.[b]

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.[c]

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and [3]they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.[d]

THE WORKSHOP OF THE IDOL MAKERS.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.[a]

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.[b]

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall [1]renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.[c]

CHAPTER XLI.

1 God expostulateth with his people, about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.[d]

2 Who raised up [2]the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.[e]

3 He pursued them, and passed [3]safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.[f]

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, [4]Be of good courage.[g]

7 So the carpenter encouraged the [5]goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer [6]him that smote the anvil, [7]saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.[h]

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.[i]

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.[j]

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and [8]they that strive with thee shall perish.[k]

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.[l]

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye [11]men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having [12]teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.[m]

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.[o]

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together:

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.[p]

21 [13]Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may [14]consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.[q]

24 Behold, ye are [15]of nothing, and your work [16]of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.[r]

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon morter, and as the potter treadeth clay.[s]

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.[t]

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.[u]

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could [17]answer a word.[v]

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.[w]

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the [1]smoking flax shall he not [2]quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be [3]discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.[b]

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:[c] thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;[a]

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.[b]

8 I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.[c]

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and [1]all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.[d]

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall [2]prevail against his enemies.[e]

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and [3]devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things [4]straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 ¶ They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.[f]

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?[g]

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.[h]

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make [5]it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear [6]for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.[i]

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises. 8 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency. 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people. 22 He reproveth the people as inexcusable.

BUT now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.[j]

2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.[k]

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.[l]

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy [7]life.

5 Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;[m]

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.[n]

8 ¶ Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.[o]

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.[p]

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was [8]no God formed, neither shall there be after me.[q]

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.[r]

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.[s]

13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall [9]let it?[t]

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their [10]nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.[u]

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;[v]

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.[o]

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.[p]

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.[q]

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the [1]owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.[r]

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.[s]

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.[t]

23 Thou hast not brought me the [2]small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.[u]

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou [3]filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.[x]

25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.[y]

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy [4]teachers have transgressed against me.[z]

28 Therefore I have profaned the [5]princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.[a]

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol makers. 21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:[b]

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.[c]

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:[d]

4 And they shall spring up as [6]among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD'S; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.[e]

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.[f]

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no [7]God; I know not any.[g]

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their [8]delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.[h]

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?[i]

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.[k]

12 The smith [9]with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.[l]

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he [10]strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath [11]shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.[m]

19 And none [12]considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to [13]the stock of a tree?[n]

20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?[o]

my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.[a]

22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.[b]

23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.[c]

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;[d]

25 That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;[e]

26 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the [1]decayed places thereof:[f]

27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:[g]

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.[h]

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake. 5 By his omnipotency he challengeth obedience. 20 He convinceth the idols of vanity by his saving power.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have [2]holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;[i]

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:[j]

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.[k]

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.[l]

5 ¶ I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:[m]

peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.[a]

8 Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.[b]

9 Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?[c]

10 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.[d]

12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.[e]

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will [1]direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.[f]

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God.[g]

15 Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.[h]

16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.[i]

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.[j]

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else.[k]

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.[l]

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.[w]

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;[x]

3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.[y]

4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and [7]my work with my God.[z]

5 ¶ And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, [8]Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.[a]

6 And he said, [1]It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the [2]preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.[b]

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, [3]to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.[c]

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to [4]establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;[d]

9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.[e]

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.[f]

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.[g]

12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.[h]

13 ¶ Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.[i]

14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.[j]

15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, [5]that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.[k]

16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.[l]

17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.[m]

18 ¶ Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.[n]

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.[o]

20 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.[p]

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their [6]arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.[q]

23 And kings shall be thy [7]nursing fathers, and their [8]queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.[r]

24 ¶ Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or [9]the lawful captive delivered?[s]

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even [10]the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with [11]sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.[t]

CHAPTER L.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in that assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.[u]

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.[v]

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.[w]

4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.[x]

5 ¶ The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.[y]

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.[z]

7 ¶ For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.[a]

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:[c]

AWAKE, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.[f]

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.[g]

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.[a]

4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.[b]

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.[c]

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.[e]

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.[f]

3 ¶ Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.[p]

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.[q]

CHAPTER LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproveth the Jews for their whorish idolatry 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and [5]merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away [6]from the evil to come.[g]

2 He shall [7]enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking [8]in his uprightness.[h]

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.[a]

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Enflaming yourselves [1]with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks?[b]

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.[c]

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and [2]made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed [3]where thou sawest it.[d]

9 And [4]thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.[e]

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the [5]life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.[f]

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?[g]

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.[h]

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.[i]

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.[j]

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on [6]frowardly in the way of his heart.[k]

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.[m]

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.[n]

CHAPTER LVIII.

1 The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresseth a counterfeit fast and a true. 8 He declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY [7]aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your [8]labours.[p]

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: [9]ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.[q]

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?[r]

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo [10]the heavy burdens, and to let the [11]oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?[s]

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?[t]

8 ¶ Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD [12]shall be thy rereward.[u]

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;[v]

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in [13]drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters [14]fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.[w]

13 ¶ If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:[a]

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.[b]

CHAPTER LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Calamity is for sin. 16 Salvation ... only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:[c]

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins [1]have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.[d]

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.[e]

5 They hatch [2]cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and [3]that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.[f]

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and [4]destruction are in their paths.[g]

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no [5]judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.[h]

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.[i]

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.[j]

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.[k]

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.[l]

14 And [6]judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil [7]maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and [7]it displeased him that there was no judgment.

CHAPTER LX.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction

ARISE, [10]shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.[s]

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.[t]

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.[u]

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the [11]abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the [12]forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.[v]

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.[w]

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.[x]

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.[y]

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.[a]

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the [1]forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.[b]

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.[c]

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.[d]

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.[e]

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.[f]

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.[g]

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.[h]

20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.[i]

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.[j]

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.[k]

CHAPTER LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy toward his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is [7]glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?[h]

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.[i]

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.[j]

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.[k]

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.[l]

7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.[m]

10 ¶ But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.[n]

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the [8]shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?[o]

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?[p]

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?[q]

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, [9]the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?[r]

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, [10]our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.[s]

17 ¶ O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.[t]

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.[u]

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; [11]they were not called by thy name.

CHAPTER LXIV.

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power. 5 Celebrating God's mercy, it maketh confession of their natural corruptions. 9 It complaineth of their affliction.

OH that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,[v]

2 As when [12]the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.[a]

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye [1]seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.[b]

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.[c]

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.[d]

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast [2]consumed us, [3]because of our iniquities.[e]

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.[f]

CHAPTER LXV.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews, for their incredulity, idolatry, and hypocrisy, are rejected. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgments on the wicked, and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I AM sought of them that asked not for me, I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.[k]

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;[l]

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense [4]upon altars of brick;[m]

4 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and [5]broth of abominable things is in their vessels;[n]

5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my [6]nose, a fire that burneth all the day.[o]

6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,[p]

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.[q]

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.[r]

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.[s]

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.[t]

POTTERS AT WORK FROM ANCIENT PAINTINGS.

11 ¶ But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that [7]troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that [8]number.[u]

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.[v]

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for [9]vexation of spirit.[w]

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:[x]

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth, because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.[y]

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET Jeremiah

CHAPTER I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetical visions of an almond rod and a seething pot 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin :[a]

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.[b]

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.[c]

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee ; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I [1]ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.[d]

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD ! behold, I cannot speak : for I am a child.[e]

7 ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.[a]

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.[b]

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.[c]

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.[d]

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is [1]toward the north.[e]

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil [2]shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.[f]

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.[g]

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.[h]

17 ¶ Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I [3]confound thee before them.[i]

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.[j]

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.[k]

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.[m]

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?[n]

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?[o]

7 And I brought you into [5]a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof, but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.[p]

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.[q]

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.[r]

10 For pass [6]over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.[s]

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.[t]

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.[u]

14 ¶ Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he [7]spoiled?[v]

15 The young lions roared upon him, and [8]yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.[w]

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.[x]

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?[y]

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?[z]

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD God of hosts.[a]

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not trans-

gress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.[a]

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?[b]

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much sope, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD.[c]

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: [1]thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;[d]

24 [2]A wild ass [3]used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at [4]her pleasure; in her occasion who can [5]turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.[e]

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, [6]There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.[f]

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast [7]brought me forth: for they have turned [8]their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.[h]

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy [9]trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.[h]

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.[i]

30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.[j]

31 ¶ O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, [10]We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?[k]

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.[l]

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by [11]secret search, but upon all these.[m]

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.[n]

36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.[o]

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.[p]

CHAPTER III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 6 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reproved, and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

[12]say, If a man put away ife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD.[q]

high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.[r]

3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.[s]

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?[t]

5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.[u]

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.[v]

7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.[w]

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.[x]

9 And it came to pass through the [13]lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.[y]

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but [14]feignedly, saith the LORD.[z]

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.[a]

12 ¶ Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.[b]

13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.[c]

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:[d]

15 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.[a]

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it [1]come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall [2]that be done any more.[b]

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the [3]imagination of their evil heart.[c]

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk [4]with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have [5]given for an inheritance unto your fathers.[d]

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a [6]pleasant land, a [7]goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away [8]from me.[e]

20 ¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her [9]husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.[f]

21 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.[g]

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.[h]

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.[i]

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.[j]

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.[k]

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments 19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.[l]

2 And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.[m]

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.[n]

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.[p]

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: [10]retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great [11]destruction.[q]

8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.[s]

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.[t]

22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?[e]

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah 4 encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the judgments of God because of their sins 18 He proclaimeth God's wrath. 26 He calleth the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins.

YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.[m]

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a [6]comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.[n]

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.[a]

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and [1]cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.[b]

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul [2]depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.[c]

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall throughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.[d]

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.[e]

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.[f]

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.[g]

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.[h]

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.[i]

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.[j]

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.[k]

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.[l]

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.[m]

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.[n]

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.[o]

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.[p]

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.[q]

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.[r]

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.[s]

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 [3]Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.[t]

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the [1]queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.[b]

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?[c]

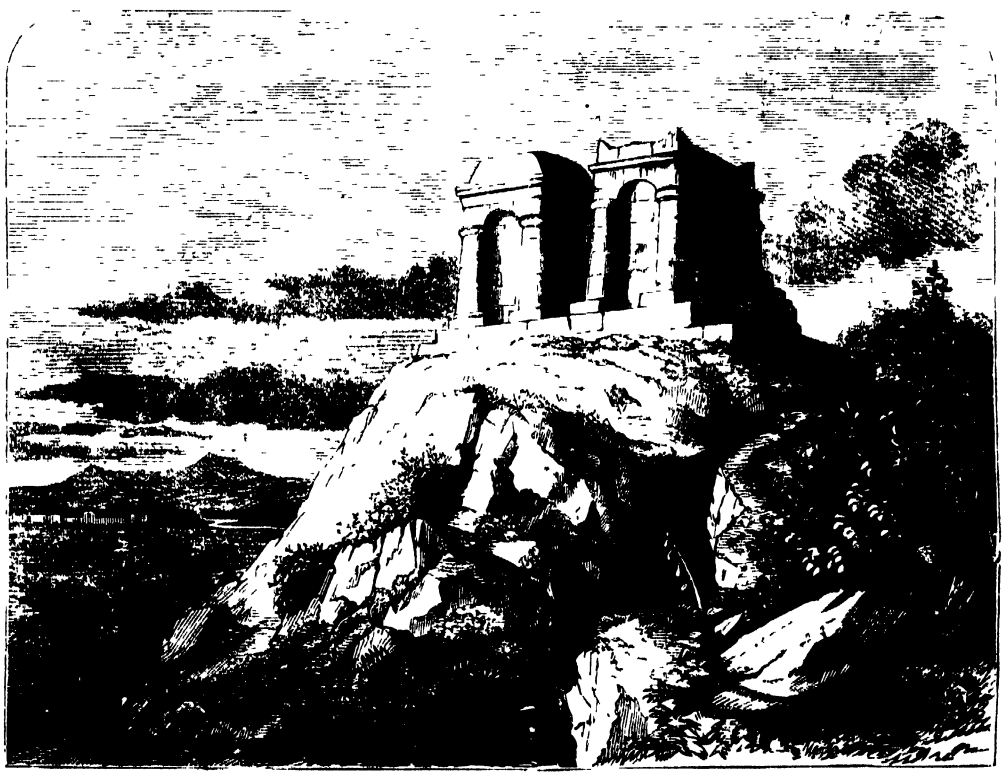
20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.[d]

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [2]concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:[e]

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.[f]

24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the [3]imagination of their evil heart, and [4]went backward, and not forward.



25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:[h]

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.[i]

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.[j]

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth [5]correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.[k]

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews, both dead and alive. 4 He upbraideth their foolish and shameless impenitency. 13 He sheweth their grievous judgment, 18 and bewaileth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: 2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.[b]

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.[c]

4 ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.[d]

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.[e]

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly [1]in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.[f]

9 [2]The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and [3]what wisdom is in them?[g]

10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.[h]

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.[i]

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 ¶ I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.[j]

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of [4]gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.[k]

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble![l]

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and [5]all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.[m]

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.[n]

18 ¶ When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint [6]in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people [7]because of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?[o]

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.[p]

22 Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people [8]recovered?[q]

CHAPTER IX.

OH [9]that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people![r]

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.[s]

3 And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.[t]

glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:[a]

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.[b]

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will [1]punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;[c]

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are [2]in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.[d]

CHAPTER X.

1 The unequal comparison of God and idols. 17 The prophet exhorteth to flee from the calamity to come. 19 He lamenteth the spoil of the tabernacle by foolish pastors. 23 He maketh an humble supplication.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.[e]

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.[f]

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.[g]

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.[h]

7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for [3]to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.[i]

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.[j]

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.[k]

10 But the LORD is the [4]true God, he is the living God, and an [5]everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.[l]

11 [6]Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.[m]

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.[n]

13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a [7]multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings [8]with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.[o]

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.[p]

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.[q]

16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.[r]

17 ¶ Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress.[s]

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so.[t]

19 ¶ Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.[u]

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.[v]

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.[w]

23 ¶ O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.[x]

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou [9]bring me to nothing.[y]

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.[z]

do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:[a]

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, [1]So be it, O LORD.[b]

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.[c]

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.[d]

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the [2]imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.[e]

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[f]

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.[g]

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.[h]

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their [3]trouble.[i]

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that [4]shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.[j]

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their [5]trouble.[k]

15 [6]What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? [7]when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.[l]

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.[m]

17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.[n]

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.[o]

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.[p]

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:[q]

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will [8]punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.[r]

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jeremiah, complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith seeth their ruin. 5 God admonisheth him of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and lamenteth his heritage. 14 He promiseth to the penitent return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet [9]let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?[s]

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: [10]they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.[t]

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart [11]toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.[u]

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.[v]

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?[w]

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, [12]they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak [13]fair words unto thee.[x]

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given [14]the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it [15]crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a [16]speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, [17]come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my [18]pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.[y]

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.[d]

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people.[e]

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.[f]

CHAPTER XIII.

] In the type of a linen girdle, hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people 12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery. 15 He exhorteth to prevent them future judgments. 22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.[g]

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the [2]imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.[h]

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.[i]

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.[j]

14 And I will dash them [3]one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, [4]but destroy them.[k]

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.[l]

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD'S flock is carried away captive.[m]

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your [5]principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.[n]

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?[o]

21 What wilt thou say when he shall [6]punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?[p]

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels [7]made bare.[q]

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are [8]accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.[r]

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.[s]

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.[t]

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.[b]

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.[c]

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.[d]

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.[e]

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?[f]

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.[b]

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.[c]

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.[d]

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.[f]

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.[g]

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.[h]

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.[i]

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest [3]go about into a land that they know not.[j]

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble![k]

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.[l]

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.[m]

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens [4]give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.[n]

CHAPTER XV.

1 The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews. 10 Jeremiah, complaining of their spite, receiveth a promise for himself, 12 and a threatening for them. 15 He prayeth, 19 and receiveth a gracious promise.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.[o]

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.[p]

3 And I will appoint over them four [4]kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.[q]

4 And [5]I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.[r]

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside [6]to ask how thou doest?[s]

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting.[t]

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of [7]children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways.[u]

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them [8]against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.[v]

10 ¶ Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.[w]

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily [9]I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.[x]

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.[y]

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.[a]

15 ¶ O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.[b]

16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for [1]I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.[c]

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.[d]

18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that [2]fail?[e]

19 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.[f]

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.[g]

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The prophet, under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning and feasting, foresheweth the utter ruin of the Jews, 10 because they were worse than their fathers. 14 Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt. 16 God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.[h]

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of [3]mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.[i]

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:[j]

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.[l]

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?[m]

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;[n]

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the [5]imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:[o]

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.[p]

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;[q]

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.[r]

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.[s]

17 For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.[t]

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.[u]

19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.[v]

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?[w]

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is [6]The LORD.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.[c]

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.[d]

16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor [1]to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.[e]

17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil.[f]

18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and [2]destroy them with double destruction.[g]

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:[h]

21 Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;[i]

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.[j]

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.[k]

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.[l]

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.[n]

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Under the type of a potter is shewed God's absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah for her strange revolt. 18 Jeremiah prayeth against his conspirators.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the [3]wheels.

4 And the vessel [4]that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he [5]made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.[o]

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;[p]

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.[q]

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.[r]

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.[s]

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.[t]

14 Will a man leave [6]the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;[u]

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.[v]

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.[w]

18 ¶ Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him [1]with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.[a]

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.[b]

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and [2]pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.[c]

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.[d]

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me [3]to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.[e]

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of [1]the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee,[a]

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.[b]

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents;[c]

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:[d]

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.[e]

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.[f]

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.[g]

9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.[h]

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,[i]

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot [2]be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.[j]

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.[k]

1 Pashur, smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom. 7 Jeremiah complaineth of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his birth.

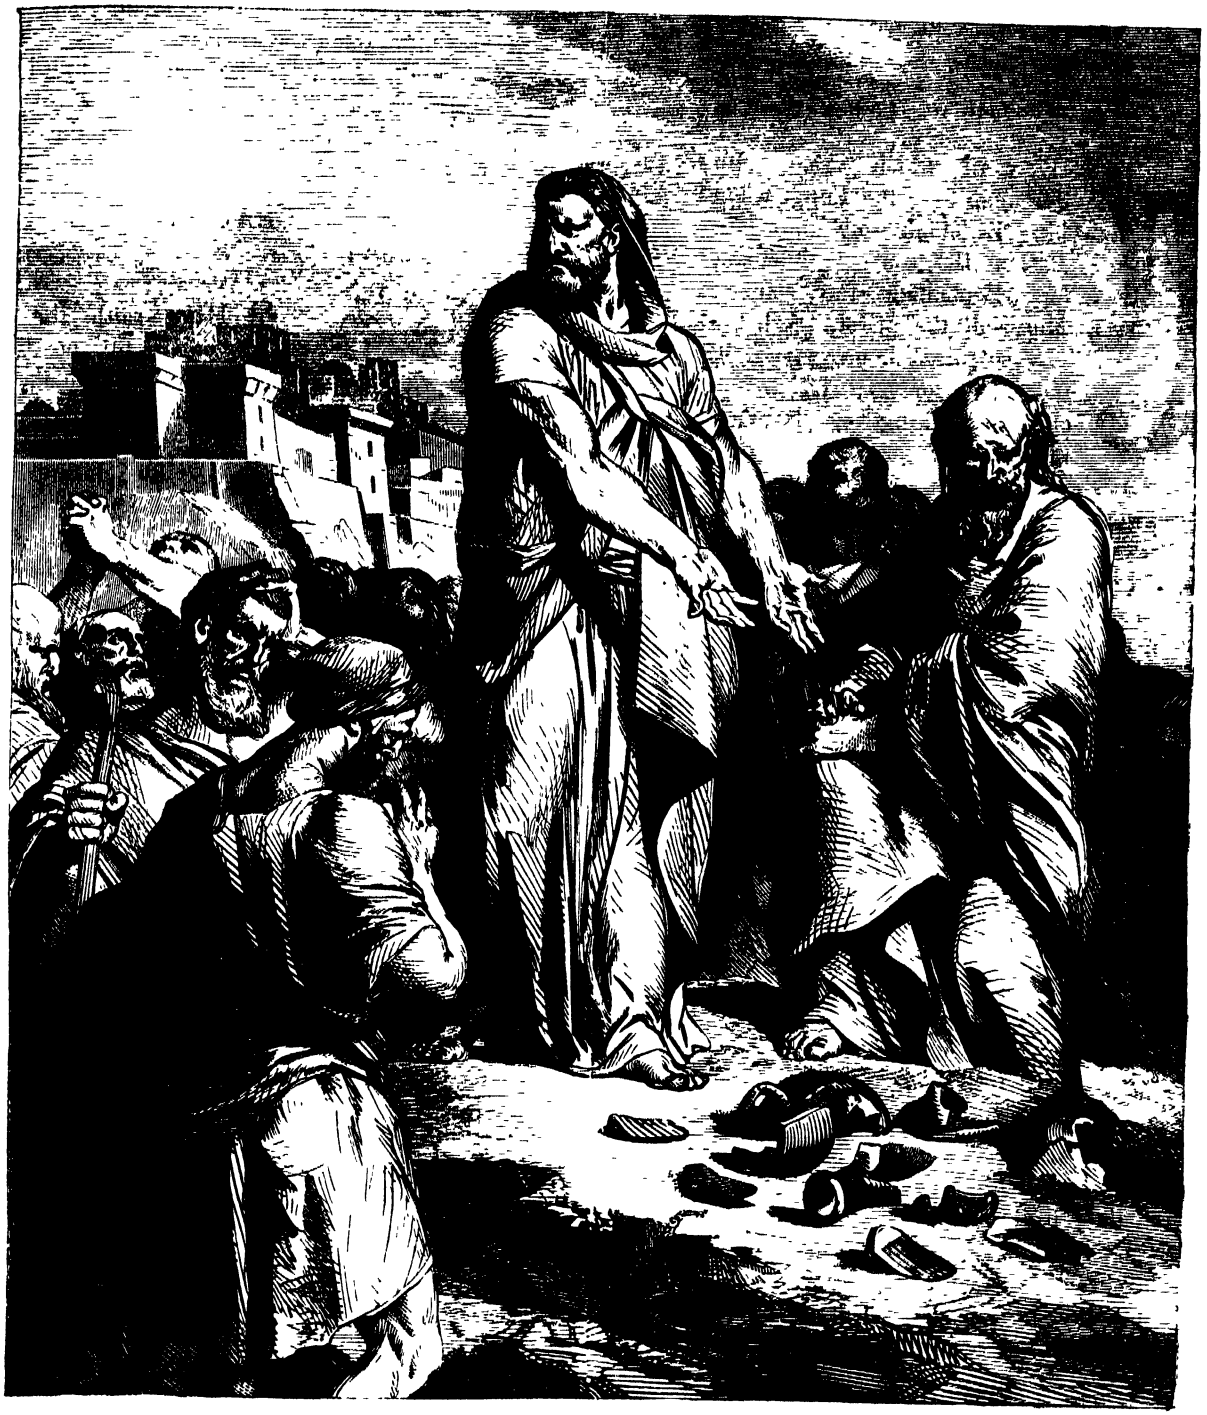
NOW Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.[n]

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but [3]Magor-missabib.[o]

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.[p]



6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.[q]

7 ¶ O LORD, thou hast [4]deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.[r]

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.[s]

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.[t]

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. 3 Jeremiah foretelleth a hard siege and miserable captivity. 8 He counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, 11 and upbraideth the king's house.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,[a]

2 Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.[b]

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.[c]

5 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.[d]

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.[e]

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.[f]

9 He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.[g]

10 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.[h]

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; [1]Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.[i]

13 Behold, I am against thee, O [2]inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?[j]

14 But I will [3]punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.[k]

1 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:[l]

3 Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.[m]

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting [4]upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.[n]

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.[o]

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.[p]

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?[q]

9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.[r]

10 ¶ Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.[s]

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:[t]

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;[u]

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.[f]

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:[d]

40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.[e]

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city [1]which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.[b]

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;[l]

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.[m]

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down [6]in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, [7]This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.[n]

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.[o]

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me [8]as seemeth good and meet unto you.[p]

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,[q]

18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.[r]

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear [1]the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.[a]

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the [2]common people.

24 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.[b]

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he propheseth the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. 8 He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets 12 The like he doeth to Zedekiah 19 He foretelleth, the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,[c]

2 Thus [3]saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,[d]

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them [4]to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.[e]

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.[f]

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.[g]

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your [5]dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.[h]

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.[i]

13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?[j]

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.[k]

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy [6]a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD'S house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.[l]

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,[m]

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;[n]

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.[o]

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah 5 Jeremiah, wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,[a]

[a] ch. xxvii. 1.

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.[b]

3 Within [1]two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:[c]

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the [2]captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD'S house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.[a]

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.[b]

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.[c]

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.[d]

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.[e]

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.[f]

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught [1]rebellion against the LORD.[g]

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, 8 and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;[i]

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.[j]

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.[k]

9 For they prophesy [3]falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.[l]

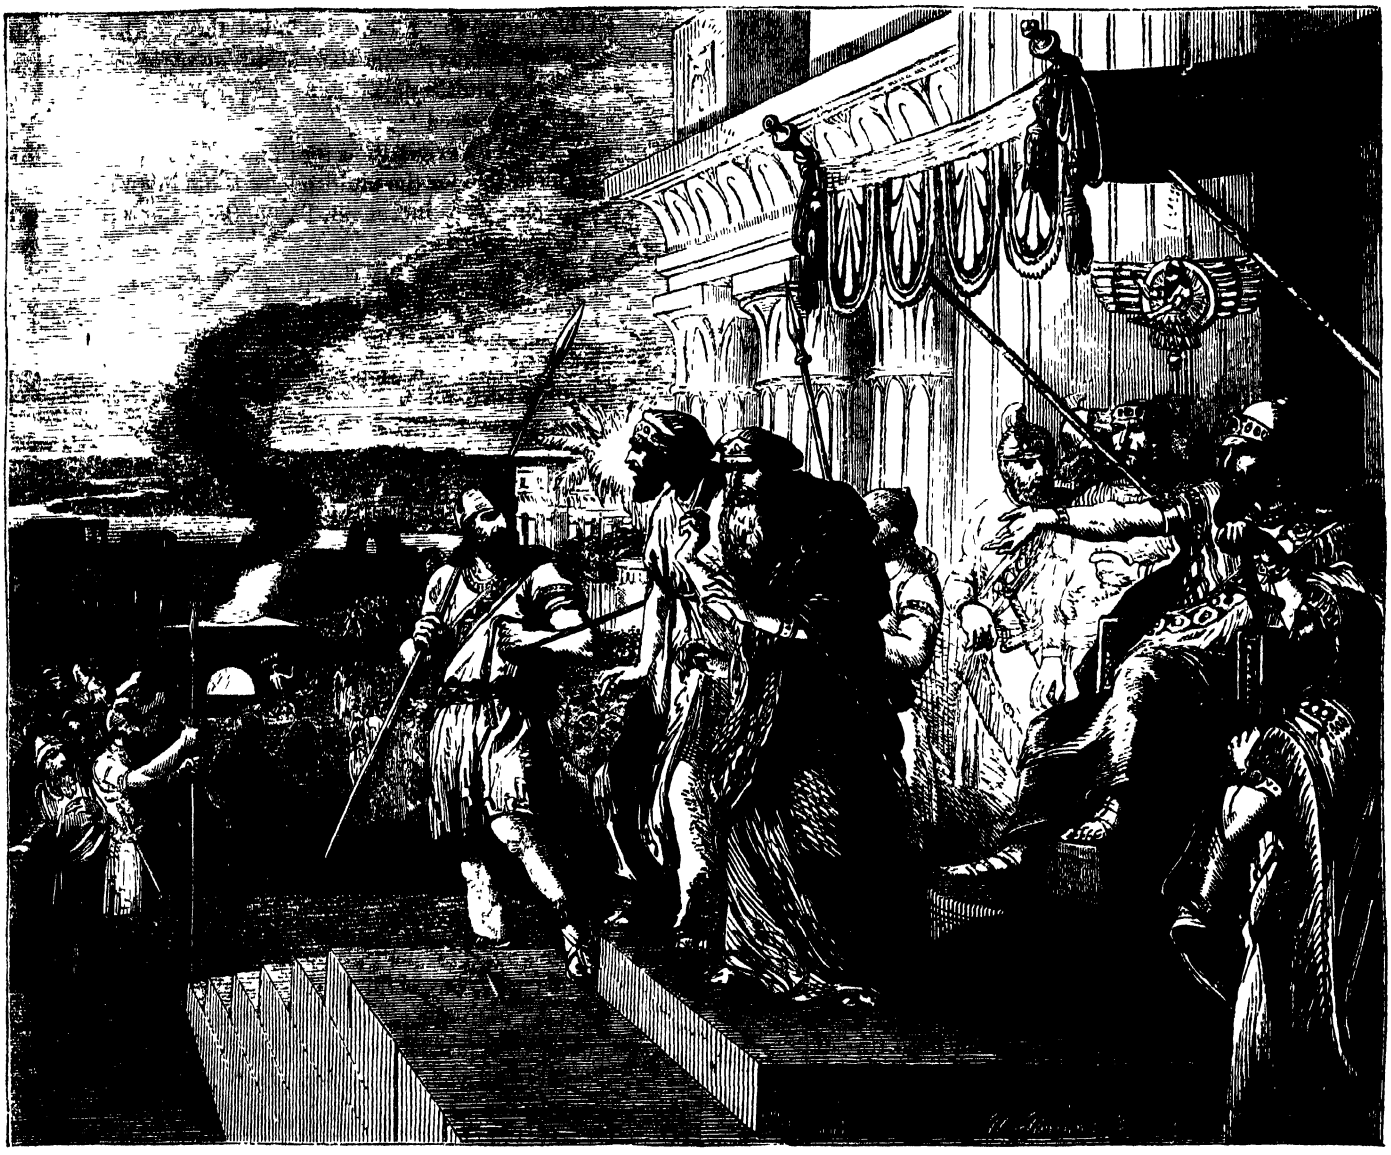
10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.[m]

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an [4]expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.[n]

13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.[o]

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.[p]



15 ¶ Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.[q]

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, [5]to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:[r]

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.[a]

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;[b]

23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, am a witness, saith the LORD.[c]

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks.[e]

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

CHAPTER XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews. 4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 20 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.[c]

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, [2]of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?[d]

7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.[e]

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.[f]

10 ¶ Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.[g]

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.[h]

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.[i]

13 There is none to plead thy cause, [3]that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.[j]

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy [1]tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.[a]

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall [2]eat them as common things.[b]

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.[c]

7 For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.[d]

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.[e]

9 They shall come with weeping, and with [3]supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.[f]

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.[g]

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.[h]

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.[i]

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Jeremiah, being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.[w]

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.[x]

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith he LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;[y]

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;[a]

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.[b]

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.[c]

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even [1]seventeen shekels of silver.[d]

10 And I [2]subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.[e]

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.[f]

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;[a]

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:[b]

24 Behold the [1]mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.[c]

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; [2]for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.[d]

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?[e]

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:[f]

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.[g]

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.[h]

31 For this city hath been to me as [3]a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face,[i]

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[j]

33 And they have turned unto me the [4]back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.[k]

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.[l]

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.[m]

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;[n]

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:[o]

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God:[p]

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me [5]for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:[q]

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away [6]from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.[r]

41 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land [7]assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.[s]

42 For thus saith the LORD; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.[t]

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.[u] captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.[a]

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.[b]

9 ¶ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.[c]

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,[d]

11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.[e]

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.[f]

13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.[g]

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.[h]

15 ¶ In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.[i]

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, [1]The LORD our righteousness.[j]

17 ¶ For thus saith the LORD; [2]David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;[k]

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;[l]

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.[m]

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.[n]

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.[o]

25 Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;[p]

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.[q]

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bondservants, contrary to the covenant of God, reassume them. 12 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth [3]of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,[r]

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:[s]

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and [4]he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.[t]

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.[u]

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.[v]

made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;[a]

9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.[b]

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.[c]

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which [1]hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.[d]

15 And ye were [2]now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house [3]which is called by my name:[e]

16 But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.[f]

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you [4]to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.[g]

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,[h]

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.[i]

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you.[j]

22 Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.[k]

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 Jeremiah condemneth the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.[l]

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the [5]door:[m]

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:[n]

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.[o]

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.[p]

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.[q]

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.[a]

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.[b]

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, 5 and publickly to read it 11 The princes, having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it 19 They will Baruch to hide himself and Jeremiah. 20 The king Jehoiakim, being certified thereof, burneth part of it, and burneth the roll. 27 Jeremiah denounceth his judgment. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.[d]

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.[f]

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.[a]

7 It may be [1]they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.[b]

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the [2]entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house, in the ears of all the people.[c]

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.[d]

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.[e]

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.[e]

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son [3]of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.[f]

31 And I will [4]punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.[g]

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many [5]like words.

JEHOIAKIM MUTILATING THE ROLL OF THE LAW.—JEREMIAH XXXVI. 23.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.[a]

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.[b]

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.[c]

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.[d]

9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not [1]yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but [2]wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.[e]

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was [3]broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,[f]

12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, [1]to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is [2]false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.[a]

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the [3]cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;[b]

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah 7 Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselleth the king by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealeth the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,[d]

2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: [4]let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.[e]

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.[f]

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the [5]welfare of this people, but the hurt.[g]

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son [6]of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.[a]

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;[b]

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and [1]he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men [2]with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.[c]

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the [3]third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.[a]

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:[b]

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.[c]

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.[d]

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee.[4] Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, [1]Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and [2]thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.[e]

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.[f]

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So [3]they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.[g]

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 4 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city ransacked, 9 the people captivated. 11 Nebuchadrezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah. 15 God's promise to Ebed-melech.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.[h]

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.[i]

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.[j]

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he [4]gave judgment upon him.[k]

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him [5]with chains, to carry him to Babylon.[l]

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.[m]

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the [6]captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.[n]

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields [7]at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah [8]to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 Take him, and [9]look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.[o]

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.[p]

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.[q]

ISHMAEL'S TREACHERY TOWARDS THE REMNANT OF JUDAH.—JEREMIAH XLI. 6

CHAPTER XL.

1 Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah. 7 The dispersed Jews repair unto him. 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy is not believed.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in [1]chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.[a]

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.[b]

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.[c]

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which [2]were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and [3]I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.[d]

5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.[a]

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.[b]

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;[c]

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.[d]

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not [1]to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah [2]to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.[e]

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 Ishmael, treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purposeth with the residue to flee unto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and mindeth to flee into Egypt.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.[f]

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.[g]

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.[h]

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, [3]weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbare, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain [4]because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.[i]

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.[j]

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,[k]

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.[l]

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt,[a]

18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.[b]

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will 7 Jeremiah answereth him of safety in Judea, 13 and destruction in Egypt 19 He reproveth their hypocrisy, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not.

THEN all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,[c]

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, [1]Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)[d]

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.[e]

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you.[f]

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.[g]

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.[h]

7 ¶ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.[i]

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid: be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.[j]

12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.[k]

13 ¶ But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,[l]

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;[m]

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, [2]shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.[n]

17 [3]So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.[o]

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.[p]

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have [4]admonished you this day.[q]

20 For [5]ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.[r]

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire [6]to go and to sojourn.[s]

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 Johanan, discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt 8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

NOW it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:[a]

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;[b]

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.[c]

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.[d]

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.[e]

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.[f]

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.[g]

13 He shall break also the [1]images of [2]Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same, 29 and for a sign prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,[h]

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,[i]

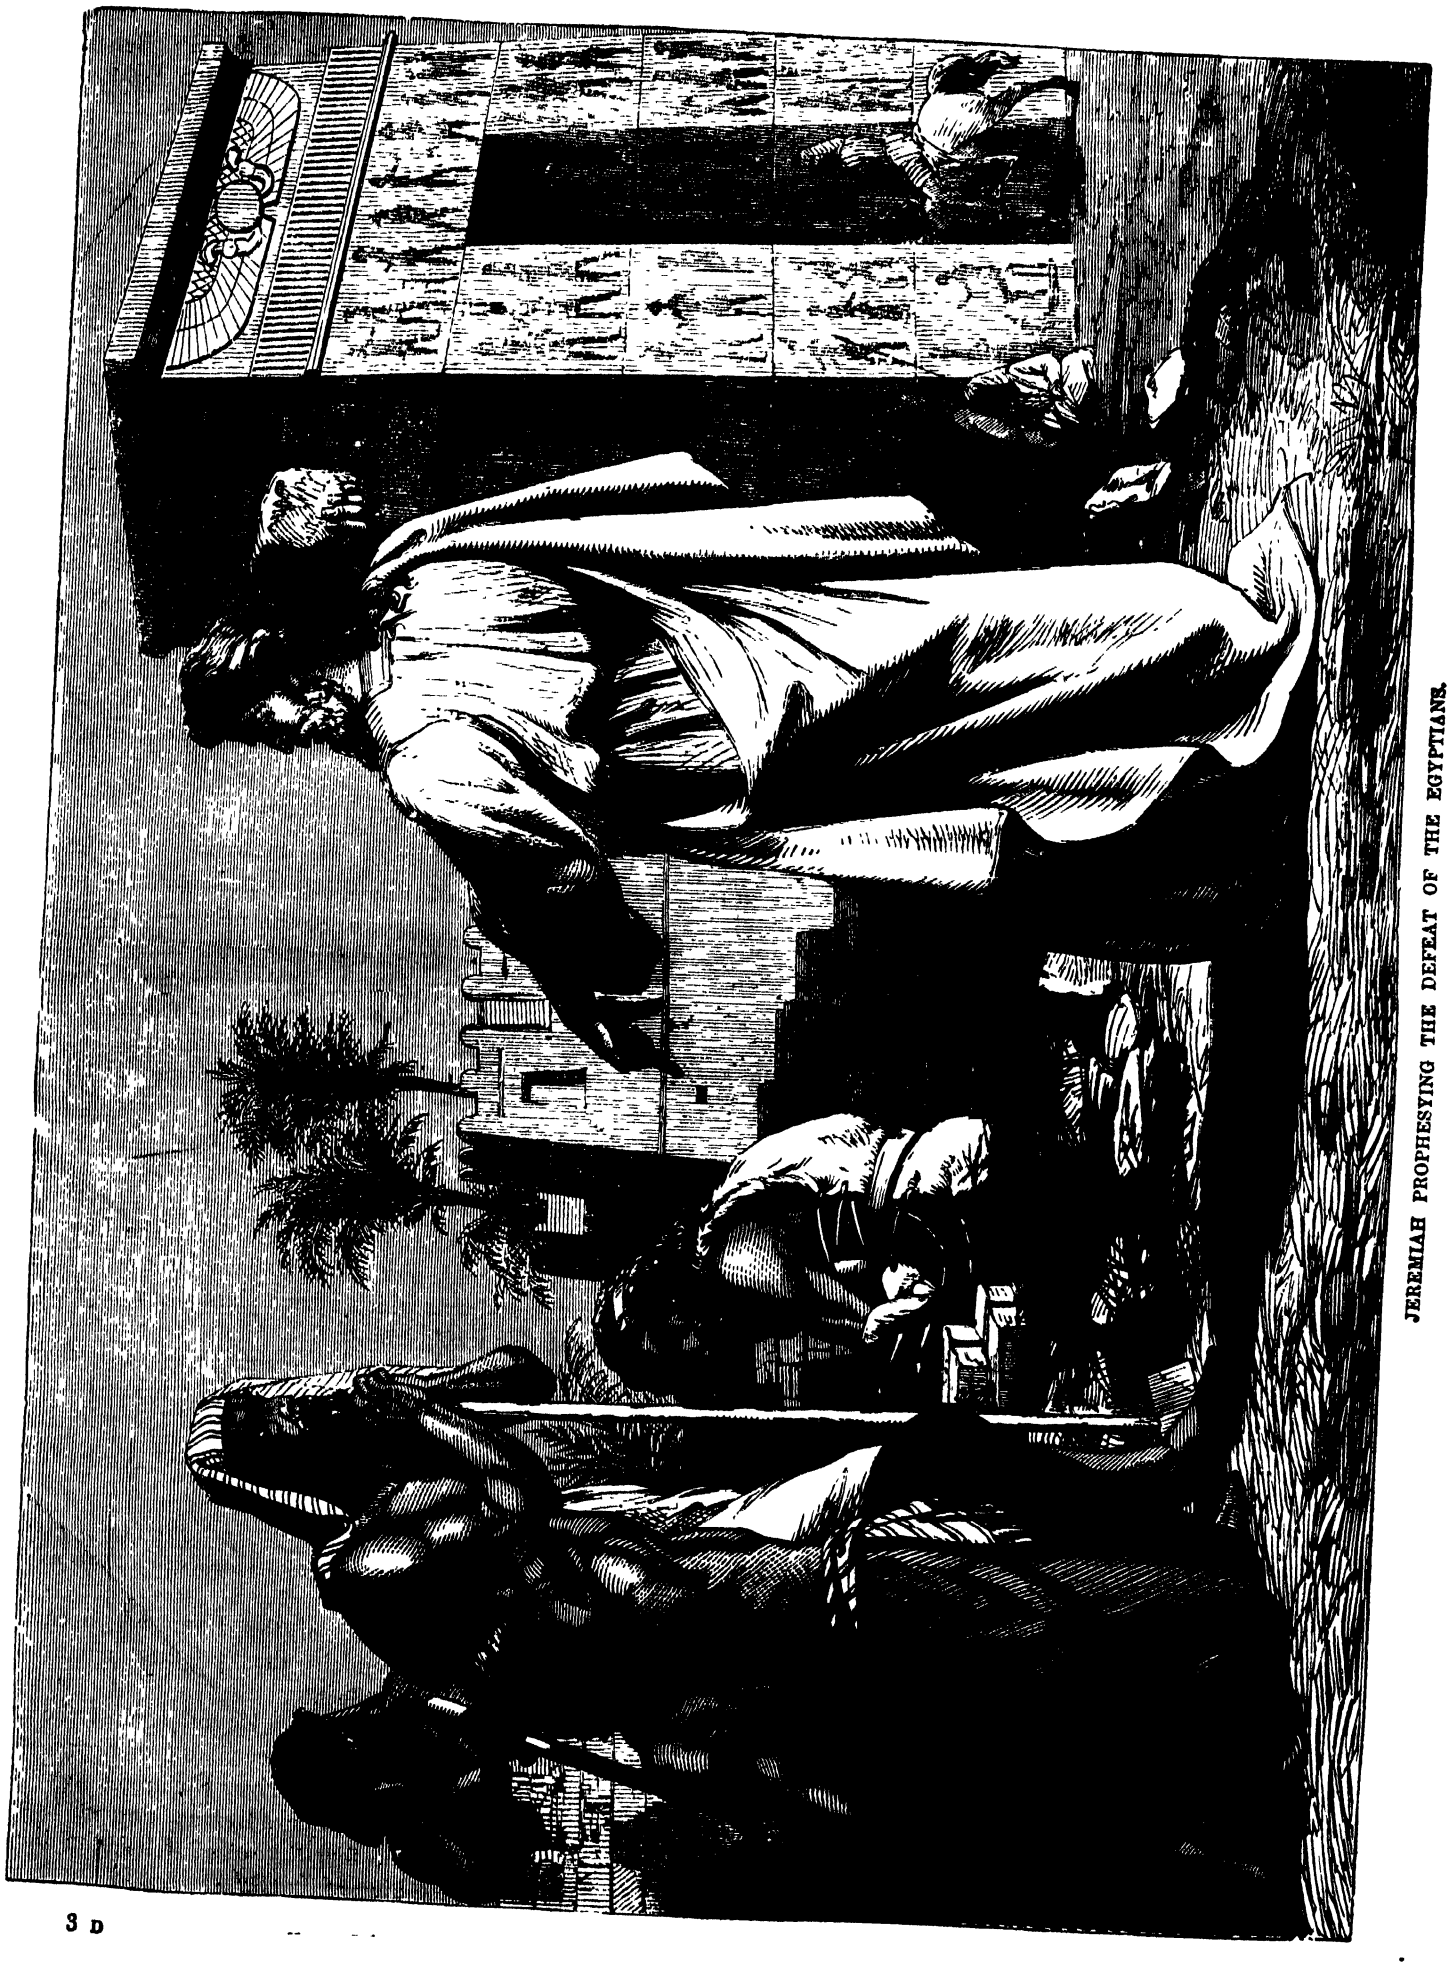
3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.[k]

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.[l]

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.[l]

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, [3]out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;[m]



8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?[n]

9 Have ye forgotten the [4]wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not [5]humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.[o]

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.[p]

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest,

JEREMIAH PROPHESYING THE DEFEAT OF THE EGYPTIANS.

by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.[a]

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:[b]

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [1]have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.[c]

15 ¶ Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee.[d]

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the [2]queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of [3]victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.[e]

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our [4]men?[f]

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.[g]

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.[h]

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:[i]

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.[j]

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.[l]

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:[n]

CHAPTER XLV.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,[p]

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.[q]

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.[r]

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles;[s]

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.[t]

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.[u]

PHARAOH-HOPHRA TAKEN PRISONER IN THE WAR WITH AMASIS.—JEREMIAH XLIV. 30.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are [1]beaten down, and are [2]fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD.[a]

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.[b]

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?[c]

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; [3]the Ethiopians and [4]the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.[d]

10 For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.[e]

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for [5]thou shalt not be cured.[f]

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.[g]

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.[h]

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

CHAPTER XLVII.

The destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote [5]Gaza.[m]

2 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and [6]all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.[n]

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;[o]

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every hélper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of [1]the country of Caphtor.[a]

5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?[b]

6 O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? [2]put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.[c]

7 [3]How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.[d]

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 The judgment of Moab, 7 for their pride, 11 for their security, 14 for their carnal confidence, 26 and for their contempt of God and his people. 47 The restoration of Moab.

AGAINST Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: [4]Misgab is confounded and dismayed.[e]

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt [5]be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall [6]pursue thee.[f]

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.[g]

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Luhith [7]continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.[h]

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like [8]the heath in the wilderness.[i]

7 ¶ For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.[j]

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.[k]

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.[l]

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD [9]deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.[m]

11 ¶ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste [10]remained in him, and his scent is not changed.[n]

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence.[o]

14 ¶ How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?[p]

15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and [11]his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.[q]

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod![r]

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.[s]

19 O [12]inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?[t]

20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,[u]

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country, upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,[v]

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.[w]

25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.[x]

26 ¶ Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.[y]

27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou [13]skippedst for joy.[z]

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.[a]

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.[b]

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; [14]his lies shall not so effect it.[c]

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab: mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.[d]

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.[e]

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.[f]

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice,

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites. 6 Their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING[7] the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth [8]their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?[n]

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.[o]

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?[b]

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.[c]

7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?[d]

8 Flee ye, [2]turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.[e]

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.[h]

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.[i]

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.[j]

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.[e]

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.[a]

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.[c]

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will [1]appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?[d]

20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.[e]

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the [2]Red sea.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.[h]

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy![i]

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.[j]

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.[k]

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.[l]

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.[m]

30 ¶ Flee, [5]get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, [6]that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.[n]

CHAPTER L.

1, 9, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

THE word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans [8]by Jeremiah the prophet.[w]

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.[x]

3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.[y]

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.[z]

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.[a]

6 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their [9]restingplace.[b]

7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.[c]

MIGHTY MEN OF EDOM IN GREAT TRIBULATION —JEREMIAH XLIX. 22

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.[a]

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty [1]expert man; none shall return in vain.[b]

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.[c]

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown [2]fat as the heifer at grass, and [3]bellow as bulls;[d]

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.[e]

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.[f]

15 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.[g]

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the [4]sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.[a]

17 ¶ Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.[h]

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.[j]

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.[k]

21 ¶ Go up against the land [5]of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of [6]Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.[l]

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.[m]

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.[b]

26 Come against her [1]from the utmost border, open her storehouses: [2]cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.[t]

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.[u]

CHAPTER LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the [6]midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;[v]

2 And will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.[w]

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.[x]

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.[y]

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD'S vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.[z]

7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD'S hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.[a]

BABYLON TAKEN BY THE ARMY OF CYRUS THE GREAT.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so she may be healed.[a]

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.[b]

10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.[c]

11 Make [1]bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.[d]

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the [2]ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.[e]

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.[f]

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn [3]by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall [4]lift up a shout against thee.[g]

15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.[h]

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a [5]multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.[i]

17 Every man [6]is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.[j]

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.[k]

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.[l]

20 Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for [7]with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;[m]

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;[n]

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.[o]

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.[p]

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be [8]desolate for ever, saith the LORD.[q]

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.[r]

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.[s]

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.[t]

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken.[u]

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end,[v]

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.[w]

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, [9]it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.[x]

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.[y]

35 [10]The violence done to me and to my [11]flesh be upon Babylon, shall the [12]inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.[z]

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.[a]

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall [13]yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.[b]

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations![c]

42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.[d]

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.[a]

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.[b]

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.[c]

46 And [1]lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.[d]

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will [2]do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.[e]

48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.[f]

49 [3]As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all [4]the earth.

50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.[g]

51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD'S house.[h]

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.[i]

53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.[j]

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:[k]

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.[l]

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.[m] of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a [8]quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be [9]desolate for ever.[o]

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:[p]

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.[q]

CHAPTER LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city. 24 He carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he [10]began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.[r]

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.[s]

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.[t]

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of

Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.[a]

11 Then he [1]put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in [2]chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in [3]prison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, [4]captain of the guard, which [5]served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,[b]

13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.[c]

17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.[d]

18 The caldrons also, and the [6]shovels, and the snuffers, and the [7]bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.[e]

19 And the basons, and the [8]firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: [9]the brass of all these vessels was without weight.[f]

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a [10]fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.[a]

22 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.[b]

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the [1]door:[c]

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that [2]were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the [3]principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH

CHAPTER I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin. 12 She complaineth of her grief, 18 and confesseth God's judgment to be righteous.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary![a]

2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.[b]

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and [1]because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.[c]

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the Lord hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.[d]

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her [2]pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she [3]is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.[e]

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.[f]

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her [4]pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.[g]

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat [5]to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.[h]

5 Or, to make the soul to come

h ch ii 12; iv. 4, Jer. xxxviii. 9; lii. 6.

12 ¶ [1]Is it nothing to you, all ye that [2]pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.[a]

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.[b]

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.[c]

15 The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden [3]the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.[d]

16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should [4]relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.[e]

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.[f]

18 ¶ The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his [5]commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.[g]

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.[h]

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.[i]

21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast [6]called, and they shall be like unto me.[j]

22 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.[k]

CHAPTER II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem. 20 He complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger![l]

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath [7]brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.[m]

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.[n]

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew [8]all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.[o]

5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.[p]

6 And he hath violently taken away his [9]tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.[q]

7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath [10]given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.[r]

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from [11]destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.[s]

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.[t]

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.[u]

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings [12]swoon in the streets of the city.[v]

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?[w]

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.[x]

15 All that pass [13]by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call

THE ELDERS AND THE VIRGINS OF JERUSALEM LAMENTING THE DESOLATION OF THE CITY.—LAMENTATIONS II. 10.

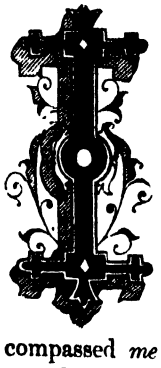
The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?[a]

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.[b]

17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.[c]

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.[d]

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.[e]



20 ¶ Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children [1]of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?[f]

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.[g]

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD'S anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.[h]

CHAPTER III.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice. 55 They pray for deliverance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.[i]

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travel.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.[j]

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.[k]

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.[l]

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.[m]

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.[n]

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.[o]

13 He hath caused the [2]arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.[p]

14 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.[q]

15 He hath filled me with [3]bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.[r]

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath [4]covered me with ashes.[s]

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgat [5]prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:[t]

19 [6]Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.[u]

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is [7]humbled in me.

21 This I [8]recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.[v]

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.[w]

24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.[x]

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.[y]

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.[z]

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.[a]

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.[b]

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.[c]

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the Lord will not cast off for ever:[d]

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict [9]willingly nor grieve the children of men.[e]

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of [10]the most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord [11]approveth not.[f]

37 ¶ Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?[g]

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?[h]

39 Wherefore doth a living man [12]complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?[i]

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.[j]

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.[k]

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate 13 She confesseth her sins 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.[u]

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter![v]

3 Even the [4]sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.[w]

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.[x]

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.[y]

6 For the [5]punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.[z]

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

THE OSTRICH

8 Their visage is [6]blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.[a]

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these [7]pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.[b]

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.[c]

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 ¶ For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,[d]

WATER IN A TIME OF FAMINE AND OPPRESSION.—LAMENTATIONS V. 4.

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, [1]so that men could not touch their garments.[a]

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; [2]it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.[b]

16 The [3]anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.[c]

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.[d]

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.[e]

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.[f]

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.[g]

21 ¶ Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.[h]

22 ¶ [4]The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will [5]discover thy sins.[i]

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, [4]the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 [3]The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned![i]

17 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.[j]

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation.[k]

20 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us [4]so long time?[l]

21 Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.[m]

22 But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK of the PROPHET EZEKIEL

CHAPTER I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar. 4 His vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels, 26 and of the glory of God.

Before Christ 595.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.[a]

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,[b]

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto [1]Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.[c]

4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.[d]

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.[a]

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were [1]straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.[b]

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.[c]

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.[d]

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.[e]

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were [2]stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.[f]

12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.[g]

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.[h]

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.[i]

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.[j]

16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.[k]

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.[l]

18 As for their [3]rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.[m]

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit [4]of the living creature was in the wheels.[n]

21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit [5]of the living creature was in the wheels.[o]

22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

CHAPTER II.

1 Ezekiel's commission. 6 His instruction. 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

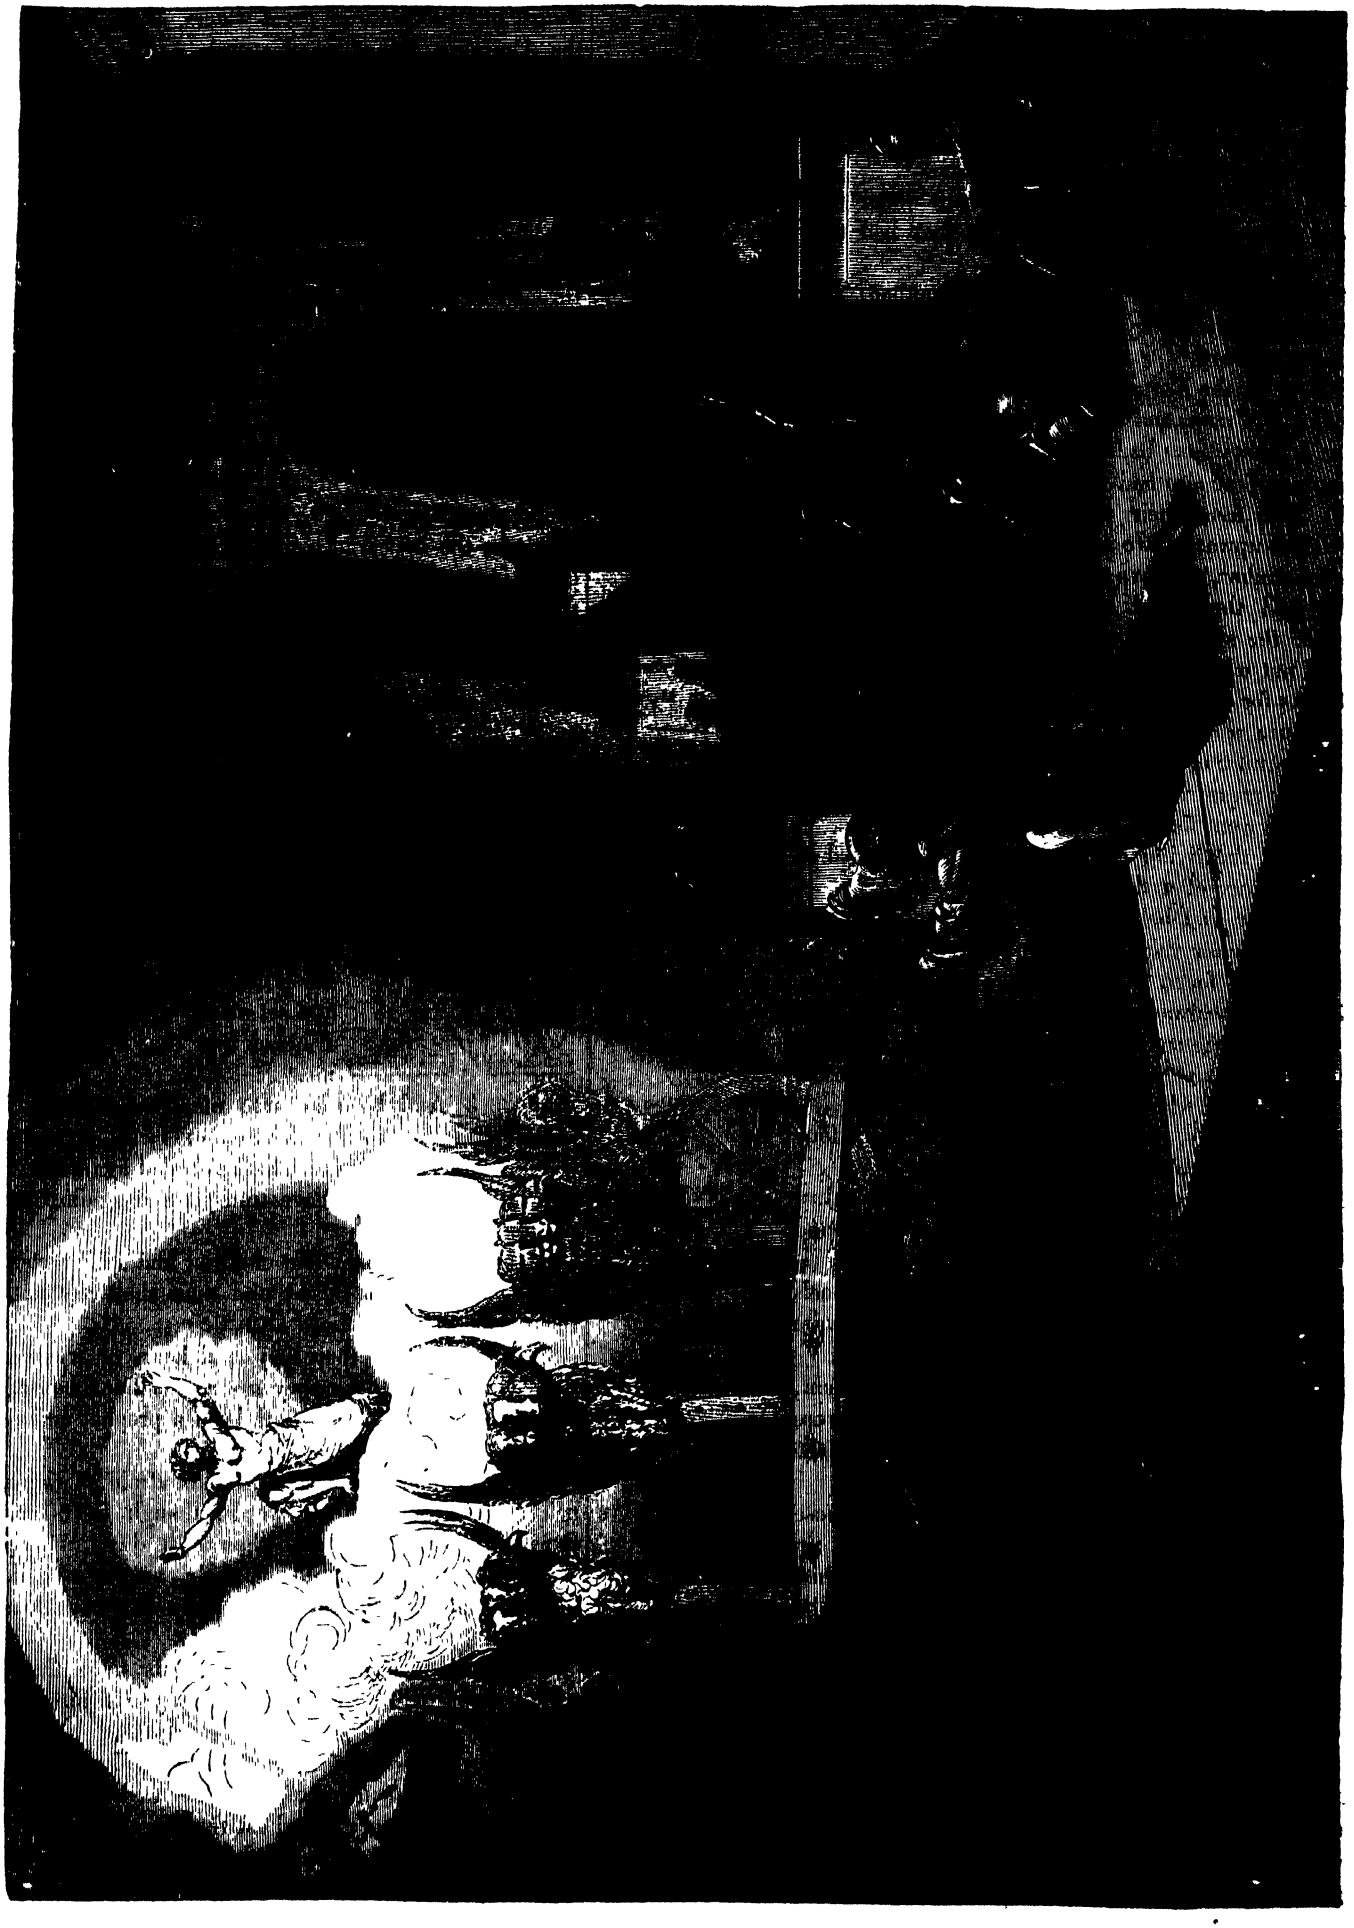
AND he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.[t]

2 And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.[u]

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious [6]nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.[v]

4 For they are [7]impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.[w]



5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.[x]

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.[y]

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are [8]most rebellious.[z]

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.[a]

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein;[b]

EZEKIEL'S VISION.—I. 4—28; X. 8—22.

10 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.[a]

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.[b]

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people [1]of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people [2]of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. [3]Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.[c]

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are [4]impudent and hardhearted.[d]

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.[e]

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.[f]

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.[g]

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that [5]touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went [6]in bitterness, in the [7]heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.[h]

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.[i]

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.[l]

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his [8]righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.[m]

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:[p]

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them [9]a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.[q]

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.[r]

CHAPTER IV.

1 Under the type of a siege is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity 9 By the provision of the siege, is shewed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set [10]battering rams against it round about.[s]

3 Moreover take thou unto thee [11]an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.[t]

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.[a]

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee [1]each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee [2]from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.[b]

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and [3]fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.[c]

14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.[d]

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:[e]

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.[f]

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.[g]

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.[h]

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy [4]skirts.[i]

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.[j]

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;[k]

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.[l]

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.[m]

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.[n]

12 ¶ A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.[o]

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.[p]

14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.[q]

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it.[r]

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:[s]

EZEKIEL POURTRAYING THE SIEGE OF JERUSALEM.—EZEKIEL IV. 1, 2

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.[a]

CHAPTER VI.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be blessed. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,[b]

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.[c]

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your [1]images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.[d]

5 And I will [2]lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.[e]

8 ¶ Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols:

and they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.[a]

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.[b]

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.[c]

13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.[d]

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, [1]more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.[e]

CHAPTER VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel. 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape 20 The enemies defile the sanctuary because of the Israelites' abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.[f]

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will [2]recompense upon thee all thine abominations.[g]

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.[h]

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it [3]watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the [4]sounding again of the mountains.[i]

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.[j]

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense [5]thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.[k]

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.[l]

11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their [6]multitude, nor of any of [7]their's: neither shall there be wailing for them.[m]

12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, [8]although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself [9]in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.[n]

16 ¶ But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall [10]be weak as water.[o]

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.[p]

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be [11]removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: [12]because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity.[q]

20 ¶ As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I [13]set it far from them.[r]

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the [14]robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ¶ Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.[s]

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and [15]their holy places shall be defiled.

25 [16]Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.[t]

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.[b]

2 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.[c]

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.[d]

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.[e]

VISION OF THE CHAMBERS OF IMAGERY.—EZEKIEL VIII. 7—12.

VISION OF JUDGMENT UPON JERUSALEM.—EZEKIEL IX. 1—7.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.[a]

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.[b]

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

BEFORE CHRIST 594.

e vs 3, 5.
b vs. 6, 13, 15.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.[c]

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.[d]

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.[e]

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.[a]

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? [1]Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.[b]

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.[c]

CHAPTER IX.

1 A vision, whereby is shewed the preservation of some, 5 and the destruction of the rest. 8 God cannot be intreated for them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, [2]which lieth toward the north, and every man [3]a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn [4]by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.[d]

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;[e]

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and [5]set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.[f]

5 ¶ And to the others he said in [6]mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:[g]

6 Slay [7]utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.[h]

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?[i]

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city [8]full of [9]perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.[j]

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head.[k]

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, [10]reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER X.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, to be scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubims.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.[l]

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill [11]thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.[m]

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the LORD [12]went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.[n]

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.[o]

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub [13]stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.[p]

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.[q]

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.[r]

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.[s]
